Delcath Systems Retains C.E. Unterberg, Towbin as Strategic Advisor

STAMFORD, Conn., August 16, 2006 -- Delcath Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: DCTH), today announced that it has retained C.E. Unterberg, Towbin for investment banking and strategic advisory services. Delcath's retention of Unterberg as strategic advisor follows shareholders' approval at the Company's June annual meeting of a non-binding proposal to recommend that the Board of Directors retain a nationally recognized investment banking and/or merger advisory firm.

Unterberg is a widely known and well-respected investment bank that specializes in providing services to emerging growth companies in the life sciences, medical products, biotechnology, specialty pharmaceuticals and medical devices industries. Through its trading operation, Unterberg serves the aftermarket needs of a variety of healthcare companies, while its research department serves growth-oriented institutional investors seeking insight into emerging growth companies in some of the most exciting, innovative and promising segments of the healthcare industry.

"Our retention of C.E. Unterberg, Towbin is the latest demonstration of the commitment of Delcath's Board of Directors to execute the plan it announced to shareholders following the annual meeting," said M.S. Koly, President and CEO of Delcath Systems. "After the annual meeting, we immediately initiated a rigorous process to identify, interview and negotiate with a number of investment banks. With a wealth of expertise in the healthcare and medical devices arena, we believe Unterberg can provide valuable insight and strategic guidance to Delcath on a number of important growth and governance initiatives including, among other things, strategic transactions and raising Delcath's visibility on Wall Street. We also hope to benefit from their advice as we work towards our stated goals of recruiting additional board members, attracting potential partners for treating other organs and most important, identifying new sites to join our pivotal Phase III clinical trials.

Samuel Herschkowitz, MD, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Delcath, stated, "We are pleased to have engaged Unterberg, Towbin and will be working very closely with them over the coming weeks. We look forward to updating shareholders with any further developments."
