ABLEAUCTIONS ANNOUNCES ICOLLECTOR TO DOUBLE AUCTION REVENUES FROM EBAY LIVE AUCTIONS IN 2ND QUARTER OF 2004

FIFE, WASHINGTON June 9, 2004 Ableauctions.com Inc. (AMEX:AAC) (the Company) announced today that its wholly owned subsidiary iCollector.com is expected to double its revenues for the second quarter of 2004 compared to revenues for the corresponding period last year.

iCollector has doubled its revenue in the 56 auction sessions it has already facilitated on eBay Live Auctions for the quarter to end June 30th, 2004. The company expects to facilitate approximately 68 auction sessions for the second quarter, compared to 50 auction sessions that it facilitated in the corresponding quarter last year, demonstrating Ableauctions' growth in most, if not all, sectors of its business components. The strong performance of the subsidiary is expected to impact positively on the guidance the Company intends on issuing next week.

The Company is determined to expand its auction and technology operations and has committed significant resources and marketing dollars to meet its objective.

This press release contains forward-looking statements, particularly as related to, among other things, the business plans of the Company, statements relating to goals, plans and projections regarding the Company's financial position and the Company's business strategy. These forward-looking statements fall within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Act of 1934 and are subject to the safe harbor created by these sections. Such forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, involve known and unknown risks, a reliance on third parties for information, transactions or orders that may be cancelled and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements, or developments in our industry, to differ materially from the anticipated results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results include risks and uncertainties related to the performance of our on-line auction business, our ability to implement our inventory procurement strategy, general economic conditions, our ability to license our software to other auction houses, our ability to acquire profitable companies and integrate them into our business successfully and other factors that are detailed in our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB and on documents we file from time-to-time with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Actual results may differ materially from the Company's expectations and estimates.
