To the Board of Directors of Intercallnet, Inc.

We have reviewed the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Intercallnet, Inc. and its subsidiary (the "Company") as of March 31, 2001, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the three month and nine month periods then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the management of the Company.

We conducted our review in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures to financial data and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying consolidated financial statements for them to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Organization

Intercallnet, Inc. (together with its wholly-owned subsidiary, Inter-Call-Net Teleservices, Inc., the "Company") is the result of a merger between Never Miss A Call, Inc., a Nevada Corporation ("NMC") into a newly formed, wholly-owned subsidiary, Intercallnet, Inc., incorporated in the State of Florida on April 19, 2001.

Inter-Call-Net Teleservices, Inc., d/b/a Helpmenow ("ICN") was incorporated in the State of Florida on July 30, 1999. On December 21, 2000, ICN entered into a Plan of Reorganization and

Edgar Filing: INTERCALLNET INC - Form 10QSB

Merger Agreement ("Merger Agreement") with NMC and NMC Acquisition Corp, a Nevada corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of NMC. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, the closing of which occurred on January 26, 2001, NMC, through the subsidiary, merged with ICN and the issued and outstanding securities of ICN were canceled. NMC issued 1.25 shares of its common stock for each share of ICN's common stock to the former shareholders of ICN. Outstanding warrants of ICN became warrants to purchase shares of NMC's common stock on the same conversion basis. Post-closing, the former shareholders of ICN owned approximately 79.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of NMC (excluding shares of stock underlying warrants).

Although NMC is the legal surviving entity, for accounting purposes, the merger between ICN and NMC is treated as a purchase business acquisition of NMC by ICN (a reverse merger) and a re-capitalization of ICN. For accounting purposes, ICN is the acquirer because the former stockholders' of ICN received the larger portion of the common stockholder interests and voting rights in the combined enterprise when compared to the common stockholder interests and voting rights retained by the pre-merger stockholders of NMC. As a result, ICN will be re-capitalized to reflect the authorized stock of the legal surviving entity. Since ICN is the acquirer, for accounting purposes, NMC's fiscal year end of December 31st has been changed to ICN's fiscal year end June 30th. All significant intercompany balances and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

The Company is a development stage enterprise, and provides telephone based (and planned interactive Internet) customer and marketing support services on an outsourced basis to various businesses. Prospective customers include various businesses that require help in the areas of acquisition, retention, and servicing their customers on an outsourced basis.

Interim Information

The financial statements of the Company for the three month and nine month periods ended March 31, 2001 have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and the applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. The financial statements as of and for the period ended March 31, 2001 are unaudited. In the opinion of the management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The March 31, 2001 financial statements have been reviewed by an independent public accountant pursuant to Item 310(b) of SEC Regulation S-B and following applicable standards for conducting such reviews, and the report of the accountant is included as part of this document. The results of operations for the interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for the fiscal year.

INTERCALLNET, INC. NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION (continued)

Going Concern Considerations

The Company's financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis that contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. The Company is in its development stage. Management recognizes that the Company must generate capital and revenue resources to enable it to achieve profitable operations. Management is planning to obtain additional capital from revenue generated from operations and through the sale of equity and/or debt securities. The realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business is dependent upon the Company obtaining additional revenues and equity capital and ultimately achieving profitable operations. However, no assurances can be given that the Company will be successful in these activities. Should any of these events not occur, the accompanying financial statements will be materially affected.

Basis of Presentation

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The financial statements and notes are the representation of the Company's management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. The accounting policies of the Company are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and conform to the standards applicable to development stage companies.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition and Concentrations

Revenue is recognized at the time the services are provided. Accounts receivable at March 31, 2001 and June 30, 2000, and all revenue for the periods then ended, is from a single customer. As such, the Company believes that it presently has an abnormal concentration of credit risk.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at acquisition cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Useful lives range from five to seven years for office equipment and furniture and fixtures. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the life of the lease. Expenditures for routine maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

Organization Costs and Start-up Expenses

In accordance with SOP 98-5, "Reporting on the Costs of Start-up Activities," organization costs and start-up expenditures were expensed as incurred.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Cash, accounts receivable and accounts payable are reflected in the financial statements at cost, which approximates fair market value because of the short-term maturity of those instruments. The fair value of the Company's debt obligation is approximately the same as the recorded value as interest rates and terms are similar to current market rates and terms.

INTERCALLNET, INC.

(UNAUDITED)

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are being amortized on the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. The licensing agreement has a life of three years, the cost of acquiring the domain name is being amortized over 15 years, and the web design costs over three years. The web site costs are being capitalized pursuant to SOP 98-1, "Accounting for Costs of Computer Software Developed or Obtained for Internal Use," and amortization began in October 2000 when the web site was placed in service. The Company has implemented Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 121, which prescribes the accounting for impairment losses on certain long-lived assets, including intangibles. No impairment losses have been recognized.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with the SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Deferred taxes are provided on a liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences, operating loss carryforwards, and tax credit carryforwards, and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment. State minimum taxes are expensed as paid.

