PART III — NARRATIVE

Super Micro Computer, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2018 (the "Form 10-Q") in a timely manner without unreasonable effort or expense. As previously announced, the Company has been unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017 (the "Form 10-K"), Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017 ("Q1 10-Q") and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2017 ("Q2 10-Q"). The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has completed the previously disclosed investigation. In furtherance of the preparation of the financial statements, the Audit Committee is overseeing additional testing. Additional time is required to analyze any impact of the results of the investigation on the Company's historical financial statements, as well as to conduct additional reviews before the Company will be able to finalize the Form 10-K. The Company is unable at this time to provide a date as to when the Form 10-K will be filed or to determine whether the Company's historical financial statements will be adjusted or, if so, the amount of any such adjustment(s) and what periods any such adjustments may impact. The Form 10-Q cannot be completed and filed until the Form 10-K, the Q1 10-Q, and the Q2 10-Q are completed and filed. The Company does not expect the filing to be made within the time period required for a timely filing pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Company presented an updated compliance plan to The Nasdaq Stock Market Hearings Panel (the "Panel") on April 26, 2018 and the Company requested an additional exception period for continued listing of its common stock on The Nasdaq Global Select Market ("Nasdaq") through August 24, 2018 in order for it to complete and file its 2017 10-K and subsequent delinquent SEC quarterly filings. The Panel has since granted the Company's request to continue its listing on Nasdaq through August 24, 2018, subject to the condition that the Company becomes current with its SEC filings by that date and informs the Panel the Company is current with such filings. The Panel decision also requires that the Company promptly notify the Panel of any significant events that occur during this exception period, including but not limited to, any event that may affect the Company's historical financial information or that may impact the Company's ability to maintain compliance with any Nasdaq listing requirement or become current with its SEC filings by August 24, 2018. The Panel has reserved the right to reconsider the terms of this exception to the Nasdaq listing standards based on any event, condition or circumstance that exists or develops that would, in the opinion of the Panel, make continued listing of the Company's securities on Nasdaq inadvisable or unwarranted.

The Company intends to file its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended September 30, 2017, December 31, 2017, and March 31, 2018 promptly after filing the 2017 10-K.
