AUGUST TECHNOLOGY REMINDS SHAREHOLDERS TO RETURN

ELECTION FORM/LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

BY

11:59 PM, EASTERN TIME, ON TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2006

Minneapolis, February 9, 2006 August Technology Corporation (NASDAQ: AUGT) today reminded shareholders to return the Election Form/Letter of Transmittal recently mailed to shareholders in connection with next week's Special Meeting of August Technology Shareholders. The election deadline for returning the Election Form/Letter of Transmittal is 11:59 pm, Eastern time, on Tuesday, February 14, 2006. The special meeting is scheduled to be held on Wednesday, February 15, 2006 to vote upon the proposed merger with Rudolph Technologies, Inc. Under the terms of the proposed merger, August shareholders may elect to receive either $10.50 per share in cash or 0.7625 of a share of Rudolph Technologies common stock, subject to the proration and allocation procedures described in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus mailed to Rudolph's stockholders and August Technology's shareholders on or about January 17, 2006.

August Technology Shareholders should be aware of the following:

If you own August Technology shares and have not received an Election Form/Letter of Transmittal, you should contact your broker or investment advisor immediately and discuss arrangements to make an election.

In order to make an effective election, you must return your Election Form/Letter of Transmittal to American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the Exchange Agent, not later than 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on Tuesday, February 14, 2006.

If you have any questions regarding your Election Form/Letter of Transmittal or the merger in general, call the Proxy Advisory Group, LLC at (212) 605-0519 (call collect).

If you make a valid election by the election deadline, you will receive priority in the proration and allocation process to have your request to receive cash or Rudolph common stock fulfilled over other shareholders who do not make an election. However, if you do not made a valid election by the election deadline, as a result of the proration and allocation process you may receive consideration that is worth less than the consideration that is received by shareholders who do make a valid election by the election deadline. Shareholders are encouraged to review the Election Form/Letter of Transmittal and the related instruction booklet for further information. Shareholders are also encouraged to check the trading price of Rudolph common stock prior to electing whether to receive cash or Rudolph common stock in the merger.

August Technology advises shareholders that while the August Technology common stock will continue to trade following the election deadline, investors who purchase shares of August Technology common stock following the election deadline will be unable to make an election, and as a result of the proration and allocation process could receive consideration in the merger that is worth less than the amount paid to acquire such shares. Assuming that August Technology shareholders approve the merger and Rudolph Technologies stockholders approve the issuance of the stock payable in the merger at their respective special meetings, it is anticipated that the merger will be completed shortly after those meetings.

About the Company

August Technology's automated inspection and data analysis solutions provide critical product and process enhancing information, which enables microelectronic device manufacturers to drive down costs and time to market. With the first all-surface advanced macro inspection solution, August Technology has incorporated frontside, backside and wafer edge inspection in a single system. Following detection, August Technology's decision tools correlate the defect data across surfaces and provide the comprehensive information necessary for device manufacturers to make process-enhancing decisions. Headquartered in Bloomington, Minnesota, August Technology supports its customers with a worldwide sales and service organization. Additional information can be found on the company's web site at www.augusttech.com.

Additional Information and Where to Find It