Net Loss per Share

The Company follows the provisions of SFAS No. 128, "Earnings per Share," which requires companies with complex capital structures or common stock equivalents to present both basic and diluted earnings per share ("EPS") on the face of the income statement. Basic EPS is calculated as income available to common stockholders divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS is calculated using the "if converted" method for convertible securities and the treasury stock method for options and warrants as previously prescribed by Accounting Principles Board of Opinion No. 15, "Earnings per Share."

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents, if any, include all highly liquid debt instruments with an original maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase. The Company periodically maintains cash balances at financial institutions in excess of the federally insured limit.

Statement of Comprehensive Income

In accordance with SFAS No. 130, "Reporting Comprehensive Income," the Company is required to report its comprehensive income. Other comprehensive income refers to revenue, expenses, and gains and losses that under generally accepted accounting principles are included in comprehensive income but are excluded from net income, as these amounts are recorded directly as an adjustment to stockholders' equity. A statement of comprehensive income is not presented since the Company has no items of other comprehensive income. Comprehensive income is the same as net income for the periods presented herein.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities," as amended by SFAS No. 138. Among other provisions, it requires that entities recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the statement of financial position and measure those instruments at fair value. Gains and losses resulting from changes in fair values of those derivatives would be accounted for depending on the use of the derivative and whether it qualifies for hedge accounting. The effective date of this standard was delayed to fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2000 via the issuance of SFAS No. 137. The Company adopted this standard for its fiscal year beginning July 1, 2000. The adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

Edgar Filing: INTERCALLNET INC - Form 10QSB

Reclassifications

Certain June 30, 2000 financial statement amounts were reclassified to conform to the March 31, 2001 presentation.

NOTE 3. DEBT OBLIGATIONS

Line of Credit

During the nine months ended March 31, 2001, the Company entered into a line of credit with a financial institution. This agreement provides for a maximum revolving line of credit of $500,000. The amount outstanding under this line of credit was $100,000 at March 31, 2001 with a corresponding interest rate of 7.5%.

Capital Lease

During the nine months ended March 31, 2001, the Company acquired certain office equipment under the provisions of a long-term lease and has capitalized the minimum lease payments. The lease is for a period of two years and the leased property has a recorded cost of approximately $125,300.

NOTE 4. CAPITAL STOCK

Preferred Stock

The Company has authorized "blank check" preferred stock of 2,000,000 shares with a $0.0001 par value. The preferred stock may be created and issued from time to time in one or more series and with such designations, rights, preferences, conversion rights cumulative, relative, participating, optional or other rights, including voting rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof as shall be stated and expressed in the resolution or resolutions as authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company. As of March 31, 2001, the Board of Directors has not designated any shares of the preferred stock.

Common Stock

The Company has authorized common stock of 50,000,000 shares with a $0.0001 par value. In connection with the merger, as described in note 1, the Company issued 4,347,619 shares of common stock to existing shareholders of ICN, net of the 3,500,000 shares held by the two directors of NMC which were canceled.

Private Placement of Common Stock

From July 2000 through March 2001, the Company issued 2,720,025 shares of common stock pursuant to a private placement memorandum that resulted in net proceeds to the Company of $3,840,591. In July 2000, the Company amended the terms of its private placement memorandum to provide current and prospective investors who invest an aggregate of $250,000 or more warrants to purchase shares of the Company's common stock. From July 2000 through March 2001, the Company issued warrants to purchase an aggregate of 1,185,625 shares of the Company's common stock at $0.571428 per share, exercisable for a period of three years.

Repurchase of Common Stock

On February 16, 2001, the Company repurchased 175,000 shares from a shareholder for a total of $200,000. Such shareholder retained the associated warrants to purchase 437,500 shares of the Company's common stock.

Stock Split

On April 3, 2001, the Company completed a 3.5 to 1 forward split of the common stock. The issued shares of the Company, as well as all other share and per share amounts presented in the financial statements have been adjusted accordingly.

NOTE 5. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Lease Obligations - Equipment

The Company entered into an operating lease agreement for certain office equipment during the nine months ended March 31, 2001. The lease is for three years with payments of approximately $726 per month. In connection with the lease the Company provided an irrevocable letter of credit totaling approximately $23,000.

Royalty Payments

The Company is obligated to make monthly payments to the former owner of its domain name, in an amount ranging from $500 to $1,000 per month, depending on the Company's gross revenues. These payments continue indefinitely, and began in August 2000.

