FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WALTER HEWLETT RESPONDS TO EUROPEAN COMMISSION'S DECISION

Palo Alto, CA, January 31, 2002 Walter B. Hewlett, on behalf of The William R. Hewlett Revocable Trust and its trustees, today issued the following statement in connection with the announcement of the decision by the European Commission to clear the proposed merger of Hewlett-Packard (NYSE: HWP) and Compaq Computer Corporation (NYSE: CPQ):

Now that the proposed Compaq merger has been cleared by the EC, we look forward to the vote and resolution of this important issue for all stockholders.

We believe that the transaction is a bet-the-company move that is not appropriate for HP. The integration risk is substantial and unacceptable, and no significant combination involving a computer company has ever met expectations. We believe HP can make far better strategic moves on its own for a lot less than $25 billion.

We understand that HP's rivals raised almost no objections to the proposed merger, helping it to gain EC approval. We are not surprised; we believe Dell, Sun and IBM must be delighted at the prospect of a merger that would so greatly distract and damage two of their rivals.
