Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On October 31, 2005, a number of organizational changes became effective at DTE Energy Company (DTE Energy). Gerard M. Anderson received the additional title of chief operating officer of DTE Energy. Steven E. Ewing became vice chairman of DTE Energy. Robert J. Buckler received the additional title of chief operating officer of The Detroit Edison Company, a subsidiary of DTE Energy (Detroit Edison). For additional information, please see DTE Energy's press release dated October 31, 2005, attached as Exhibit 99.1.

Gerard M. Anderson, 47, has served as president of DTE Energy since June 2004, and from August 1998 until his assumption of the presidency, he served as group president of DTE Energy's energy resources business line. Mr. Anderson joined Detroit Edison as vice president of the non-utility business in 1993. In April 1997, he became executive vice president of DTE Energy.

Stephen E. Ewing, 61, has served as group president and chief operating officer of DTE Energy's gas business since June 2001. Previously he served as president and chief operating officer of MCN Energy Group Inc. and president and chief executive officer of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company (MichCon). In 2001, DTE Energy merged with MCN Energy Group Inc., the parent company of MichCon. Mr. Ewing joined MichCon in 1971 and held executive positions in the areas of corporate planning, personnel, administration and customer service. In 1985, he was named president and chief operating officer of MichCon, and assumed the role of chief executive officer of MichCon in 1992.

Robert J. Buckler, 56, joined Detroit Edison in 1972 as an engineer. He became a vice president of Detroit Edison in 1990, senior vice president in 1992 and executive vice president in 1997. In August 1998, Mr. Buckler became group president of DTE Energy's energy distribution line of business.
