SECTION 4 - MATTERS RELATED TO ACCOUNTANTS AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(a) On January 4, 2005, KPMG notified the management of the Company and the Audit Committee that it had decided to resign as the Company's independent auditors because, based on their assessment of available resources and the expected future service needs of the Company, KPMG had concluded that it could not fully service the needs of the Company. In resigning, KPMG advised the Company that due to the existence of the internal investigation, it is possible that additional information could arise that might materially impact the fairness or reliability of the financial statements of the Company. Based upon inquiries made of KPMG in connection with the internal investigation, KPMG stated to the Company that it was not in possession of any such information at this time. The report of KPMG on the Company's financial statements as of June 24, 2004 and for the period from inception, April 13, 2004 to June 24, 2004 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In connection with that audit and in the subsequent interim period, which KPMG reviewed, there were no disagreements between KPMG and the Company on any matter of accounting principles or practice, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure or any other reportable events requiring disclosure in accordance with Item 304 of Regulation S-K. The Company highly values the work of KPMG as its auditor and appreciates the valuable assistance they provided during the Company's initial public offering and thereafter.

The Company provided KPMG with a copy of the foregoing disclosures and requested in writing that KPMG furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with such disclosures. Upon receipt of the letter from KPMG, the Company will file such letter as an exhibit to its current report on Form 8-K.

(b) On January 7, 2005, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") approved the engagement of BDO as the Company's independent auditors. The Company had retained BDO as independent accountants for the acquisition of its subsidiary, Gas Solutions II Ltd. The Company, or anyone acting on its behalf, has not consulted with BDO with respect to either (1) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed; or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or (2) any matter that was the subject of a disagreement, as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions to Item 304 of Regulation S-K, or a reportable event, as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K. The engagement of BDO is subject to BDO's completion of its diligence and the conclusion of the Audit Committee's investigation of the allegations. The Company looks forward to a long and productive relationship with BDO.

SECTION 8 - OTHER EVENTS.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed by the Company in its quarterly report on Form 10-Q filed on November 12, 2004, the Company received a letter from Mark Witt, the former CFO of the Company, and subsequently an investment professional of Prospect Capital Management, alleging unspecified "improprieties." The Audit Committee directed the Company's outside counsel handling Mr. Witt's earlier termination to look into his claims and also retained the law firm of Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP to investigate his and any other claims, including the allegations being raised by Mr. Witt and the Company's previous CCO and any other claims arising in the course of their investigation. The Audit Committee has preliminarily concluded that none of the allegations made by Mr. Witt or the Company's CCO, or the information subsequently learned in the course of this internal investigation, reflects adversely on the fairness or reliability of the financial statements of the Company. The Audit Committee has further concluded that, on a preliminary basis, in connection with those allegations investigated by Willkie Farr, there is no evidence of fraud by management or material deficiencies in connection with the Company's public disclosure practices.
