On December 5, 2009, Nautilus, Inc., a Washington corporation (the "Company"), and Fit Dragon International, Ltd., a British Virgin Islands corporation ("Buyer"), entered into two asset purchase agreements (the "Agreements") providing for the sale of certain assets of the Company's commercial business to Buyer. The Agreements provide for the sale of certain assets of the Company's StairMaster® and Schwinn® Fitness product lines, including the licensing of indoor cycling products of the Schwinn® Fitness brand for use in the commercial channel. The transactions are subject to customary conditions to closing and are scheduled to close on or before December 30, 2009.

The Company will receive, approximately, $7.9 million cash at closing, $2.0 million within sixty (60) days, and the remaining $1.0 million over the next three years. In addition, the Company will be entitled to receive certain royalties based on Buyer's post-closing sales of Schwinn® commercial indoor cycling and StairMaster® products. The Company will retain the right to continue to market and sell Schwinn® indoor cycling products in the retail and direct-to-consumer sales channels. The Company will also retain certain rights to sell StairMaster® products in the retail and direct-to-consumer markets.

Pursuant to the Agreements, the Company makes certain representations and warranties regarding the acquired assets. Subject to certain limitations, the Company has agreed to indemnify Buyer for breach of such representations and warranties.
