Reminder Announcement on the Release of Restrictive Shares of the Controlling Shareholder

As approved by the No. [2006] 159 Paper issued by China Securities Regulatory Commission, in its initial public offering, China Life Insurance Company Limited (the Company) issued within the People's Republic of China 1,500,000,000 RMB common shares (A Shares) at a price of RMB 18.88/share with a book value of RMB 1.00 per share. Those A Shares were listed on Shanghai Stock Exchange on January 9, 2007. As disclosed in the Company's Prospectus, prior to the initial public offering of the A Shares, China Life Insurance (Group) Company (the Group Company), the controlling shareholder of the Company, held 19,323,530,000 shares of the Company. At the initial public offering of the Company's A Shares, the Group Company, as the controlling shareholder, warranted that: it will not transfer or authorize others to manage shares of the Company it held (directly or indirectly), for 36 months from the date of the initial public offering of the A Shares. In addition, it will not require the Company to purchase these shares. During such 36 months, the Group Company strictly complied with its aforesaid warranties.

Pursuant to Announcement No. 63 and the Implementing Measures for Partial State-owned Share Transfers in the Domestic Securities Market to Replenish National Social Security Funds jointly issued by the Ministry of Finance, State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission of the State Council, China Securities Regulatory Commission and the National Council for Social Fund, 150,000,000 shares of all the Company's shares held by the Group Company have been frozen.

Based on the Group Company's warranties and the aforesaid provisions, 19,323,530,000 shares of the Company held by the Group Company will be released from trading restriction on January 11, 2010. Of this amount, 19,173,530,000 shares will be traded on the market, and the remaining 150,000,000 shares remain frozen at the moment. The Group Company has not received from relevant authorities any instructions in this regard.
