Amended and Restated CEO Employment and Change in Control Agreement

On April 11, 2017, Interface, Inc. (“the Company”) entered into an Amended and Restated Employment and Change in Control Agreement (the “Agreement”) with its President and Chief Executive Officer Jay D. Gould (age 57). The Agreement, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1, has an effective date of March 3, 2017, which is the day Mr. Gould succeeded Daniel T. Hendrix as Chief Executive Officer.

The Agreement is substantially similar to Mr. Gould’s immediately preceding employment and change in control agreement, except that the current Agreement (1) is for a rolling two-year term (until a specified retirement age) rather than a rolling one-year term, (2) extends the non-competition restrictions from one year to two years, (3) reflects his new title and responsibilities, and (4) includes certain changes to comply with Section 409A of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. As with the preceding agreement, the Company may terminate the Agreement at any time, with or without cause, and Mr. Gould may voluntarily terminate the Agreement upon 90 days’ notice. The Agreement provides for certain benefits in the event of various termination scenarios, including termination without cause, termination with cause, voluntary retirement or resignation, termination due to death or disability, and certain terminations following a “change in control” (as defined in the Agreement) of the Company.

In general, if, following a change in control of the Company, the Company terminates his employment without “cause”, or Mr. Gould terminates his employment for “good reason” (as such terms are defined in the Agreement), Mr. Gould will receive, among other benefits, an amount equal to two years of salary and bonus payments (with the bonus payments being calculated based on an average of Mr. Gould’s bonuses in the two years preceding the termination). If Mr. Gould is terminated by the Company without cause in the absence of any preceding change in control, he will generally receive, among other benefits, all salary payments that would have been made to him if he had remained employed through the then-remaining term of the Agreement, plus bonus payments for such period (again based on an average from the preceding two years). As noted above, the Agreement also contains provisions placing restrictions on Mr. Gould’s ability to compete with the Company for a period of two years following any termination of his employment.

The foregoing description of the Agreement and the compensation payable pursuant thereto is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which is attached as an exhibit hereto.
