Portfolio Managers'

COMMENTS

Portfolio managers Tom Futrell and Tom O'Shaughnessy discuss national and state economic conditions, key investment strategies, and the performance of the Nuveen Closed-End Exchange-Traded Funds for New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Tom Futrell assumed portfolio management responsibility for NQJ and NNJ in 1998, while Tom O'Shaughnessy has managed NQP since its inception in 1991 and NPY since 1995.

WHAT MAJOR FACTORS AFFECTED THE U.S. ECONOMY AND THE MUNICIPAL MARKET OVER THIS REPORTING PERIOD?

The major factor affecting the fixed-income markets has been Federal Reserve policy. During the period covered by this report, the federal funds target rate was 6.50%, the highest level in almost a decade. As evidence mounted that the Fed's objective to slow the economy might be working, there was a growing debate about whether the time had come to start cutting interest rates.

Shortly after the close of the reporting period, the Fed moved to lower interest rates by 50 basis points, the first such move since the Asian financial crisis in late 1998. The Fed made a second 50 basis point cut at the end of January 2001. The current consensus among many market observers is that the Fed will continue to ease rates if a significant economic slowdown remains possible.

In the municipal market, signs of economic slowing and tighter new issue supply helped many bonds perform well. During 2000, new issue supply of municipal bonds totaled $199 billion nationwide, down 12% from 1999 levels. Part of this decline stemmed from higher rate concerns earlier in the year, which made it less attractive for some issuers to offer bonds. In addition, generally favorable economic conditions in most cities and states enabled many issuers to use pay-as-you-go funding for necessary projects, rather than financing obtained through new issuance.

At the same time, demand for municipal bonds continued to be strong from individual investors looking for diversification, income and an alternative to a volatile stock market. As a result, municipal bond prices were higher and yields lower at the end of 2000 when compared with the end of 1999. Nevertheless, municipals still represented good value. As of December 31, 2000, long-term municipal yields were more than 100% of 30-year Treasury yields, compared with 96% in December 1999 and the historical average of 86% for the period 1986-1999.

WHAT ABOUT THE ECONOMIC AND MARKET ENVIRONMENT IN THESE TWO STATES?

TOM FUTRELL: Unlike the decline in supply seen in the national municipal market in 2000, total issuance in New Jersey remained relatively unchanged from 1999 levels, with $8.5 billion in new supply. Some of this stability can be attributed to the fact that two of the nation's top issuers last year were located in the state: the New Jersey Turnpike Authority, with $1.87 billion, and the New Jersey Transit Corporation with $1.77 billion. Over the past year, the New Jersey economy continued to demonstrate strong growth, with employment increasing across all sectors except manufacturing and utilities. However, tighter labor markets are expected to curtail this growth somewhat over the near term. New Jersey's real estate market continued to expand, driven by strong commercial construction, as New York companies relocated some operations to the state. Following approval of a major tax break aimed at attracting financial firms, this trend is expected to continue with Chase Manhattan and Goldman Sachs both recently announcing plans to move to the Jersey City area.

TOM O'SHAUGHNESSY: In Pennsylvania, municipal issuance for 2000 totaled only $6.6 billion, down almost 42% from 1999 levels. Over the past year, Pennsylvania's economy began to show signs of slowing due to weakness in the retail trade, service and construction industries. To counteract this trend, Pennsylvania officials took a proactive approach by reducing business taxes to make the commonwealth more competitive in attracting businesses that wish to relocate. One sector of the Pennsylvania economy that did demonstrate growth in 2000 was technology, as venture capital investments in the commonwealth increased 400% in the first half of the year. By the end of the third quarter, the infusion of venture capital totaled approximately $345 million, which ranked the commonwealth 11th in the nation. Despite anticipated growth in the high-tech, financial, insurance and real estate sectors, Pennsylvania's overall economy is expected to slow further due to continued weakness in housing and retail sales. However, even with the current slowdown, the skill level of Pennsylvania's workforce has enabled personal income growth to remain strong.

HOW DID THESE NUVEEN FUNDS PERFORM OVER THE PAST 12 MONTHS?

For additional information, see the individual Performance Overview for your Fund in this report.