Litigation, Claims, and Assessments

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is exposed to various claims, threats, and legal proceedings. In management's opinion, the outcome of such matters, if any, will not have a material impact upon the Company's financial position and results of operations.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report on Form 10-QSB contains forward-looking statements which are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and which are subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements and from historical results of operations. Forward-looking statements generally are accompanied by words such as "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "plan," "project," "potential" or similar statements. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, no assurance can be given that such expectations will prove correct. Any forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which such statement is made, are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecast in such forward-looking statements. We do not undertake any obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Factors that could cause our results to differ materially from the results discussed in such forward-looking statements include economic and market factors affecting the Company and/or its customers, the impact of competitive services and pricing, customer demand and market acceptance, possible reliance on a limited number of large customers and significant suppliers, our ability to obtain additional working capital from operations and/or other sources as required or otherwise desired, and our ability to manage growth and implement our business strategy, which includes possible acquisitions and their integration into our operations. Many of such risk factors are beyond our control. New factors emerge from time to time and it is not possible for management to predict all of such factors, nor can it assess the impact of each such factor on the business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. In light of these risks and uncertainties, there can be no assurance that the results anticipated in these forward-looking statements contained in this report will in fact occur. All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements in this section.

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Intercallnet, Inc. (together with our wholly-owned subsidiary, Inter-Call-Net Teleservices, Inc., the "Company") is the result of a merger between Never Miss A Call, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("NMC") into a newly-formed, wholly-owned Florida subsidiary, Intercallnet, Inc. ("ICN") pursuant to a Plan and Agreement of Merger, a copy of which was filed as an exhibit to a definitive information statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC" or "Commission") on March 14, 2001. Simultaneous, with such change of domicile merger and reincorporation, the Company's name was changed to Intercallnet, Inc. (OTCBB symbol: ICLN).

We are an interactive customer relationship provider ("ICRP") of telephone-based (and planned inter-active Internet) customer and marketing support services on an outsourced basis to various businesses. We intend to pursue a growth strategy which will entail, among other things, the possible acquisition of existing companies involved in segments of the telephone-based and inter-active Internet customer and marketing support services complimentary to that of the Company and to acquire additional experienced industry personnel. LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As previously discussed in Note 1 to our consolidated financial statements, our consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis that contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. To the extent that we are unable to obtain additional working capital from operations and/or other sources as required or otherwise desired, our consolidated financial statements will be materially affected.

At March 31, 2001, we had stockholders' equity of $3,219,602 and working capital of $1,349,422. Since our inception, we have incurred losses of approximately $2,394,726. Our operations and growth have been funded by the sale of common stock with net cash proceeds of approximately $5,526,000, and borrowings, further discussed below, of approximately $318,000. These funds have been used for working capital and capital expenditures.

We believe our current sources of credit and liquidity, including our credit line and our cash on hand will provide sufficient liquidity to meet our cash requirements to sustain existing operations for approximately the next twelve months. No assurances are given, however, that we are correct in our belief as our current revenues are limited and the slowing U.S. economy may have the effect of causing prospective customers with whom we are presently in discussions, as well as other prospective customers, to limit, reduce and/or eliminate their planned expenditures for outsourced customer service and marketing activities. In such event, we may be required, or otherwise in our discretion, seek to raise additional capital from time to time over such period for additional working capital and related corporate purposes. As discussed below, additional funding will be required for the Company to increase staff and grow operations.

In order to grow our operations, we will need to increase our staff to support such growth. To increase our staff, we will require additional funding to attract, hire and train such personnel. We may seek additional funding in the form of equity and/or debt financing. There are no current commitments in place for such funding and no assurances are given that such funding will be available, or if available, on terms satisfactory to the Company.

An element of our growth strategy is the possible acquisition of additional telemarketing companies. We believe we may be able to acquire such companies or select assets through the issuance of our shares of common stock. It is possible, however, that certain acquisition candidates may also require cash to be acquired. In such event, we may require additional funding to finance such acquisitions. Such financing, if available, may be in the form of equity and/or debt. We have no current understandings or arrangements with respect to any prospective acquisitions or commitments for funding in connection therewith.

Our primary objectives over approximately the next twelve months from the date hereof and following the merger described elsewhere herein, include the continued servicing of our existing and new customer accounts, hiring and training additional in-house tele-service representatives (whom we refer to as "Tele-Service Representatives" ("TSRs")) and interactive service representatives (whom we refer to as "Net Service Representatives" ("NSRs")) and additional related supervisory personnel, and engaging in sales and marketing efforts to attract additional clientele. To a lesser extent, we may also seek to engage in select acquisitions of similar businesses for cash and/or securities as a further method to also increase our client base, as discussed above.

While no assurances are given, we do not anticipate purchasing, leasing or selling any plant or significant equipment during approximately the next twelve months as we believe we have purchased and or leased substantially all of the hardware/software currently deemed necessary to conduct our current and prospective business operations over such period. It is expected that our current number of employees, approximately 135 (including leased employees), may significantly increase, from time-to-time, during the course of the year as additional and existing client campaigns may be undertaken to meet the staffing requirements associated therewith. Such employees are expected to include a combination of full-time, part-time and leased personnel.

We do not generally believe our business is seasonal.
