This is a supplement to the joint proxy statement/prospectus on Form S-4 (File No. 333-103201) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 27, 2003 by USA Interactive ("USA") and uDate.com, Inc. ("uDate") in connection with the proposed merger of uDate and a subsidiary of USA that would result in uDate becoming a subsidiary of USA. This supplement contains important information regarding USA which should be read carefully by uDate stockholders before making a decision regarding the merger. Copies of the joint proxy statement/prospectus and any amendments and supplements thereto may be obtained without charge at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov as they become available.

March 25, 2003

To the stockholders of uDate.com, Inc.:

On March 19, 2003, USA announced that it had entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Expedia, Inc. ("Expedia") and Equinox Merger Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of USA, providing for the acquisition by USA of the outstanding shares of Expedia that it does not already own. USA also announced that it currently owns approximately 54% of the outstanding shares of Expedia and controls approximately 94.9% of the combined voting power of the outstanding Expedia shares. As a result of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, Expedia will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of USA. In this supplement, we refer to this transaction as the Expedia merger.

The Expedia merger will not occur until after the closing of the USA/uDate merger described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. The attached materials contain certain information regarding the Expedia merger. We have also enclosed for your information a copy of the press release issued by USA on March 19, 2003 in connection with the Expedia merger and a copy of the Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC by USA on March 25, 2003, which contains certain pro forma financial information of USA giving effect to the Expedia merger.

In order to give uDate's stockholders an opportunity to review the information contained in this supplement before voting on the USA/uDate merger, uDate intends, immediately upon convening the special meeting of uDate's stockholders on March 26, 2003, to entertain a motion to adjourn the special meeting. The vote of a majority of the outstanding uDate shares present or represented at the special meeting will be required in order to adjourn the special meeting. USA has informed uDate that it will vote the uDate shares for which it holds an irrevocable proxy, which represent approximately 64% of the outstanding shares of uDate's common stock, in favor of the motion for adjournment. The record date for the special meeting will remain February 7, 2003.

Pursuant to the adjournment, the reconvened special meeting will be held on April 4, 2003 at 10:00 am local time at the following location:

Hale and Dorr LLP
60 State Street
Boston, Massachusetts 02109

At the reconvened special meeting, uDate's stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt and approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 19, 2002, among USA, Geffen Acquisition Sub Inc., uDate and, for purposes of Section 7.8 and Articles X and XI thereof, Terrence Lee Zehrer and Atlas Trust Company (Jersey) Limited, as trustee of the Internet Investments Inc. Employee Shares Trust, and the merger of Geffen Acquisition Sub with and into uDate.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the uDate shares outstanding as of the record date is required to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger at the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 25,366,163 outstanding shares of uDate common stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting, of which approximately 24% were owned by directors and executive officers of uDate. USA has entered into a stockholders' agreement with stockholders of uDate who held, in the aggregate, approximately 64% of the outstanding shares of uDate common stock as of February 7, 2003. Pursuant to the stockholders' agreement, these stockholders have given USA an irrevocable proxy to vote their shares in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger at the special meeting. As a result of the proxies held by USA, we anticipate that the merger will be approved, regardless of the vote of uDate's other stockholders.

Please review the information contained in this supplement carefully in connection with your consideration of the approval of the merger agreement for the USA/uDate merger at the special meeting. Thank you for your continued interest and support.

Sincerely yours,

Melvyn Morris
President and Chief Executive Officer
uDate.com, Inc.

THE EXPEDIA MERGER

On March 18, 2003, USA and its subsidiary Equinox Merger Corp. entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Expedia. Pursuant to this agreement, USA, which already owns approximately 54% of Expedia's shares and controls approximately 94.9% of the combined voting power of the outstanding Expedia shares, will acquire the Expedia shares that it does not already own. Under the agreement, the Expedia stockholders will receive 1.93875 shares of USA common stock for each share of Expedia stock that they own, and options and warrants to acquire Expedia stock will be converted into options and warrants to acquire USA common stock on a similar basis. USA expects to issue approximately 92.5 million basic shares, and 124.9 million shares on a fully diluted basis, of its common stock in the Expedia merger. Based on the closing price of USA's common stock on the Nasdaq National Market on March 18, 2003, the value of the USA shares to be issued in the Expedia merger is approximately $3.3 billion.

Although the Agreement and Plan of Merger relating to the Expedia merger contains customary closing conditions, the transaction is not subject to any material adverse effect conditions. USA and Expedia expect to close the Expedia merger in the summer of 2003.

The Expedia Board of Directors approved the Expedia merger following the unanimous recommendation and approval of an independent special committee of the Expedia Board of Directors. USA stockholders holding a majority of the voting power of USA have approved the Expedia merger pursuant to an action by written consent. Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, USA has agreed to vote all of the Expedia shares it already owns in favor of the Expedia merger at the special meeting of Expedia stockholders to be held to consider the approval of the Agreement and Plan of Merger.

The Agreement and Plan of Merger relating to the Expedia merger was filed as an Exhibit to USA's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on March 19, 2003 and is available without charge at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

USA issued a press release on March 19, 2003 in connection with the execution of the Agreement and Plan of Merger relating to the Expedia merger. A copy of this press release is enclosed with this supplement for your information. USA filed with the SEC on March 25, 2003 a Current Report on Form 8-K containing certain pro forma financial information of USA giving effect to the Expedia merger. A copy of this Current Report is also enclosed with this supplement for your information.