Early in the year, as the Fed's interest rate hikes pushed yields higher, municipal bond prices underwent a corresponding drop. Over the summer, however, the tight supply of new municipal issues and generally favorable technicals helped to prompt a shift in market outlook, rallying the municipal market and boosting the prices of many bonds. The Funds' participation in the recovery of the municipal market is reflected in the total returns on NAV listed in the table on this page, which show dramatic improvement over the performance results presented in the Funds' annual report last June.

WERE THE FUNDS' DIVIDENDS AFFECTED BY THE MARKET ENVIRONMENT?

Over the past 12 months, NQJ's shorter duration<sup>4</sup> helped to protect the Fund's income stream in a changing interest rate environment. As of December 31, 2000, this Fund had provided shareholders with 26 consecutive months of steady dividends. The other three Funds, however, were less tolerant of interest rate changes over the past 12 months. All four of the Funds covered in this report use leverage as a way to potentially enhance the dividends paid to common shareholders. The extent of this benefit is tied in part to the short-term rates that the Funds pay their MuniPreferred(R) shareholders. When short-term rates rise, the Funds must pay out more income to preferred shareholders, decreasing the amount of income available for common shareholders.

As the Federal Reserve raised short-term rates between June 1999 and May 2000, these increases had a corresponding impact on short-term municipal rates. In Pennsylvania, the increase in short-term municipal rates was large enough to cause a decrease in the common share dividends of NQP and NPY in June 2000. In NNJ, the Fund's longer duration<sup>4</sup> resulted in more portfolio impact from interest rate movements and, ultimately, led to dividend cuts. Despite the dividend adjustments in these three Funds, all of the Funds continued to provide competitive market yields, as shown in the earlier table.

Recently, interest rate cuts by the Federal Reserve have helped cause the slope of the municipal yield curve to become very steep. Lower rates for shorter-maturity municipal securities could have beneficial effects on the dividend stability of these leveraged Funds going forward by reducing the amount the Funds pay their MuniPreferred(R) shareholders, which may leave more Fund earnings to support common share dividends.

1 The Funds' performances are compared with that of the national Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index, an unleveraged index comprising a broad range of investment-grade municipal bonds. Results for the Lehman index do not reflect any expenses.

2 The total returns of NQJ and NNJ are compared with the average annualized return of the ten funds in the Lipper New Jersey Municipal Debt Funds category, while the returns of NQP and NPY are compared with the average return of the nine funds in the Lipper Pennsylvania category. Fund and Lipper returns assume reinvestment of dividends.

3 The taxable-equivalent yield represents the yield that must be earned on a taxable investment in order to equal the yield of the Nuveen fund on an after-tax basis. The taxable-equivalent yield is based on the fund's market yield on the indicated date and a federal income tax rate of 31% plus the applicable state income tax rate. The combined federal and state tax rates used in this report are as follows: New Jersey 35.5% and Pennsylvania 33%.

4 Duration is a measure of a Fund's NAV volatility in reaction to interest rate movements. Fund duration, also known as leverage-adjusted duration, takes into account the leveraging process for a Fund and therefore is generally longer than the duration of the actual portfolio of individual bonds that make up the Fund. Unless otherwise noted, references to duration in this commentary are intended to indicate Fund duration.

WHAT ABOUT THE FUNDS' SHARE PRICE PERFORMANCE?

During the first part of 2000, uncertainties about inflation and interest rates, coupled with investors' focus on equity market performance, tended to dampen interest in most fixed-income products. The lack of demand put pressure on the prices of many municipal bond investments. In recent months, as the bond market showed signs of recovery and the stock market continued to be volatile, many investors once again appeared to be considering tax-free fixed-income alternatives. As a result, the share prices of these Funds generally improved (see the charts on the individual Performance Overview pages).

As New Jersey investors recognized this opportunity, robust demand for NQJ moved its discount (share price below NAV) to a premium (share price above NAV), while NNJ's discount narrowed substantially over the past 12 months. Although we also saw increased investor interest in Pennsylvania that helped support share prices, demand lagged the rise in value of the bonds held by NQP and NPY, leading to wider discounts on these two Funds by the end of 2000 than those of a year earlier. With the market prices of NNJ, NQP, and NPY lower than the actual value of the bonds in their portfolios, shareholders may want to consider taking advantage of this opportunity to add to their holdings of their Nuveen Fund.

