TELMEX, through America movil enters into exclusive negotiations to acquire a stake in Olimpia

Mexico City, April 1, 2007.

Teléfonos de México, S.A.B. de C.V. ("TELMEX") (BMV: TELMEX; NYSE: TMX; NASDAQ: TFOXY, LATIBEX: XTMXL) announced today that it has reached an agreement to enter into exclusive negotiations with Pirelli & C. S.p.A. ("Pirelli"), in conjunction with América Móvil S.A.B. de C.V. ("América Móvil"), to acquire from Pirelli and Sintonia one third of the share capital of Italian company Olimpia. This company owns 18% of the total stock of Telecom Italia.

The completion of the transaction, which is subject, among others, to final documentation and regulatory approvals, would lead to the reduction of the ownership interests of Pirelli and Sintonia in Olimpia, from a combined 100% today to one third of the total stock at the closing of the transaction. TELMEX and América Móvil will acquire one third of the stock of Olimpia, in equal parts. The other third of the stock will be purchased by U.S. telecommunications company AT&T.

Through this potential transaction TELMEX and América Móvil intend to promote the growth of Telecom Italia, a state-of-the-art telecommunications company with operations in Europe and Latin America. The companies look forward to the opportunity of working together with a group of Italian investors who share their views of the great potential this company has.

TELMEX is the leading Telecommunications Company in Mexico. TELMEX and its subsidiaries provide a wide range of telecommunications services, data and video transmission and Internet access, as well as integrated telecommunications solutions to its corporate customers. Additionally, it offers telecommunications services through its international subsidiaries in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia and Peru. More information about TELMEX can be accessed on the Internet at www.telmex.com.
