

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously reported by Accenture plc (“Accenture”), on January 10, 2019, David Rowland became interim chief executive officer and a member of Accenture’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) and KC McClure became Accenture’s chief financial officer. On January 31, 2019, the Compensation Committee of the Board approved the following new compensation arrangements for Mr. Rowland and Ms. McClure in connection with their new roles:

Effective as of March 1, 2019, Mr. Rowland was granted additional equity awards composed of a target number of restricted share units (“RSUs”) with a fair market value of $4,400,000 as of the date of grant (with a maximum number of RSUs equal to 150% of that number) under Accenture’s 2019 Key Executive Performance Share Program (the “Key Executive Program”) and RSUs with a fair market value of $2,245,000 as of the date of grant under Accenture’s 2019 Leadership Performance Equity Award Program.

Effective as of February 1, 2019, Ms. McClure’s annual base salary was increased to $975,000 and her target annual bonus for fiscal 2019 was increased to 100.5% of her base compensation earned during fiscal 2019. In addition, effective as of March 1, 2019, she was granted an additional target number of RSUs with a fair market value of $930,000 as of the date of grant (with a maximum number of RSUs equal to 150% of that number) under the Key Executive Program.

The equity awards are subject to the standard terms and conditions, except that, in recognition of Mr. Rowland’s service as interim chief executive officer, his additional Key Executive Program award is not subject to a service vesting requirement.

Pierre Nanterme, who was previously nominated for election at the Annual Meeting, resigned from the Board, effective on January 10, 2019, for health reasons. The Board designated David Rowland, Accenture's newly appointed interim chief executive officer and director, as a director nominee. Accordingly, as stated in Accenture's proxy statement supplement, dated January 15, 2019, any shares represented at the Annual Meeting by proxy cards or voting instructions were not voted for Mr. Nanterme, but were instead voted with respect to the election of Mr. Rowland as a director pursuant to the discretionary voting authority granted to the proxies. The number of shares voted FOR the election of Mr. Rowland represent only those shares which voted FOR all matters presented at the meeting, and therefore reflects the same vote results as proposal 2.