WHAT KEY STRATEGIES WERE USED TO MANAGE THESE FUNDS DURING THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2000?

Despite a slow start, the past year turned out to be generally positive for the fixed-income markets, including municipal bonds. As evidenced by their strong 12-month total returns on NAV, these Nuveen Funds were well structured going into this period. Given the tight supply of new issuance during 2000, we found fewer opportunities to make trades that would substantially enhance the Funds' holdings, especially in the Pennsylvania Funds. As opportunities did become available in the market, we focused on strengthening long-term dividend-paying capabilities, enhancing call protection, and purchasing bonds with the potential to add value and diversification to the Funds' portfolios.

For example, in NQJ and NNJ, we recently leveraged our understanding of the complexities of tobacco-backed bonds, gained through active participation in the offerings of these types of bonds in New York, to purchase bonds issued by Puerto Rico for the Children's Trust Fund. The proceeds from these tobacco bonds, which are secured by Puerto Rico's share of payments under the $250 billion master settlement agreement between four major tobacco companies and 46 states in 1998, are earmarked for children's initiatives in this U.S. commonwealth. These Aa3 rated bonds, which we purchased in late October, offered attractive yields as well as federal and state income tax exemption. If prices remain attractive, we plan to continue to add to our holdings of these bonds in both New Jersey Funds, especially through purchases in the secondary market.

Over the past year, the Nuveen New Jersey Funds also added to their holdings of

New Jersey Turnpike Authority bonds, which we believe continued to provide excellent performance potential. As a result of these additions, transportation remained the largest sector holding in NNJ and the second largest in NQJ. Other purchases over the past year also emphasized yield, including student loan revenue bonds with maturities of 15-20 years and some lower investment-grade healthcare bonds. This is an area where we rely on the expertise of Nuveen research analysts, whose careful study enabled us to make the purchases that should enhance Fund income streams over the long term.

In Pennsylvania, the healthcare sector remained challenging, as the situation precipitated by the 1998 bankruptcy of the Allegheny Health and Education Research Foundation (AHERF) continued to evolve. Neither NQP nor NPY owned any AHERF-issued bonds during the period, and given the current environment in this sector of the Pennsylvania market, both Funds focused on simply maintaining their current positions. Overall, the low supply of new issuance contributed to a relatively quiet year in the state's municipal market and little turnover in the portfolios of the Nuveen Pennsylvania Funds.

All four Funds continued to offer excellent credit quality, with between 76% and 90% of their assets invested in bonds rated AAA/U.S. guaranteed and AA as of December 31, 2000. The Funds also had allocations of BBB and non-rated bonds that ranged from 3% to 9%, which generally provided higher yields over the past year.

WHAT IS YOUR OUTLOOK FOR THESE NUVEEN FUNDS?

In general, our outlook for the fixed-income markets over the next 12 months is positive. Current projections call for continued strong demand for municipal bonds, while new municipal issuance nationwide in 2001 is expected to remain under $200 billion. These supply-and-demand dynamics should continue to provide support for the municipal market and municipal bond prices. We will, of course, continue to closely monitor the economy, including the progress of proposed tax reduction plans, and Federal Reserve policy in order to be prepared to respond appropriately to any developing situations.

Looking specifically at these Nuveen Funds, both NNJ and NPY offer excellent levels of call protection over the next two years, with a total of 12% and 17%, respectively, of their portfolios subject to calls during 2001 and 2002. In February 2001, both NQJ and NQP reach the 10-year anniversary of their inception, a period when they will see the increased potential for bond calls normally associated with that point of the bond market cycle. Over the next two years, about 44% of NQJ's portfolio is scheduled to be called, while as much as 53% of NQP's portfolio could be affected, depending on market interest rates during this time. In general, we believe these positions are very manageable, and we foresee no problems in working through them.

