Tender status of Mittal Steel offer for Arcelor

10th July 2006 Rotterdam Pursuant to applicable Luxembourg law, Mittal Steel Company N.V. (NYSE: MT) informs the market that, to its knowledge, as of July 7, 2006, after closing of the markets in Europe, 27,240,316 Arcelor shares and 848,732 Arcelor convertible bonds have been tendered in its offer for such securities. The number of Arcelor shares tendered in the offer represent 4.39% of the voting rights of Arcelor.¹

Mittal Steel informs the market that, since the tender offer procedure is centralized, definitive information relating to the number of Arcelor securities tendered in the offer will be known only after the closing of the offer after the centralization procedures have been completed. As a consequence, the figures set forth above cannot be relied upon as an accurate representation of the number of Arcelor securities actually tendered in the offer, nor as an indication of the possible result of the offer.

As at the date hereof, Mittal Steel holds no Arcelor shares and no Arcelor convertible bonds.

No Offer

No offer to exchange or purchase any Arcelor shares or convertible bonds has been or will be made in Japan and The Netherlands or in any jurisdiction other than Belgium, France, Luxembourg, Spain and the United States.

¹ Based on a total number of 639,774,327 issued shares and excluding 19,771,296 shares held as treasury shares (which have no voting right); both figures being as of December 31, 2005 and published in Arcelor 2005 Annual Report.
