Proxy Statement for Annual Meeting of Shareholders to Be Held On May 12, 2004

Our board of directors is soliciting proxies for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This proxy statement contains important information for you to consider when deciding how to vote on the matters brought before the meeting. We encourage you to read it carefully.

Voting Information

The board set March 26, 2004 as the record date for the meeting. Shareholders owning our common stock at the close of business on that date are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, with each share entitled to one vote. There were 2,936,119 shares of common stock outstanding on the record date. A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock represented at the meeting will constitute a quorum. We will count abstentions and broker non-votes, which are described below, in determining whether a quorum exists.

Many of our shareholders hold their shares through a stockbroker, bank, or other nominee rather than directly in their own name. If you hold our shares in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee, which is considered the shareholder of record with respect to those shares. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or nominee how to vote and are also invited to attend the annual meeting. However, since you are not the shareholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the meeting unless you obtain a signed proxy from the shareholder of record giving you the right to vote the shares. Your broker or nominee has enclosed or provided a voting instruction card for you to use to direct your broker or nominee how to vote these shares.

When you sign the proxy card, you appoint Ira P. Shepherd, III and Dale K. Geeslin as your representatives at the meeting. Messrs. Shepherd and Geeslin will vote your proxy as you have instructed them on the proxy card. If you submit a proxy but do not specify how you would like it to be voted, Messrs. Shepherd and Geeslin will vote your proxy for the election to the board of directors of all nominees listed below under Election of Directors. We are not aware of any other matters to be considered at the meeting. However, if any other matters come before the meeting, Messrs. Shepherd and Geeslin will vote your proxy on such matters in accordance with their judgment.

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by signing and delivering another proxy with a later date or by voting in person at the meeting.

Brokers who hold shares for the accounts of their clients may vote these shares either as directed by their clients or in their own discretion if permitted by the exchange or other organization of which they are members. Proxies that brokers do not vote on some proposals but that they do vote on others are referred to as broker non-votes with respect to the proposals not voted upon. A broker non-vote does not count as a vote in favor of or against a particular proposal for which the broker has no discretionary voting authority. In addition, if a shareholder abstains from voting on a particular proposal, the abstention does not count as a vote in favor of or against the proposal.

We are paying for the costs of preparing and mailing the proxy materials and of reimbursing others for their expenses of forwarding copies of the proxy materials to our shareholders. Our officers and employees may assist in soliciting proxies but will not receive additional compensation for doing so. We are distributing this proxy statement on or about April 14, 2004.

Proposal No. 1: Election of Directors

Our articles of incorporation provide for a classified board of directors, so that, as nearly as possible, one-third of the directors are elected each year to serve three-year terms. The terms of office of the classes of directors expire as follows: Class I at the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders, Class II at the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders and Class III at the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders.

All nominees are currently directors. We believe that the nominees will stand for election and will serve if elected as directors. If, however, any person nominated by the board of directors fails to stand for election or is unable to accept election, your shares will be voted in favor of the election of another person nominated by the board of directors. There are no cumulative voting rights in the election of directors, which means you may vote only once for a nominee.

Class I

Arlie C. Aukerman
Joseph S. Black
Rick A. Duncan
Dale K. Geeslin

Class II

Malcolm R. Godwin
William R. Hancock, Jr.
Vincent M. Rossetti
Donnie H. Russell

Class III

Thomas G. Sellmer
Ira Pat Shepherd, III
Enrico A. Stanziale
James H. Webb, Jr.

Shareholders will elect four nominees as Class I directors at the meeting to serve a three-year term, expiring at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting. This means that the four nominees receiving the highest number of votes will be elected.

The board of directors recommends that you elect Mr. Aukerman, Mr. Black, Mr. Duncan, and Mr. Geeslin as Class I directors.

If you submit a proxy but do not specify how you would like it to be voted, Mr. Shepherd and Mr. Geeslin will vote your proxy to elect Mr. Aukerman, Mr. Black, Mr. Duncan, and Mr. Geeslin. If any of these nominees is unable or fails to accept nomination or election (which we do not anticipate), Mr. Shepherd and Mr. Geeslin will vote instead for a replacement to be recommended by the board of directors, unless you specifically instruct otherwise in the proxy.

Set forth below is certain information about the nominees. Each of the nominees is also an organizer and director of our subsidiary, The Bank of Georgia.