While we cannot control the direction of interest rates, we continue to work to reduce the Funds' call exposure and to actively manage the Funds to mitigate the longer-term effects of the bond call process. In NQJ, these strategies include selling pre-refunded bonds with short maturities and reinvesting the proceeds in the longer end of the market. For NQP, municipal supply in Pennsylvania will continue to play a role in our call protection strategies. Although it is still early, we do not expect to see a large increase in issuance in this market in 2001. At the present time, we anticipate holding older bonds with higher yields as long as possible to maximize tax-exempt income and then selling these bonds as they approach their call dates when we can do so without impacting dividends or total return performance.

Edgar Filing: NUVEEN PENNSYLVANIA INVESTMENT QUALITY MUNICIPAL FUND INC - Form N-30D

In addition to bond calls, we plan to continue to focus on strengthening the Funds' dividend-payment capabilities as market conditions allow. Depending on the interest rate environment, bond calls in NQJ and NQP could create opportunities to further enhance the structure of these Funds. As value-oriented investors, we will continue to look for areas of the market that can add value for our shareholders. We believe these Nuveen Funds will continue to serve as a dependable source of tax-free income and portfolio diversification, two essential elements of a comprehensive investment strategy.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

1. GENERAL INFORMATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The state Funds (the "Funds") covered in this report and their corresponding New York Stock Exchange symbols are Nuveen New Jersey Investment Quality Municipal Fund, Inc. (NQJ), Nuveen New Jersey Premium Income Municipal Fund, Inc. (NNJ), Nuveen Pennsylvania Investment Quality Municipal Fund (NQP) and Nuveen Pennsylvania Premium Income Municipal Fund 2 (NPY).

Each Fund seeks to provide current income exempt from both regular federal and designated state income taxes by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of municipal obligations issued by state and local government authorities within a single state. The Funds are registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as closed-end, diversified management investment companies.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Funds in the preparation of their financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Securities Valuation

The prices of municipal bonds in each Fund's investment portfolio are provided by a pricing service approved by the Fund's Board of Directors/Trustees. When price quotes are not readily available (which is usually the case for municipal securities), the pricing service establishes fair market value based on yields or prices of municipal bonds of comparable quality, type of issue, coupon, maturity and rating, indications of value from securities dealers and general market conditions. Temporary investments in securities that have variable rate and demand features qualifying them as short-term securities are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value.

Securities Transactions

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Realized gains and losses from such transactions are determined on the specific identification method. Securities purchased or sold on a when-issued or delayed delivery basis may have extended settlement periods. The securities so purchased are subject to market fluctuation during this period. The Funds have instructed the custodian to segregate assets in a separate account with a current value at least equal to the amount of the when-issued and delayed delivery purchase commitments. At December 31, 2000, New Jersey Investment Quality (NQJ), New Jersey Premium Income (NNJ) and Pennsylvania Investment Quality (NQP) had outstanding when-issued and delayed delivery purchase commitments of $1,983,340, $1,400,676 and $6,960,023, respectively. There were no such outstanding purchase commitments in Pennsylvania Premium Income 2 (NPY).

Investment Income

Interest income is determined on the basis of interest accrued, adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts on long-term debt securities when required for federal income tax purposes.

Income Taxes

Each Fund is a separate taxpayer for federal income tax purposes. Each Fund intends to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its net investment income to its shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. Furthermore, each New Jersey Fund intends to satisfy conditions which will enable interest from municipal securities, which is exempt from regular federal and New Jersey state income taxes, to retain such tax-exempt status when distributed to the shareholders of the New Jersey Funds. Each Pennsylvania Fund intends to satisfy conditions which will enable interest from municipal securities, which is exempt from regular federal, Pennsylvania state personal income and the Philadelphia School District Investment Income taxes, to retain such tax-exempt status when distributed to shareholders of the Pennsylvania Funds.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders

Tax-exempt net investment income is declared monthly as a dividend and payment is made or reinvestment is credited to shareholder accounts on the first business day after month end. Net realized capital gains and/or market discount from investment transactions, if any, are distributed to shareholders not less frequently than annually. Furthermore, capital gains are distributed only to the extent they exceed available capital loss carryforwards.

Distributions to shareholders of tax-exempt net investment income, net realized capital gains and/or market discount are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The amount and timing of such distributions are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Accordingly, temporary over-distributions as a result of these differences may occur and will be classified as either distributions in excess of net investment income, distributions in excess of net realized gains and/or distributions in excess of net ordinary taxable income from investment transactions, where applicable.

