Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 24, 2005, Sears Holdings Corporation (Holdings) entered into a five-year Amended and Restated Employment Agreement with Aylwin Lewis (the Lewis Agreement) pursuant to which Mr. Lewis will serve as President of Holdings, Chief Executive Officer and President of Kmart Holding Corporation (Kmart) and Chief Executive Officer of Sears Retail. Mr. Lewis was also appointed to the Board of Directors of Holdings. The Lewis Agreement supersedes and replaces Mr. Lewis' prior employment agreement with Kmart Management Corporation.

Under the Lewis Agreement, Mr. Lewis will receive an annual salary of not less than $1,000,000, an annual bonus opportunity with a target amount equal to his annual salary, relocation benefits (including but not limited to guaranteed purchase of Mr. Lewis' residence in Michigan at fair market value, and during the two-year period following consummation of the Mergers (as defined below) use of a company plane or other private aircraft for travel between Michigan and Chicago and costs associated with temporary housing) and other employee benefits and perquisites made available generally to Kmart's other senior executives or, in Holdings' discretion, Holdings' senior executives or its employees generally. The Lewis Agreement also provides that Mr. Lewis will be deemed to be constructively terminated if neither Edward Lampert (the Chairman of Holdings) or Mr. Lewis becomes the Chief Executive Officer of Holdings if Alan Lacy is no longer Chief Executive Officer of Holdings. In such event, Mr. Lewis will receive his salary and continued welfare benefits for the lesser of three years or the remaining term of the Lewis Agreement, but not less than 12 months, and a pro-rata portion of the annual bonus for the year of termination.

The foregoing description of the Lewis Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of such agreement which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.

Pursuant to Mr. Lewis' Nonqualified Stock Option Agreement and Restricted Shares Agreement with Kmart, dated as of October 18, 2004 (collectively, the October Equity Agreements), Mr. Lewis was granted options to acquire 150,000 shares of Kmart common stock with an exercise price equal to $88.6150 (the fair market value of Kmart common stock on October 18, 2004), and 50,781 restricted shares of Kmart common stock (equal to $4,500,000 on October 18, 2004). These options and restricted shares vest in four installments on the last day of fiscal years 2005 through 2008, subject to his continued employment and, in the case of the restricted stock, to a performance condition. If Mr. Lewis' employment is terminated without cause or as a result of constructive termination, these restricted shares will vest in full and options that would have vested within 12 months of the date of termination (but not less than one additional installment) will vest, and all vested options will remain exercisable for two years. These restricted shares also vest in full upon his death or disability. These grants of options and restricted shares were subject to receiving the approval of the Kmart stockholders on March 24, 2005, which was obtained.

Pursuant to Mr. Lewis' Restricted Share Agreement (the March Equity Agreement and, together with the October Equity Agreements, the Lewis Equity Agreements), that he executed with Kmart on March 24, 2005 immediately following the close of the Kmart stockholder meeting held on that date, Mr. Lewis was also granted an additional 8,011 restricted shares of Kmart common stock (equal to $1,000,000 on March 23, 2005, the trading day immediately prior to the closing date of the Mergers (as defined below)). These additional restricted shares vest in three installments on the last day of fiscal years 2005 through 2007, subject to his continued employment and to a performance condition. These restricted shares vest in full upon his death or disability. This grant of additional restricted shares was subject to receiving the approval of the Kmart stockholders on March 24, 2005, which was obtained.

As a result of the consummation of the Mergers, these options and restricted shares were exchanged for restricted shares and options of Holdings on a one-for-one basis and are subject to the same vesting and restrictions. The foregoing description of the Lewis Equity Agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of such agreements incorporated by reference hereto as Exhibits 10.2 through 10.4.

Effective March 28, 2005, pursuant to the Employment Agreement with Alan Lacy dated as of November 16, 2004 (the Lacy Agreement), Holdings entered into a Restricted Share Agreement and a Nonqualified Stock Option Agreement with Mr. Lacy (together, the Lacy Equity Agreements). Pursuant to the Lacy Equity Agreements, Mr. Lacy was granted 75,000 restricted shares of Holdings common stock and options to acquire 200,000 shares of Holdings common stock with an exercise price per share of $131.11 (the closing price of Holdings common stock on the Nasdaq National Market on March 28, 2005 (the Grant Date)). The options vest in four installments on each of the first four anniversaries of the Grant Date, and the restricted stock will vest in full on June 30, 2006, subject, in each case, to the continued employment of Mr. Lacy through the applicable vesting date. If Mr. Lacy's employment is terminated by Holdings without cause or as a result of constructive termination, the restricted shares and options will vest in full and all vested options will remain exercisable for three years. The restricted shares and options also vest in full upon Mr. Lacy's death or disability.

