Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 28, 2008, Exelixis, Inc. (the "Company") announced that it notified GlaxoSmithKline ("GSK") that it achieved proof-of concept for XL184 under the collaboration agreement between GSK and the Company, and submitted the corresponding data report to GSK. Under the agreement, GSK has 90 days to review the data and decide whether to exercise its option to select the compound for further development and commercialization. If GSK selects XL184, the Company would receive a $55 million milestone creditable by GSK against outstanding amounts under the loan facility between the parties, and potentially would receive commercialization milestones, royalties on product sales, and certain co-promotion rights in North America. The Company anticipates a decision from GSK by late October 2008.

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements related to the timing of a potential compound selection and milestone payment by GSK. Words such as "would," "anticipate," and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based upon the Company's current plans, assumptions, beliefs and expectations.

Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results and the timing of events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements as a result of these risks and uncertainties, which include, without limitation: the potential failure of XL184 to demonstrate safety and efficacy in clinical testing; the therapeutic and commercial value of XL184; and the Company's dependence on and relationship with GSK. These and other risk factors are discussed under Risk Factors and elsewhere in the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 28, 2008, and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company expressly disclaims any duty, obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect any change in the Company's expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statements are based.