Preferred Shares

The Funds have issued and outstanding $25,000 stated value Preferred shares. Each Fund's Preferred shares are issued in more than one Series. The dividend rate on each Series may change every seven days, as set by the auction agent. The number of shares outstanding, by Series and in total, were as follows:

	New Jersey Investment Quality (NQJ)	New Jersey Premium Income (NNJ)	Pennsylvania Investment Quality (NQP)	Pennsylvania Premium Income 2 (NPY)
Number of Shares:
Series M	3,200	--	--	844
Series T	--	624	880	--
Series W	--	1,440	2,400	--
Series Th	2,000	1,600	2,000	2,080
Series F	1,280	--	--	1,800
Total	6,480	3,664	5,280	4,724

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Funds may invest in certain derivative financial instruments including futures, forward, swap and option contracts, and other financial instruments with similar characteristics. Although the Funds are authorized to invest in such financial instruments, and may do so in the future, they did not make any such investments during the six months ended December 31, 2000.

Custodian Fee Credit

Each Fund has an arrangement with the custodian bank whereby certain custodian fees and expenses are reduced by credits earned on each Fund's cash on deposit with the bank. Such deposit arrangements are an alternative to overnight investments.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Audit Guide

In November 2000, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) issued a revised version of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide for Investment Companies (the "Guide"). The Guide is effective for annual financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2000. It is not anticipated that the adoption of the Guide will have a significant effect on the financial statements.

Build Your Wealth
AUTOMATICALLY

SIDEBAR TEXT: NUVEEN MAKES REINVESTING EASY. A PHONE CALL IS ALL IT TAKES TO SET UP YOUR REINVESTMENT ACCOUNT.

NUVEEN EXCHANGE-TRADED FUNDS DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN

Your Nuveen Exchange-Traded Fund allows you to conveniently reinvest dividends and/or capital gains distributions in additional fund shares.

By choosing to reinvest, you'll be able to invest money regularly and automatically, and watch your investment grow through the power of tax-free compounding. Just like dividends or distributions in cash, there may be times when income or capital gains taxes may be payable on dividends or distributions that are reinvested.

It is important to note that an automatic reinvestment plan does not ensure a profit, nor does it protect you against loss in a declining market.

EASY AND CONVENIENT

To make recordkeeping easy and convenient, each month you'll receive a statement showing your total dividends and distributions, the date of investment, the shares acquired and the price per share, and the total number of shares you own.

HOW SHARES ARE PURCHASED

The shares you acquire by reinvesting will either be purchased on the open market or newly issued by the Fund. If the shares are trading at or above net asset value at the time of valuation, the Fund will issue new shares at the then-current market price. If the shares are trading at less than net asset value, shares for your account will be purchased on the open market. Dividends and distributions received to purchase shares in the open market will normally be invested shortly after the dividend payment date. No interest will be paid on dividends and distributions awaiting reinvestment. Because the market price of shares may increase before purchases are completed, the average purchase price per share may exceed the market price at the time of valuation, resulting in the acquisition of fewer shares than if the dividend or distribution had been paid in shares issued by the Fund. A pro rata portion of any applicable brokerage commissions on open market purchases will be paid by Plan participants. These commissions usually will be lower than those charged on individual transactions.

FLEXIBILITY

You may change your distribution option or withdraw from the Plan at any time, should your needs or situation change. Should you withdraw, you can receive a certificate for all whole shares credited to your reinvestment account and cash payment for fractional shares, or cash payment for all reinvestment account shares, less brokerage commissions and a $2.50 service fee.

You can reinvest whether your shares are registered in your name, or in the name of a brokerage firm, bank, or other nominee. Ask your investment advisor if his or her firm will participate on your behalf. Participants whose shares are registered in the name of one firm may not be able to transfer the shares to another firm and continue to participate in the Plan.

The Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time. Although the Fund reserves the right to amend the Plan to include a service charge payable by the participants, there is no direct service charge to participants in the Plan at this time.

For more information on the Nuveen Automatic Reinvestment Plan or to enroll in or withdraw from the Plan, speak with your financial advisor or call us at (800) 257-8787.
