Mr. Henry B. Tippie
Trustee, RMT Trust
3420 Executive Center Drive, N.W., Suite 163
Austin, Texas 78731

Dear Mr. Tippie:

Addressing you as a trustee of the RMT Trust which reportedly holds 8,000,000 shares of the Class A Common Stock of Dover Motorsports, Inc. ("Trust Stock"), and as the person granted voting and investment power over the Trust Stock pursuant to a 2008 Stockholders Agreement and Irrevocable Proxy, I request your consideration of a sale of the Trust Stock to Marathon Partners, L.P. ("Marathon").

Marathon is prepared to pay $2.35 per share for an immediate purchase of the block, either as Class A Common or converted into Common Stock, assuming in either case compliance with requirements for its public trading. Marathon is willing to entertain a higher offer price if justified by due diligence.

If an agreement is reached to buy the Trust Stock, Marathon will be pleased to consider purchasing up to 4,000,000 additional shares of the non-publicly traded Class A Common Stock from other holders.

It should of course be understood that any offer, either to RMT Trust or other holders, would be subject to assurances that a proposed transaction would not trigger the company's poison pill or any executive compensation "change of control" provisions. I will not require any other conditions, unless you request accommodations for time to complete administrative processes. Specifically, there will be no need for a financing condition since Marathon currently has sufficient unencumbered cash to fund the purchase.

Please let me know how you wish to proceed by Wednesday, November 18. In your response, you should keep in mind that as an existing owner of approximately 16% of Dover Motorsports' Common Stock, Marathon must comply with the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act.

Sincerely,

Mario D. Cibelli
Managing Member

Dear Mr. Cibelli

This letter is in response to your letter dated November 9, 2009 in which you make a conditional offer to pay a “control premium” to purchase a block of 8,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock of Dover Motorsports, Inc. held by the RMT Trust.

The RMT Trust has no interest in pursuing your offer. All three Trustees of the RMT Trust concur in this.

However, as you have expressed an interest in acquiring Class A Common Stock, I thought it might be helpful to explain a little bit about the Company’s capital structure.

Class A Common Stock can only be held by founding stockholders and their family. This restriction can be found in the Company’s Bylaws. Only the Company’s Common Stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. There is no market for Class A Common Stock. If a holder of Class A Common Stock wishes to sell on the open market, he or she must convert the Class A Common Stock to Common Stock first. Conversion can be accomplished at any time on a one share for one share basis.

At the time of the Company’s initial public offering in 1996, various protections were included in the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation for the benefit of holders of Common Stock. Class A Common Stock has always been entitled to ten votes per share, but aside from this distinction and the limitations on transferability of Class A Common Stock noted above, Class A Common Stock and Common Stock are virtually identical. Common Stock is entitled to equal or better treatment than Class A Common Stock with respect to distributions and dividends; and, in the event of a merger or consolidation of the Company, Common Stock and Class A Common Stock are entitled to receive the same per share consideration.

It was never the intent of the Company's founders that holders of Class A Common Stock would receive a "control premium" for Class A Common Stock to the detriment of holders of our Common Stock.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Henry B. Tippie

Mr. Henry B. Tippie

Dear Mr. Tippie:

Your November 17, 2009 letter suggests that you may have misunderstood some of the provisions of my November 9, 2009 offer.

First, referring to your repeated references to a “control premium,” you will see in a more careful re-reading of my letter that nothing that I proposed would result in a transfer of control. Even if the Trust’s Class A shares were sold with their super-voting rights intact, rather than converted to regular common stock as anticipated, it would not give Marathon Partners a majority voting position.

On the subject of your explanations of the restrictions on transfers of Class A stock, I had in fact read the applicable provisions in Section 8.7 of the Company’s Bylaws before deciding what to offer. The letter stated that Marathon Partners would be willing to buy the shares either in their existing Class A form or as converted to regular common stock. In addition to the conversion option, you will see that the Company’s Bylaws actually do provide for sales or transfers, either with a 75% vote of shareholders or through other processes.

Please let me know if you have any other questions about the terms suggested in my letter.

With this clarification, I encourage you and the other trustees to renew your consideration of my offer. I will of course welcome your proposal of variations that might serve to benefit all shareholders.

I also encourage you to provide corrections of the statements in the Company’s November 17th SEC Form 8K report with your exhibited letter, so that investors will not be confused.

Sincerely,

Mario D. Cibelli
