CVRD settles 2006 iron ore and pellet prices with Chinese steelmakers

Rio de Janeiro, June 21, 2006 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the world's largest iron ore producer, announces that it concluded the iron ore price negotiations with the Chinese steelmakers. As an outcome, prices of iron ore fines, lumps and pellet feed (Carajás and Southern System) increased by 19% relatively to reference prices for 2005, while the price for blast furnace pellets (São Luís and Tubarão) was reduced by 3%.

CVRD reinforces its long-term commitment with clients, investing a significant amount of resources in the expansion of production capacity and logistics of iron ore and pellets. Its capex budget for 2006 allocated US$2.1 billion for investment in this line of business. Currently, the Company is developing seven projects for capacity expansion of iron ore and pellets, which will come on stream between 2006 and 2008.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
