CNOOC Limited's Rating Outlook Upgraded by Moody

(Beijing, January 11, 2002) CNOOC Limited (NYSE "CEO", SEHK "883") (the "Company") announced today that Moody's Investors Service has changed the rating outlook of both the Company and its parent, CNOOC, to positive from stable. Both entities' current Baa2 rating from Moody's is already the top rating given to any rated Chinese company. With the change, the Company enjoys the highest rating status among all Chinese companies rated by Moody's.

"The management believes that the Company has a differentiating credit story. Our shareholders should and now are able to benefit from the unique credit quality through reduced cost of capital," said Mr. Mark Qiu, CFO of the Company. He continued, "We appreciate Moody's willingness to hear out the story and give credits where they are due."

"The rating outlook change places the Company in a league of its own. It is yet another vote of confidence in the Company's strategy and future," commented Mr. Wei Liucheng, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. He continued, "We will continue our prudent financial and investment policy."

Notes to Editors:

CNOOC LIMITED - BACKGROUND

Incorporated in Hong Kong in August 1999, the Company is the dominant producer of crude oil and natural gas offshore China. The Company is also one of the largest independent crude oil and gas exploration and production companies in the world. As of December 31, 2000, its net proved reserves were 1.8 billion barrels-of-oil equivalents and its net production totaled 239,337 BOE per day.

The Company has interests in 45 crude oil and gas properties in four major producing areas: Bohai Bay, Western South China Sea, Eastern South China Sea and East China Sea. The Company is a major oil and gas company in China with approximately 1,000 employees.

CNOOC LIMITED - RELATIONSHIP WITH ITS PARENT COMPANY

The Company is a 70.6% held subsidiary of China National Offshore Oil Corporation ("CNOOC"). The Company is the sole vehicle through which CNOOC carries out oil and gas exploration, development and production activities offshore China and internationally.

CNOOC, the parent company, is involved in the administrative, research and services functions for the PRC offshore petroleum industry as well as other mid- or down-stream petroleum projects.
