On July 12, 2004, Cypress Communications Holding Co., Inc. (the Company), through Cypress Communications, Inc. and Cypress Communications Operating Company, Inc., its wholly owned subsidiaries, modified the Amended and Restated Loan and Security Agreement, dated March 17, 2004 (the Agreement) with Silicon Valley Bank in order to provide for more favorable lending terms which reflect the Company's recent financial performance and to extend the term of the Agreement.

As modified as of July 12, 2004, the Agreement provides the Company with a revolving loan credit limit of up to the lesser of $10 million and eight-five percent (85%) of the Company's accounts and general intangibles. The Agreement also provides the Company with a $1 million sublimit for letters of credit and equipment term loans and a $100,000 cash management sublimit. Interest accrues on a revolving loan at a rate equal to the greater of (a) the prime rate plus two percent (2%) and (b) six percent (6%). Interest accrues on an equipment loan at a rate equal to the greater of (x) the prime rate plus three percent (3%) and (y) seven percent (7%). The loans made pursuant to the Agreement are secured by certain of the Company's property and assets.

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Company is bound by certain affirmative and restrictive covenants, including an obligation to maintain a minimum tangible net worth and a certain debt service coverage ratio.

The Agreement will remain in effect until the earlier of July 10, 2005 or the maturity of the Company's bridge loan or convertible notes.

The foregoing is a summary description of certain material terms of the Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 hereto.
