(a)-(j) The Reporting Persons purchased the Common Stock based on their belief that the shares of Common Stock are undervalued and represent an attractive investment opportunity. Subject to applicable law and regulations, the Standstill Agreement (as defined below) and, depending upon certain factors, including general market and investment conditions, the financial performance and strategic direction of the Issuer, and the availability of shares of Common Stock at prices that would make the purchase of such shares desirable, the Reporting Persons may increase their position in the Issuer through the purchase of shares of Common Stock on the open market or in private transactions or otherwise, on such terms and at such times as the Reporting Persons deem advisable. In addition, the Reporting Persons may, from time to time and at any time, acquire other equity, debt, notes, instruments or other securities of the Issuer (collectively with the Common Stock, "Securities") in the open market or otherwise. The following is a brief description of certain terms of the Standstill Agreement, which description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Standstill Agreement which is attached as Exhibit 2 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Under the terms of the Standstill Agreement, (i) the Issuer agreed on the date thereof (a) to increase the size of the Board to eight, (b) to appoint Mr. Drapkin as a director of the Board effective as of December 10, 2013 and (c) to appoint Mr. Drapkin to, in the Board's sole discretion, either the Compensation Committee or the Nominating and Governance Committee; (ii) the Issuer has agreed to nominate Mr. Drapkin for reelection to the Board as a director at the Issuer's 2014 annual meeting of stockholders and 2015 annual meeting of stockholders; (iii) the Reporting Persons have agreed to abide by certain standstill provisions (including not acquiring beneficial ownership of more than 17.5% of the outstanding Common Stock) until thirty days prior to the last date upon which nominations for the election of directors at the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders would be considered timely pursuant to the Issuer's certificate of incorporation and bylaws

(or such earlier date upon the occurrence of certain events, as described in the Standstill Agreement) (the “Standstill Period”); and (iv) the Reporting Persons have agreed to vote their shares of Common Stock in favor of all directors nominated by the Board for election at any stockholder meeting where such matters will be voted on (provided that such nominees were not nominated in contravention of the Standstill Agreement).

In addition, under the terms of the Standstill Agreement, the Issuer has also agreed that (i) until the conclusion of the Standstill Period, it will not increase the size of the Board except as necessary to comply with the terms of the Standstill Agreement; (ii) so long as Mr. Drapkin is a member of the Board, he will be offered membership in any committee of the Board constituted to evaluate strategic opportunities for the Issuer; and (iii) if Mr. Drapkin is unable or unwilling to serve as a director, the Issuer and the Reporting Persons will appoint a mutually agreeable replacement within 90 days of Mr. Drapkin tendering his resignation.

If, at any time prior to the conclusion of the Standstill Period, the New Director is unable or unwilling to serve as a director of the Company (other than, subject to Section 4(b)(i) hereof, in connection with the Board’s decision not to renominate the New Director, then the Shareholder Group and the Board (excluding the New Director who is resigning) shall appoint a mutually agreeable replacement for such New Director within ninety (90) days of such New Director validly tendering his resignation from the Board (in which case all references in this Agreement to “Drapkin” with respect to such New Director’s rights and obligations as a director shall refer to such replacement, as applicable, provided that references in this Agreement to “Shareholder Group” will not include such person unless such person is otherwise already a member).

6. Voting. During the Standstill Period, each member of the Shareholder Group shall cause all shares of Common Stock owned of record or beneficially owned by it or its respective Affiliates or Associates to be present for quorum purposes and to be voted in favor of all directors nominated by the Board for election at any stockholder meeting where such matters will be voted on; provided, that such nominees were not nominated in contravention of this Agreement.

