Item 8.01 Other Events.

Performant Financial Corporation (the “Company”) announced in December 2016 that it had been advised by the Department of Education that the Company would not receive one of the student loan recovery contracts being awarded to unrestricted size companies. The Company filed a protest of the Department of Education’s contracting decision.

On March 29, 2017, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) reported on its website that the Company’s protest was upheld, although a written decision is not expected to be made publicly available by the GAO for several days. At this time, the Company does not know what actions the Department of Education will take in response to the GAO’s decision. The Company had been one of the Department of Education’s unrestricted student loan recovery contractors for more than 20 years until its contract expired in April 2015 during a lengthy Request for Proposal process.
