If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As disclosed by the registrant in a Current Report on Form 8-K, filed on March 31, 2005, the Audit Committee of the registrant's Board of Directors determined on March 29, 2005 that the registrant's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 and for each of the first three quarters of fiscal 2004 should be restated. Due to the time, effort and expense involved in determining the effect of the adjustments to the registrant's historical financial statements and to allow sufficient time for the registrant to reflect these restatements and the related disclosures and provide for the necessary review of this information, it has found it necessary to delay the filing of its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Because of the delays caused by the restatement, the registrant's inability to file timely could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort and expense. The registrant expects to file its Form 10-K on or before the 15th calendar day following the prescribed due date. In addition, details of the restatement also will be reflected in amendments to Origen's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the first three quarters of 2004, and other filings with the SEC, all of which will be filed in the near future.

registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes /X/ No / /

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes /X/ No / /

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously disclosed in the registrant's press release, dated March 31, 2005, the registrant's previously reported results of operations for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 and the first three quarters of fiscal 2004 are being restated to reflect certain changes in the application of accounting principles. The effect of the correction will reduce earnings per share by $0.03 for the period from October 8, 2003 to December 31, 2003, and increase the loss per share by $0.06 for 2004. The 2004 loss is $3.0 million, or $0.14 per share, rather than the previously announced $1.8 million, or $0.08 per share. The registrant expects that the results of operations for fiscal 2003, each of the first three quarters of 2004 and for fiscal 2004 to be reported in the Form 10-K and the other filings referenced in Part III above will be substantially the same as those reported in the press release.
