Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

The information contained within Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

As a result of price and volume dynamics in the global metals industry in July and August and their effect on the related supply chain, the Company expects Adjusted EBITDA, excluding LIFO income, for the three months ended September 30, 2012 to decrease slightly from the same period last year. Based on the Company's preliminary results of operations for the months of July and August, and subject to completion of interim financial statements for the quarter, the Company estimates Adjusted EBITDA, excluding LIFO income, for the three months ended September 30, 2012 to be approximately 10% less than the same period last year.

EBITDA represents net income before interest and other expense on debt, provision for income taxes, depreciation and amortization. Adjusted EBITDA gives further effect to, among other things, reorganization expenses, the payment of management fees and other gains or losses. We believe that EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA provide additional information for measuring our performance and are measures frequently used by securities analysts and investors. EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA do not represent, and should not be used as a substitute for, net income or cash flows from operations as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and neither EBITDA nor Adjusted EBITDA is necessarily an indication of whether cash flow will be sufficient to fund our cash requirements. Our definitions of EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA may differ from that of other companies.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 25, 2012, Ryerson Inc. issued a press release relating to a proposed offering (the Notes Offering) of its Senior Secured Notes due 2017 and Senior Notes due 2018 in a transaction exempt from registration under the Securities Act. A portion of the net proceeds from the Notes Offering will be used to fund the tender offers.

Neither the press release nor this Current Report on Form 8-K constitutes an offer to purchase, a solicitation of an offer to purchase or a solicitation of consents with respect to any securities, nor shall there be any sale of the securities in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.