The Bank of Georgia 401(k) Plan

Our bank adopted a 401(k) plan covering all employees with more than 1,000 hours of service who have attained the age of 21. The Bank of Georgia 401(k) Plan became effective on January 1, 2000. The plan permits eligible employees to make before-tax contributions to the plan through payroll deductions subject to the limits imposed under Federal tax law. We may also make matching contributions to the plan equal to the percentage of the participants contribution during a particular year. Our level of participation in the plan is determined annually by the board of directors. For the year ended 2003, we matched one-half of each participant's contribution up to a maximum of 6% of each participant's salary. The plan permits each participant to direct the investment of the assets in his individual account. Contributions by the participant are always 100% vested. Matching contributions by the

In general, participants may withdraw benefits upon termination of employment after attaining normal retirement age and upon termination of the plan. In addition, participants may withdraw their contributions if they terminate employment before attaining normal retirement age, attain normal retirement age but continue to work, become disabled, or incur a financial hardship.

Meetings and Committees of the Board of Directors

During the year ended December 31, 2003, the board of directors of the Company held nine meetings and the board of directors of the Bank held 12 meetings. All of the directors of the Company and the Bank attended at least 75% of the aggregate of such board meetings, with the exception of Mr. Russell who attended eight of the 12, or 67%, of the Bank meetings.

Under the corporate governance principles adopted by our board of directors, each director is expected to attend all annual shareholders meetings. We recognize that occasionally conflicts may arise that will prevent a director from attending an annual shareholders meeting. However, each director should make every reasonable effort to keep such absences to a minimum. Five directors attended the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders.

Our board of directors has implemented a process for shareholders of the company to send communications to the board. Any shareholder desiring to communicate with the board, or with specific individual directors, may so do by writing to the Secretary of the Company, at Georgia Bancshares, Inc., 100 Westpark Drive, Peachtree City, Georgia 30269. The secretary has been instructed by the board to promptly forward all such communications to the addressees indicated thereon.

The Company's board of directors has appointed a number of committees, including an audit and compensation committee. The audit committee is composed of Messrs. Geeslin, Stanziale, Sellmer and Rossetti. Each of these members is considered independent under Rule 4350 of the National Association of Securities Dealers' listing standards. The board also has determined that Mr. Geeslin is an audit committee financial expert as defined by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The audit committee met six times in 2003.

The audit committee has the responsibility of reviewing internal audit and compliance reports, evaluating internal accounting controls, reviewing reports of regulatory authorities, and determining that all audits and examinations required by law are performed. The committee recommends to the board the appointment of the independent auditors for the next fiscal year, reviews and approves the auditor's audit plans, and reviews with the independent auditors the results of the audit and management's responses. The audit committee adopted a formal written charter on March 18, 2004, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A. The audit committee reports its findings to the board of directors.

Independent Certified Public Accountants

Abbott, Jordan & Koon, LLC (AJK) was our auditor during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. We have selected AJK to serve as our independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2004. We expect that a representative of AJK will be present at the annual meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she so desires, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. The following table shows the fees that the Company paid or accrued for the audit and other services provided by AJK for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002:

	Year Ended December 31, 2003	Year Ended December 31, 2002
Audit Fees	$ 42,210	$ 42,230
Audit-Related Fees	$ 1,825	-0-
Tax Fees	$ 4,150	$ 3,900
All Other Fees	$ 1,875	-0-
Total	$ 50,060	$ 46,130

Audit Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by AJK for the audit of our annual consolidated financial statements and the limited reviews of our quarterly condensed consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002.

Audit-Related Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed for non-audit services, exclusive of the fees disclosed relating to audit fees, rendered by AJK during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. These services principally included the assistance and issuance of consents for various filings with the SEC.

Tax Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed for tax services rendered by AJK during fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002. These services consisted primarily of tax compliance and tax consultations services. In addition, for fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, these services include preparation of local, state and federal tax returns for the Company and its subsidiary.

All Other Fees. This category includes the aggregate fees billed for all other services, exclusive of the fees disclosed above, rendered by AJK during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. These other services in fiscal 2003 consisted primarily of assistance and meetings with management and the audit committee on planning issues.

The audit committee has concluded that the non-audit service provided by AJK are compatible with maintaining the independence of AJK.

Oversight of Accountants; Approval of Accounting Fees

Under the provisions of its charter, the audit committee recommends to the board the appointment of the independent auditors for the next fiscal year, reviews and approves the auditor's audit plans, and reviews with the independent auditors the results of the audit and management's responses. The audit committee has adopted pre-approval policies and procedures for audit and non-audit services. The pre-approval process requires all services to be performed by our independent auditor to be approved in advance, regardless of amount. These services may include audit services, audit related services, tax services and other services.

