PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On June 30, 2015, the Rio Tinto America Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan and Investment Partnership Plan (the Registrant) filed a Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 (the 12b-25) indicating that additional time was necessary to complete its annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 on Form 11-K (the 2014 11-K), the report that is the subject of this filing, due to the reasons enumerated in that filing and summarized below.

As previously reported, in late May 2015, McGladrey LLP (McGladrey), the former independent registered public accounting firm of the Registrant, notified the Rio Tinto America Inc. Benefit Governance Committee (the BGC), which administers the Registrant and acts as its fiduciary, that it believed certain services (the Services) that one of its associated entities had provided to affiliates of the Registrant during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 may be inconsistent with the Securities and Exchange Commission's (the Commission) rules on auditor independence. Prior to such notification, the Registrant did not believe there were any issues relating to McGladrey's independence.

The Registrant worked closely with McGladrey regarding the independence matter after McGladrey notified the BGC of the issue. However, in order to ensure that the audit of the Registrant's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 could be completed and issued, the BGC terminated McGladrey as the independent auditor of the Registrant on June 26, 2015 and engaged Anton Collins Mitchell LLP (ACM) as the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Registrant's financial statements. The relevant financial statements for the Registration Statement on Form S-8 currently on file for the Registrant comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2013 and the related notes to the financial statements.

On July 13, 2015, McGladrey notified the BGC that, despite its belief that the Services did not compromise its integrity or objectivity, it was withdrawing its audit reports for the Registrant's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2011, 2012 and 2013 from the Registrant's annual reports on Form 11-K for these periods (the Affected Filings).

The Registrant is in the process of amending the Affected Filings to remove the audit report of McGladrey and to label the financial statements as unaudited. The Registrant intends to refile the annual reports on Form 11-K for the respective fiscal years with the SEC once the necessary independent audits are completed, which is expected to be as soon as reasonably practicable. As a result of the foregoing, the financial statements contained in the Affected Filings should not be relied upon.

Furthermore, the Registrant does not now expect to file the 2014 11-K on or before the fifteenth calendar day following June 29, 2015, the prescribed due date for the 2014 11-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, the Registrant is hereby amending the Form 12b-25 to uncheck the box under Part II of the subject form.