EFFECT ON USA/UPDATE MERGER

The Expedia merger will not have any effect on the consideration to be received by uDate stockholders in the USA/uDate merger or alter any other terms or conditions of the USA/uDate merger. The merger consideration to which uDate stockholders and the holders of uDate options and its warrant are entitled as a result of the USA/uDate merger remains as described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus.

USA INTERACTIVE AND EXPEDIA ANNOUNCE MERGER AGREEMENT USA TO ACQUIRE THE EXPEDIA SHARES IT DOES NOT ALREADY OWN IN A $3.3 BILLION TRANSACTION USA ANNOUNCES BOARD AUTHORIZATION OF STOCK REPURCHASE PLAN

New York, NY and Bellevue, WA March 19, 2003 USA Interactive (Nasdaq: USAI) and Expedia, Inc. (NASDAQ: EXPE) announced today that they have entered into an agreement by which USA, already the majority owner of Expedia, would acquire the Expedia shares it does not currently own in a stock-for-stock transaction that is generally tax-free to Expedia shareholders. The transaction is valued at $3.3 billion, based on the closing price of USA common stock on March 18, 2003. The transaction allows USA to further simplify its corporate structure. The Expedia Board of Directors approved the agreement following the unanimous recommendation and approval of an independent Special Committee of the Expedia Board.

Under the agreement, Expedia shareholders would receive 1.93875 shares of USA common stock for each share of Expedia stock that they own, which represents approximately a 30% premium, based on the closing price of USA stock and Expedia stock on March 18, 2003. In the transaction, USA would issue to Expedia public shareholders approximately 92.5 million basic shares and 124.9 million shares on a fully diluted, treasury method basis. In connection with the merger, Expedia warrants and options will be converted into warrants and options to acquire USA common stock. The transaction is expected to be slightly dilutive to USA's adjusted earnings per share ("EPS") for 2003, however, due to expected over-performance by Expedia and USA's other businesses, USA believes that it will meet its current 2003 budgeted adjusted EPS of $0.75 per share. In addition, USA expects Q1 2003 EBITA to very significantly exceed last year's Q1 EBITA and to beat its Q1 2003 EBITA budgeted amount, and expects to meet or exceed its Q1 2003 adjusted EPS budget. Please note that USA's projections are based on the expectation of a short conflict in Iraq without any other significant geopolitical disruptions during the year. USA also announced that its Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase of up to 30 million shares of USA common stock. USA may purchase shares from time to time on the open market or through private transactions, depending on market conditions, share price and other factors.

Barry Diller, Chairman and CEO of USA Interactive, said, "The timing in relation to world events is an accident as often happens with transactions, they take the time they take to reach conclusion however, we were of course mindful of events beyond our own and our decision to acquire the balance of Expedia under these circumstances does dramatically underscore our great belief in the robust growth and long term value of online travel. Travel may be affected by this or that event, for a day or a month or whatever, but if there is life then there is travel we bet on the latter."

"We all have so much respect for Rich Barton, Erik Blachford and the superb group they have assembled that has executed so flawlessly building Expedia into a leadership position in online travel we hope by this consolidation of ownership at USA that this great Expedia group will play an ever expanding role across all our 14 Divisions."

"The Special Committee carefully reviewed the transaction in consultation with our financial and legal advisors and we believe that the merger creates significant value for Expedia's minority shareholders," said Jay Hoag, Chairman of the Special Committee of Expedia's Board of Directors. "Expedia shareholders have an opportunity to participate in the significant upside potential of USA, which is further enhanced by its full ownership of Expedia."

"This transaction gives us the opportunity to accelerate our work of building a great travel company," said Erik Blachford, incoming President and CEO of Expedia. "We are looking forward to working with USA and its other entities in a more integrated fashion, and believe there is substantial value to be created in the process."

USA currently owns approximately 54% of the outstanding Expedia stock and controls approximately 94.9% of the combined voting power of the outstanding Expedia shares. USA has agreed to vote all of its Expedia shares in favor of the merger at the Expedia stockholders meeting relating to the merger. USA shareholders holding a majority of the voting power of USA have acted by written consent to approve the transaction. An information statement will be mailed to USA shareholders and a proxy statement/prospectus will be mailed to Expedia shareholders. The transaction, which is subject to customary conditions, is expected to be completed in the summer of 2003. The transaction is not subject to any material adverse effect conditions (including the possible effects of war).

Based on results through February, Expedia is trending toward revenue of $194 million and adjusted earnings per share of at least $0.25 for the first quarter ending March 31. These trends compare with Expedia's operating budget, which calls for revenue of $186 million and adjusted EPS of $0.22. Neither the current estimates nor the operating budget incorporate any assumption relating to war or other significant disruption to the travel industry.

USA and Expedia will audiocast their conference call today, Wednesday, March 19, 2003, at 12:00 p.m. Eastern Time (ET). The live audiocast is open to the public at www.usainteractive.com/investor.relations.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements of USA reflect some assumptions regarding the transactions and are based on the historical financial statements of USA. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements of USA, including the notes accompanying them, are qualified in their entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, USA's audited financial statements, including the notes accompanying them, which have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

USA is in the process of evaluating the fair value of the additional interest in the assets and liabilities of Ticketmaster acquired in the Ticketmaster merger and the assets and liabilities of Expedia to be acquired in the Expedia merger, including the allocation of merger consideration to intangibles other than goodwill. Accordingly, this purchase accounting information is preliminary and has been made solely for the purpose of developing the unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial information contained in the following pages.