7. Standstill. Each member of the Shareholder Group agrees that, during the Standstill Period, he or it will not, and he or it will cause each of such person's respective Affiliates, Associates and agents and any other persons acting on his or its behalf not to, directly or indirectly:

(d) engage in discussions with other stockholders of the Company, solicit proxies or written consents of stockholders or otherwise conduct any nonbinding referendum with respect to the Common Stock, or make, or in any way encourage, influence or participate in, any "solicitation" of any "proxy" within the meaning of Rule 14a-1 promulgated by the SEC under the Exchange Act to vote, or advise, encourage or influence any person with respect to voting or tendering, any shares of Common Stock with respect to any matter, including, without limitation, any Sale Transaction that is not approved by a majority of the Board, or become a "participant" in any contested "solicitation" for the election of directors with respect to the Company (as such terms are defined or used under the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated by the SEC thereunder), other than a "solicitation" or acting as a "participant" in support of all of the nominees of the Board at any stockholder meeting;

(e) call, seek to call, or to request the calling of, a special meeting of the stockholders of the Company, or seek to make, or make, a shareholder proposal at any meeting of the stockholders of the Company or make a request for a list of the Company's stockholders (or otherwise induce, encourage or assist any other person to initiate or pursue such a proposal or request) or otherwise acting alone, or in concert with others, seek to control or influence the governance or policies of the Company;

(f) effect or seek to effect (including, without limitation, by entering into any discussions, negotiations, agreements or understandings with any third person), offer or propose (whether publicly or otherwise) to effect, or cause or participate in, or in any way assist, solicit, encourage or facilitate any other person to effect or seek, offer or propose (whether publicly or otherwise) to effect or cause or participate in (including by tendering or selling into) (i) any acquisition of any material assets or businesses of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (ii) any transfer or acquisition of shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company or any securities of any Affiliate of the Company if, after completion of such transfer or acquisition or proposed transfer or acquisition, a person or group (other than the Shareholder Group and their Affiliates) would beneficially own, or have the right to acquire beneficial ownership of, more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (based on the latest annual or quarterly report of the Company filed with the SEC pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act), provided that open market sales of securities through a broker by the Shareholder Group which are not actually known by the Shareholder Group to result in any transferee acquiring beneficial ownership of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock shall not be included in this clause (ii) or constitute a breach of this Section 7, (iii) any tender offer or exchange offer, merger, change of control, acquisition or other business combination involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries or (iv) any recapitalization, restructuring, liquidation, dissolution or other extraordinary transaction with respect to the Company or any of its subsidiaries (any of the transactions or events described in (i) through (iv) above are referred to as a “Sale Transaction”), unless such Sale Transaction has been approved by a majority of the Board and has been announced by the Company; provided, that this paragraph shall not require members of the Shareholder Group or the New Director to vote in favor of a Sale Transaction that was approved by the Board;

(h) disparage the Company or any member of the Board or management of the Company, provided that this provision shall not apply to compelled testimony, either by legal process, subpoena or otherwise, or to communications that are required by an applicable legal obligation and are subject to contractual provisions providing for confidential disclosure;

(i) engage in any short sale or any purchase, sale or grant of any option, warrant, convertible security, stock appreciation right or other similar right (including, without limitation, any put or call option or “swap” transaction) with respect to any security (other than a broad-based market basket or index) that includes, relates to or derives any significant part of its value from a decline in the market price or value of the Company’s securities;

(j) enter into any arrangements, understandings or agreements (whether written or oral) with, or advise, finance, assist or encourage any other person that engages, or offers or proposes to engage, in any of the foregoing; or

(k) take or cause or induce or assist others to take any action inconsistent with any of the foregoing;

provided, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that this Agreement shall not be deemed to prohibit (x) the New Director from engaging in any lawful act in his capacity as a director of the Company that is either expressly approved by the Board or required in order to comply with his fiduciary duties as a director of the Company or (y) the Shareholder Group from making public statements, engaging in discussions with other shareholders, soliciting proxies or voting any shares or proxies with respect to any Sale Transaction that has been approved by a majority of the Board and has been announced by the Company.

