As previously announced, a special committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors of Barnes & Noble, Inc. (the Company) is conducting an internal review of the Company's historical stock option grant practices. The Committee, which has retained independent legal counsel, is working to complete its review of the Company's historical stock option grant practices in a timely manner.

At this time, the Committee and independent legal counsel have not finished their work and have not reached any conclusions. As a result, the determination of whether the Company will be required to record additional non-cash stock based compensation expense related to stock option grants has not been made.

Based on the current status of the Committee's review, the Company was not able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended October 28, 2006 and does not currently anticipate that it will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date according to Rule 12b-25.

The Company plans to become current in its periodic reports required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as soon as practicable following the completion of the Committee's review.

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company's sales for the third quarter increased 3% to $1.1 billion. Barnes & Noble store sales increased 4% to $972.1 million, with comparable store sales increasing 2.0% for the quarter. B. Dalton sales were $20.5 million for the quarter, a 28% decrease due to store closings and a 5.0% comparable store sales decline. Barnes & Noble.com sales were $95.8 million for the quarter, a 0.5% comparable sales decline compared to the prior year period.

The Company's third quarter preliminary net losses were $2.8 million or $0.04 per share. Third quarter results include a $0.03 per share impact due to stock compensation expense as the Company has adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R) (as amended),

Edgar Filing: BARNES & NOBLE INC - Form NT 10-Q

Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123(R)), and began expensing stock options at the beginning of fiscal year 2006.

As discussed above, the Company will not be in a position to finalize its financial results and the related financial statements until the Committee has completed its internal review of the Company's historical option grant practices with the assistance of independent legal counsel, and the Company is able to determine what, if any, impact the results of that investigation will have on its financial statements.
