On January 19, 2007, PacificNet Inc. (the "Company") was informed by its principal independent accountant, Clancy and Co. P.L.L.C. ("Clancy") that it was resigning from its engagement with the Company, which resignation was effective immediately. Clancy was engaged by the Company on March 12, 2002 and resigned as of January 19, 2007.

There were no disagreements between the Company and Clancy on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, during the two fiscal years of the Company ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 and subsequently up to the date of resignation which disagreements, if not resolved to Clancy's satisfaction, would have caused Clancy to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report issued in connection with the audit of the Company's financial statements. None of the reportable events described under Item 304(a)(1)(v)(A)-(D) of Regulation S-K occurred within the two fiscal years of the Company ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 and subsequently up to the date of resignation. The audit report of Clancy on the financial statements of the Company as of December 31, 2005 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and such audit report was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. The Company has requested that Clancy furnish a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Company herein and will file such letter in an amendment to this Current Report on Form 8-K within two business days of receipt.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company is now engaged in interviewing and selecting a replacement independent accountant to perform the upcoming audit for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.