8. Support. During the Standstill Period, the New Director, in his capacity as a director of the Company, will use reasonable efforts to support, at the Company’s sole cost and expense, the Company’s slate of directors in a manner generally consistent with the support provided by the other directors of the Company, provided that such slate of directors is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

9. Policies. By the Effective Time, the New Director will have reviewed the Company’s policies, procedures, and guidelines applicable to members of the Board and agrees to abide by the provisions thereof during his or her service as a director of the Company, including, without limitation, the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines, Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, Director Code of Ethics and Insider Trading Compliance Program. The members of the Shareholder Group acknowledge that they are aware that United States securities law prohibits any person who has material non-public information about a company from purchasing or selling any securities of such company, or from communicating such information to any other person under circumstances in which it is reasonably foreseeable that such person is likely to purchase or sell such securities.

10. Compensation. The New Director shall be compensated for his service as a director and shall be reimbursed for his expenses on the same basis as all other non-employee directors of the Company and shall be eligible to be granted equity-based compensation on the same basis as all other non-employee directors of the Company.

11. Indemnification and Insurance. The New Director shall be entitled to the same rights of indemnification and directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage as the other non-employee directors of the Company as such rights may exist from time to time.

12. Non-Disparagement. The Company agrees, prior to the conclusion of the Standstill Period, that it shall not disparage any member of the Shareholder Group, any member of the management of the Shareholder Group, or the New Director, provided that this provision shall not apply to compelled testimony, either by legal process, subpoena or otherwise, or to communications that are required by an applicable legal obligation or are subject to contractual provisions providing for confidential disclosure.

13. Press Release / Form 8-K. The Company shall also provide to the Shareholder Group a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any Form 8-K with respect to the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the parties hereto in advance of its filing, and shall consider in good faith the reasonable and timely comments of the Shareholder Group. No member of the Shareholder Group shall make (and they will cause their Affiliates and Associates not to make) any public statements with respect to the matters covered by this Agreement (including in any filing with the SEC, any other regulatory or governmental agency, or any stock exchange, or in any materials that would reasonably be expected to be filed with the SEC, including pursuant to Exchange Act Rules 14a-6 or 14a-12) that are inconsistent with, or otherwise contrary to, this Agreement or the statements in any above described press release or Form 8-K filing.

14. Expenses. Within two business days of the date hereof, the Company shall reimburse the Shareholder Group for the documented out-of-pocket expenses (up to a maximum of $10,000) incurred by the Shareholder Group in connection with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement and all related activities and matters. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, each cost or expense incurred in connection with this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such cost or expense.

15. Specific Performance. Each party hereto acknowledges and agrees, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, that irreparable harm would occur in the event any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties will be entitled to specific relief hereunder, including, without limitation, an injunction or injunctions to prevent and enjoin breaches of the provisions of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any state or federal court located in the State of Delaware, in addition to any other remedy to which they may be entitled at law or in equity. Any requirements for the securing or posting of any bond with such remedy are hereby waived.

16. Jurisdiction. Each party hereto agrees, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, that any actions, suits or proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby will be brought solely and exclusively in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware (or, if the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any federal court within the State of Delaware) (and the parties agree on behalf of themselves and their respective Affiliates not to commence any action, suit or proceeding relating thereto except in such courts), and further agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to the respective addresses set forth in Section 20 hereof will be effective service of process for any such action, suit or proceeding brought against any party in any such court. Each party, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, agrees and consents to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in the State of Delaware, and irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, in the state or federal courts located in the State of Delaware, and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an improper or inconvenient forum.

There are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings between the parties other than those expressly set forth herein. This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument duly executed by the parties hereto or their respective successors or assigns. No failure on the part of any party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of such right, power or remedy by such party preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. All remedies hereunder are cumulative and are not exclusive of any other remedies provided by law. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors, heirs, executors, legal representatives and assigns. No party hereto may assign or otherwise transfer either this Agreement or any of its rights, interests or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto. Any purported transfer without such consent shall be void.