Our compensation committee is responsible for establishing the compensation plans for the company. Its duties include the development with management of all benefit plans for employees of the company, the formulation of bonus plans, incentive compensation packages, and medical and other benefit plans. We have adopted a Nominating and Corporate Governance charter, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. The Board of Directors appoints the nominating committee. The committee typically consists of not less than three directors. The nominating committee has the principal function of recommending to the Board of Directors nominees for election as directors. The current members of the nominating committee are Messrs. Hancock, Stanziale, and Webb, each of whom is considered to be independent under NASDAQ rules.

For directors previously elected by shareholders to serve on the Board and whose terms of service are expiring, the nominating committee considers whether to recommend to the Board the nomination of those directors for re-election for another term of service. The nominating committee also considers whether to recommend to the Board the nomination of persons to serve as directors whose nominations have been recommended by shareholders.

Any shareholder may recommend the nomination of any person to serve on the Board. Our policy is to require a shareholder to submit the name of the person to the secretary of the Company in writing between 30 and 60 days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that if less than 31 days notice of the meeting is given to shareholders, the notice must be delivered within 10 days following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to shareholders. Each notice must set forth: (i) the name and address of the shareholder who intends to make the nomination and of the person or persons to be nominated; (ii) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the company entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholder; (iv) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, had the nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, by the Board of Directors; and (v) the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the company if so elected. The chairman of the meeting may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure.

The nominating committee considers a number of factors in determining whether to recommend to the Board the nomination of any person for election as a director. While no single factor is determinative, the following factors are considered by the nominating committee in considering any potential nominee:

- (i) Whether the candidate possesses significant contacts within our market area and the ability to generate additional business for the Company;
- (ii) Whether the candidate qualifies as an independent director under the Company's guidelines;
- (iii) The extent to which the candidate contributes to the diversity of the Board in terms of background, specialized experience, age and race;
- (iv) The candidate's management experience in complex organizations and experience in dealing with complex business problems;
- (v) The candidate's other commitments, such as employment and other board positions;
- (vi) Whether the candidate would qualify under the Company's guidelines for membership on the Audit Committee or the Nominating Committee; and
- (vii) Whether the candidate complies with any minimum qualifications or restrictions set forth in our bylaws.

The Board of Directors also considers the foregoing criteria in determining whether to nominate any person for election by the shareholders.

In determining whether to nominate any person for election by the shareholders, the Board assesses the appropriate size of the Board of Directors, consistent with the bylaws of the Company, and whether any vacancies on the Board are expected due to retirement or otherwise. If vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the Board will consider various potential candidates for director recommended by the nominating committee. Candidates may come to the attention of the nominating committee or Board through a variety of sources including, but not limited to, current members of the Board, shareholders, or other persons. The nominating committee and Board of Directors consider properly submitted recommendations by shareholders who are not directors, officers, or employees of the Company on the same basis as candidates recommended by any other person.

The Company does not pay a third party to assist in identifying and evaluating candidates.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Interests of Management and Others in Certain Transactions

We enter into banking and other transactions in the ordinary course of business with our directors and officers and their affiliates. It is the our policy that these transactions be on substantially the same terms (including price, or interest rates and collateral) as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties. We do not expect these transactions to involve more than the normal risk of collectibility nor present other unfavorable features us. Loans to individual directors and officers must also comply with our bank's lending policies and statutory lending limits, and directors with a personal interest in any loan application are excluded from the consideration of the loan application. We intend for all of our transactions with our affiliates to be on terms no less favorable to us than could be obtained from an unaffiliated third party and to be approved by a majority of disinterested directors.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

As required by Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, our directors, and executive officers and certain other individuals are required to report periodically their ownership of our common stock and any changes in ownership to the SEC. Based on a review of Forms 3, 4, and 5 and any representations made to us, it appears that all such reports for these persons were filed in a timely fashion during 2003.

Code of Ethics

We have adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, and principal accounting officer. The Code of Ethics is available without charge upon request by contacting our Secretary in writing at Georgia Bancshares, Inc., 100 Westpark Drive, Peachtree City, Georgia 30269.

Any shareholder proposal to be made at an annual meeting, but which is not requested to be included in our proxy materials, must comply with our bylaws. Proposals must be delivered to the secretary of the company between 30 and 60 days prior to the annual meeting; provided, however, that if less than 31 days notice of the meeting is given to shareholders, the notice must be delivered within 10 days following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to shareholders.