A description of the Lacy Agreement is contained in the joint proxy statement-prospectus of Kmart and Sears, Roebuck and Co. (Sears) dated February 18, 2005 that forms a part of Holdings' registration statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-120954) (the Joint Proxy Statement-Prospectus) under the caption The Mergers' Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Mergers' Lacy Employment Agreement , which is incorporated herein by reference.

The foregoing description of the Lacy Agreement and the Lacy Equity Agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of such agreements which are attached hereto or incorporated herein by reference as Exhibits 10.5 through 10.7.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 24, 2005, in connection with the consummation of the mergers (the Mergers) contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 16, 2004, by and among Holdings, Kmart, Sears, Roebuck and Co. (Sears), Kmart Acquisition Corp. and Sears Acquisition Corp. (the Merger Agreement), Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp. (SRAC), a subsidiary of Holdings as a result of the Mergers, terminated the Three-Year Credit Agreement (the Old Credit Agreement) dated as of May 17, 2004, among SRAC, the banks, financial institutions and other institutional lenders parties thereto, Barclays Bank PLC, as syndication agent, Bank of America, N.A., Bank One, NA and Wachovia Bank National Association, as documentation agents, Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Barclays Capital, the Investment Banking Division of Barclays Bank PLC, as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners, and Citibank, N.A., as administrative agent. The Old Credit Agreement was terminated in connection with the effectiveness of the New Credit Agreement as described under Item 8.01 below.

Prior to its termination, the Old Credit Agreement provided for a $2,000,000,000 revolving credit facility. No material early termination penalties were incurred in connection with the termination of the Old Credit Agreement, and except as described below in this Item 1.02 and under Item 8.01, neither Holdings nor any of its affiliates has any material relationship with any of the other parties to the Old Credit Agreement other than in respect of the Old Credit Agreement.

Sears and Citibank (USA) N.A. (an affiliate of Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Citibank, N.A.) are parties to a long-term marketing and servicing alliance under which Citibank (USA) N.A. provides credit and customer service benefits to Sears' proprietary and Gold MasterCard holders. In addition, Citibank (USA) N.A. supports Sears' current zero-percent financing program.

Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, Morgan Stanley Bank, Lehman Brothers Bank, FSB and State Street Bank and Trust Company were Initial Lenders under the Old Credit Agreement. According to a statement on Schedule 13D filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on March 10, 2005, Deutsche Bank AG was the beneficial owner of approximately 5.4% of Sears' outstanding common stock.

Morgan Stanley, an affiliate of Morgan Stanley Bank, was retained by Sears to act as its financial advisor and to provide a fairness opinion to Sears' Board of Directors in connection with the Mergers. Sears paid Morgan Stanley a transaction fee of $25 million and reimbursement of expenses incurred in performing its services and agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley, its affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, agents, employees and controlling persons against certain liabilities and expenses, including those arising under the federal securities laws, related to or arising out of Morgan Stanley's engagement and any related transactions. In the past, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have provided financial advisory and financing services for both Sears and Kmart and have received fees for rendering those services. Specifically, during the past three years, Morgan Stanley received from Sears approximately $13.9 million in connection with its investment banking activities (exclusive of fees related to the Mergers).

Lehman Brothers was engaged by Kmart to act as its financial advisor and to provide a fairness opinion to Kmart's Board of Directors with respect to the Mergers. As compensation for its services, Kmart paid Lehman Brothers a fee of $3,000,000 and reimbursement of expenses incurred in performing its services. In addition, Kmart agreed to indemnify Lehman Brothers for certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement. Lehman Brothers in the past has rendered investment banking services to Kmart, Sears and their affiliates and received customary fees for those services.

According to a statement on Schedule 13G filed with the SEC on February 17, 2005, State Street Bank and Trust Company beneficially owned approximately 10% of Sears' outstanding common stock, including shares it held on behalf of participants in Sears' 401(k) Savings Plan. State Street Bank and Trust Company provides investment management services to the Sears Pension Plan and serves as trustee of the Sears 401(k) Savings Plan and the Sears Puerto Rico Savings Plan. Through a joint venture with Citigroup, it also provides administrative services to the Sears 401(k) Plan and the Sears Pension Plan. In 2004, Sears and those plans together paid State Street Bank and Trust Company approximately $15.7 million for those and related services.
