Item 1.03 Bankruptcy or Receivership.

As previously disclosed, on November 17, 2017, Real Industry, Inc. (the “Company”), Real Alloy Intermediate Holding, LLC (“RAIH”), Real Alloy Holding, Inc. (“Real Alloy”) and certain of Real Alloy’s wholly-owned U.S. subsidiaries (collectively with RAIH and Real Alloy, the “Real Alloy Debtors,” and the Real Alloy Debtors with the Company, the “Debtors”) filed voluntary petitions in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”) seeking relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered under the caption “In re Real Industry, Inc., et al.”, Case No. 17-12464, in the Bankruptcy Court (the “Chapter 11 Proceedings”). The Debtors continue to operate their business and manage their properties as “debtors-in-possession” under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions and orders of the Bankruptcy Code.

Real Alloy Stalking Horse Bid

In connection with the debtor-in-possession (“DIP”) financing obtained by the Real Alloy Debtors (the “RA DIP Financing”), as previously disclosed, the Real Alloy Debtors agreed to pursue a sale of substantially all of their assets pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (a “Section 363 Sale”). Pursuant to the RA DIP Financing and associated bidding procedures and final orders related to the Section 363 Sale approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Real Alloy Debtors were required to obtain the prior written consent of a majority of the Required Holders (as defined in the Amended and Restated Note Purchase Agreement, dated and effective as of January 19, 2018 and as filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K, filed January 25, 2018; the “Required DIP Noteholders”) and Bank of America, N.A. (as administrative agent and collateral agent under the Debtor-in-Possession Revolving Credit Agreement, dated as of November 20, 2017, and as filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K, filed November 27, 2017; the “DIP ABL Agent”) in order to sell, or enter into a binding agreement to sell, the assets of the Real Alloy Debtors, unless the obligations under the RA DIP Financing, the prepetition Real Alloy 10% senior secured notes and the prepetition obligations under the Real Alloy revolving credit facility (collectively, the “Repayment Obligations”) are repaid in full in cash upon the closing of such sale. Further, under the final order for the RA DIP Financing, the Required DIP Noteholders, the DIP ABL Agent, and the collateral trustee/agent for the new money senior secured priming and superpriority postpetition notes (“New Money DIP Notes”) issued as part of the RA DIP Financing must approve any stalking horse bid and bid protections for such stalking horse bid.

Also as previously disclosed, on February 5, 2018, the Real Alloy Debtors filed notice with the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Proceedings advising that on February 2, 2018, the Required DIP Noteholders notified the Real Alloy Debtors of their intention to provide a credit bid to purchase substantially all of the assets of the Real Alloy Debtors (the “Credit Bid Proposal”). At such time, the Company also disclosed that the Real Alloy Debtors and Required DIP Noteholders were continuing to negotiate and finalized the terms of the Credit Bid Proposal and associated definitive agreement related to such Credit Bid Proposal.

Form Asset Purchase Agreement for Real Alloy Stalking Horse Bid; Proposed Sale Order

On March 8, 2018, the Real Alloy Debtors filed with the Bankruptcy Court a form of a stalking horse asset purchase agreement (the “Form Asset Purchase Agreement”), to be entered into by and among a to-be-determined purchaser or a group of purchasers (the “Purchaser”) and the Real Alloy Debtors as sellers (the “Sellers”), pursuant to which, among other things, the Purchaser is expected to acquire (such acquisition, the “Sale”) substantially all of the Sellers’ assets (the “Acquired Assets”) for a to-be-determined consideration which will include, among other forms of consideration, cash, a credit bid, and the assumption of certain of the Sellers’ liabilities. The Form Asset Purchase Agreement was prepared by, and agreed to by, the Sellers, the Required DIP Noteholders and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”). The Form Asset Purchase Agreement is a form and therefore not an executed definitive agreement, and is subject to ongoing revisions. Entry into a definitive agreement effectuating the Sale is subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court. A hearing on the Sale is currently scheduled for March 29, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

The Form Asset Purchase Agreement has been prepared to be, and is thus expected to be, subject to a number of closing conditions, including, among others, (i) the approval of the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Proceedings, (ii) the affirmative support by the Committee of the terms of the Form Asset Purchase Agreement, (iii) the accuracy of representations and warranties of the parties and (iv) material compliance with the obligations and covenants set forth in the Form Asset Purchase Agreement.

The sale of the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Form Asset Purchase Agreement is expected to be conducted pursuant to, among others, Sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and will be subject to bidding procedures previously approved by the Bankruptcy Court and receipt of higher or otherwise better bids for the Acquired Assets prior to a bid deadline of March 19, 2018 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

On March 8, 2018, the Real Alloy Debtors also filed with the Bankruptcy Court a proposed form of order (the “Proposed Sale Order”) approving the Sale pursuant to the Form Asset Purchase Agreement. The Proposed Sale Order, among other things, sets forth factual findings in support of the Sale to the Purchaser (including the Purchaser’s ability to credit bid existing indebtedness), authorizes the Real Alloy Debtors to enter into the Form Asset Purchase Agreement, orders that the Acquired Assets will be transferred to the Purchaser free and clear of substantially all liens and other interests, and approves the assumption by the Real Alloy Debtors and assignment to Purchaser of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases. The Proposed Sale Order also memorializes a settlement among the Debtors, the Committee and the Real Alloy Debtors’ prepetition lenders, pursuant to which the Committee has agreed to support the Sale and not pursue certain potential claims against the Real Alloy Debtors’ prepetition lenders in exchange for the assumption by the Purchaser of certain liabilities owed to the Real Alloy Debtors’ vendors who agree to provide the Purchaser with, among other things, trade terms for a fixed period.

The Form Asset Purchase Agreement and the Proposed Sale Order are disclosed hereby only to provide information regarding the terms of the Form Asset Purchase Agreement and the Proposed Sale Order, and not to provide investors or any other person with any other factual information regarding the Company, the Real Alloy Debtors or their respective businesses. Neither investors nor any other persons should rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, the Real Alloy Debtors or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates.

The foregoing descriptions of the Form Asset Purchase Agreement and the Proposed Sale Order do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Form Asset Purchase Agreement and the Proposed Sale Order attached hereto respectively as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 8, 2018, Real Alloy Holding, Inc. issued a press release announcing the filing of the Form Asset Purchase Agreement and a settlement with the Committee (subject to definitive documentation, provided that the Committee has agreed to forbear from asserting certain causes of action until such settlement may be consummated). A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

The Company cautions that trading in its securities during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Proceedings is highly speculative and poses substantial risks. Trading prices for the Company's securities may bear little or no relationship to the actual recovery, if any, by holders of such securities in the Chapter 11 Proceedings.
