REB FAMILY LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

FLORIDA INTANGIBLE TAX TRUST

THIS AGREEMENT, dated August 20, 2004, between REB FAMILY LIMITED PARTNERSHIP, a Florida Limited Partnership, as Grantor, and GEORGE G. BEASLEY, of Naples, Florida (hereinafter called the Trustees),

WHEREAS, the Grantor has determined that it would be in the best interests of the Grantor to create and fund this trust in order to reduce the tax burden upon the assets of the Grantor; and

WHEREAS, the Grantor retains no right to veto or rescind the actions of the Trustees with respect to the assets of the trust estate; and

WHEREAS, the General Partner of the Grantor has approved the transfer and has caused the Grantor to create this trust; and

WHEREAS, the Grantor intends the trust to be established under this Agreement to be a grantor trust, of which the Grantor shall be grantor, within the meaning of subpart E, part I, subchapter J, chapter 1, subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and this agreement shall be construed accordingly.

WITNESSETH:

In order to fund the trust, I deliver and assign to the Trustees the property specified in Schedule A to this Agreement. The Trustees acknowledge receipt of the property and agree to hold it in trust, together with any property added to any trust, as follows:

Article I. Disposition of Trust Estate During Trust Term.

During the trust term the Trustees may pay or apply all or any part of the net income or principal of this trust to, or for the benefit of, the Grantor that the Trustees consider advisable. Any undistributed income shall be added to trust principal.

Article II. Partial Termination.

Upon April 30th of each calendar year, the Trustees shall distribute the then remaining trust estate to the Grantor. No general partner, employee or agent of the Grantor shall be entitled to demand the return of the trust assets to the Grantor prior to that time. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section to the contrary, the Trustees shall always retain the property initially specified in Schedule A to this Agreement.

Article III. Appointment of Fiduciaries.

If GEORGE G. BEASLEY ceases to act as Trustee, B. CAROLINE BEASLEY is appointed as successor Trustee, to act together with any other then acting Trustee.

The Trustees may appoint one or more additional Trustees at any time. Any individual Trustee may at any time appoint his or her successor as Trustee, unless the foregoing provisions of this Agreement effectively provide for his or her successor.

If a Trustee fails or ceases to act and the foregoing provisions of this Agreement do not effectively provide for a successor, the Grantor may appoint one or more successor Trustees.

Any fiduciary is authorized to resign at any time without court approval. The resignation, appointment or revocation of appointment of a Trustee may be made by the person authorized to take such action by delivery of an acknowledged instrument to the Trustees then acting and any Trustee to be appointed, or, if none, to a court having jurisdiction over the trust. Any appointment of a Trustee may be conditioned to commence or cease upon a future event and may be revoked or modified at any time before such future event has occurred. Unless otherwise expressly provided, any power to appoint a Trustee shall permit appointment of an individual, bank or trust company as such fiduciary, and shall be exercised by the parent (or, if none, the legal representative) of any minor and the legal representative of any incapacitated person holding such power. A determination that any individual fiduciary acting hereunder is incapacitated shall be deemed a resignation by that individual fiduciary as of the date of the determination.

C. No Florida Real Estate. No Trustee shall invest the assets of this trust in real property having a situs in the State of Florida.

D. Definition of Incapacitated. An individual shall be considered to be incapacitated if the individual is under a legal disability or by reason of illness or mental or physical disability is unable to give prompt and intelligent consideration to financial matters. The determination as to whether an individual is incapacitated shall be made by the Trustees other than the individual, or, if none, by the institution or individual designated to succeed the individual as Trustee, who may rely conclusively upon (1) the written opinion of the individual's primary physician, (2) the written opinion of any two physicians, or (3) the written order of a court appointing a Conservator or Guardian of the individual's person or property.

E. Investment Counsel. The fiduciaries may employ investment counsel; consult with such counsel on any matters relating to the retention, sale, purchase, investment, or reinvestment of securities or other property; delegate to such investment counsel the fiduciaries' investment authority; and pay such investment counsel reasonable compensation for its services in addition to the regular compensation of the fiduciaries. The fiduciaries may act upon or refrain from acting upon the advice of such investment counsel in whole or in part, and to the extent the fiduciaries follow the advice of such counsel or rely upon such investment counsel's exercise of delegated investment authority, the fiduciaries shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted, except in the case of willful misconduct.
