MERCER AND SIGNIFICANT SHAREHOLDERS MUTUALLY AGREE ON TWO NOMINEES TO THE BOARD

NEW YORK, New York, August 6, 2003 - Mercer International Inc. ("Mercer" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: MERCS, TSX: MRI.U, Nasdaq-Europe: MERC GR) today announced that the Company and four significant shareholders have mutually agreed upon a consensual slate of two nominees to be elected as trustees at the Company's upcoming shareholders' meeting on August 22, 2003. As a result, Greenlight Capital Inc. ("Greenlight") has withdrawn its proposed nominations for trustees and terminated its proxy solicitation.

Mercer will nominate for election as a trustee Guy W. Adams, one of the nominees originally proposed by Greenlight. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Adams will now be compensated in his role and capacity as a trustee by the Company and not by Greenlight. The other nominee will be proposed by three other significant shareholders and serve as a lead trustee on the Company's board.

Mercer's management, trustees and significant shareholders are expected to support the election of the two nominees. Mercer will reimburse Greenlight for certain reasonable third-party costs incurred in connection with its proxy solicitation.

Jimmy S.H. Lee, the Chief Executive Officer and President of Mercer, stated: "We are pleased to resolve this matter on a consensual basis that is supported by our management, trustees and significant shareholders. This will permit the Company to refocus on creating value for shareholders through our strategy of becoming a leading global market pulp producer."

He added: "To this end, we will focus on the completion and start up of our new Stendal pulp mill and revive our plan to refinance two bridge loans which had initially been put on hold as a result of the resignation of our prior CFO."

The Company will file supplemental proxy materials to nominate the two new candidates for election as trustees at the upcoming shareholders' meeting. The proxy materials will be mailed to shareholders of record as of July 23, 2003.
