PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This prospectus summary highlights selected information about us. In addition to reading this summary, you should carefully review the entire prospectus, especially the Risk Factors section of this document beginning on page 12. In addition, certain statements include forward-looking information which involves risks and uncertainties. See Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.

Unless this prospectus otherwise indicates or the context otherwise requires, the terms we, our, or us, as used in this prospectus refer to Technical Olympic USA, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

Overview

We design, build and market high quality detached single-family residences, town homes, and condominiums. We operate in markets characterized by strong population and income growth. Currently, we conduct homebuilding operations through our consolidated operations and unconsolidated joint ventures in various metropolitan markets in ten states, located in four major geographic regions: Florida, the Mid-Atlantic, Texas, and the West. As used in this prospectus, consolidated information refers only to information relating to our operations which are consolidated in our financial statements; combined information includes consolidated information and information relating to our unconsolidated joint ventures.

For the year ended December 31, 2005, on a combined basis, we delivered 9,435 homes with an average sales price of $298,000, had 10,623 net sales orders and ended the year with 10,021 homes in backlog. Our consolidated operations delivered 7,769 homes in 2005, having an average sales price of $292,000, had 8,614 net sales orders and generated $2.5 billion in homebuilding revenues and $218.3 million in net income. At December 31, 2005, we had 5,272 consolidated homes in backlog with an aggregate sales value of $1.8 billion, and our unconsolidated joint ventures had 4,749 homes in backlog with an aggregate sales value of $1.5 billion. As of December 31, 2005, we controlled approximately 94,300 homesites on a combined basis.

We market our homes to a diverse group of homebuyers, including first-time homebuyers, move-up homebuyers, homebuyers who are relocating to a new city or state, buyers of second or vacation homes, active-adult homebuyers and homebuyers with grown children who want a smaller home (empty-nesters). We market our homes under various brand names including Engle Homes, Newmark Homes, Trophy Homes, and Transeastern Homes.

As part of our objective to provide homebuyers a seamless home purchasing experience, we have developed, and are expanding, our complementary financial services business. As part of this business, we provide mortgage financing, closing and settlement services, and offer title, homeowners and other insurance products. Our mortgage financing operation s revenues consist primarily of origination and premium fee income, interest income and the gain on the sale of the mortgages. We sell substantially all of our mortgages and the related servicing rights to third parties. Our mortgage financing operation derives most of its revenues from buyers of our homes, although existing homeowners may also use these services. By comparison, our title and closing services and our insurance agency operations are used by our homebuyers and a broad range of other clients purchasing or refinancing residential or commercial real estate.

Business Strategies

Capitalize on Growth Potential in Our Current Markets

We believe that a significant portion of our future growth will stem from our ability to increase our homes sales and capture additional market share within our current markets. Currently, we conduct homebuilding operations in various metropolitan markets, each of which is highly fragmented with other homebuilders. Our reputation as a high quality homebuilder combined with our financial resources gives us an advantage over many smaller homebuilders with whom we compete. Consequently, we have an opportunity to significantly strengthen our market position by expanding our product offerings and increasing the size and number of our active selling communities. Generally, our current markets have demonstrated solid income and population growth trends.

Expand Our Use of Joint Ventures and Option Contracts to Maximize our Return on Equity and Manage Risk

We have entered into, and expect to expand our use of, joint ventures that acquire and develop land for our homebuilding operations, and/or joint ventures that develop land and also build and market homes. We believe that these joint ventures help us acquire attractive land positions, mitigate and share the risk associated with land ownership and development, increase our return on equity and extend our capital resources. In addition, we seek to use option contracts to acquire land whenever feasible. Option contracts allow us to control significant homesite positions with minimal capital investment and substantially reduce the risks associated with land ownership and development. At December 31, 2005, we controlled approximately 68,900 homesites on a consolidated basis of which 60% were controlled through various option contracts. Additionally, our joint ventures controlled approximately 25,400 homesites at December 31, 2005.

Grow Our Financial Services Business

Our financial services operations require minimal capital investment and are financially advantageous because of the cost savings resulting from using our affiliated mortgage financing operation and the earnings generated by the high volume of transactions completed by our title insurance and closing services operations. We believe that these financial services complement our homebuilding operations and provide homebuyers a more efficient and seamless home purchasing experience. For the year ended December 31, 2005, 65% of our non-cash homebuyers (excluding our Transeastern joint venture) used our mortgage services (approximately 11% of our homebuyers paid in cash), while 91% of our homebuyers used our title and closing services and 19% used our insurance agencies to obtain insurance. We believe that we have an opportunity to grow our financial services business by:

increasing the percentage of our homebuyers who use our financial services; and marketing our financial services to buyers of homes built by other homebuilders, including smaller homebuilders that do not provide their own financial services.

Selectively Expand Into New Markets

We intend to supplement our primary growth strategy of expansion in our current markets with a disciplined approach to entering new markets. We select our target geographic markets based on, among other things, historical and projected population growth, projected job and income growth, regional economic conditions, availability of strong management with local expertise, land availability, single-family home permit activity and price, the local land development process, consumer tastes, competition, housing inventory and secondary home sales activity. We believe this long-term emphasis on geographic diversification across a range of growing markets with strong fundamentals will enable us to minimize our exposure to adverse economic conditions, seasonality and housing cycles in individual local markets. We may enter new markets through strategic acquisitions of other homebuilders or through initiating operations using our existing management expertise and resources.

Executive Offices

Our executive offices are located at 4000 Hollywood Blvd., Suite 500 N, Hollywood, Florida 33021, and our telephone number is (954) 364-4000. Our web address is www.tousa.com. We do not intend the information on our website to constitute part of this prospectus.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the exchange of old notes for new notes will not be considered a sale or exchange or otherwise taxable event to the holders of notes.

Use of Proceeds

We will not receive any proceeds from the issuance of the new notes offered in the exchange offer.

Exchange Agent

Wells Fargo Bank, National Association is serving as exchange agent in connection with the exchange offer for the notes.

Resales of New Notes

Based on an interpretation by the Commission set forth in no-action letters issued to third parties, we believe that you may resell or otherwise transfer new notes issued in the exchange offer in exchange for old notes without restrictions under the federal securities laws. However, there are exceptions to this general statement.

You may not freely transfer the new notes if:

you are an affiliate of ours;

you did not acquire the new notes in the ordinary course of your business;

you intend to participate in the exchange offer for the purpose of distributing new notes; or you are a broker-dealer who acquired the old notes directly from us.

Any holder subject to any of the exceptions above will not be able to rely on the interpretations of the Staff of the Commission set forth in the above-mentioned interpretive letters; will not be permitted or entitled to tender old notes in the exchange offer; and must comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any sale or other transfer of old notes unless the sale is made pursuant to an exemption from those requirements.

In addition, each participating broker-dealer that receives new notes for its own account in the exchange offer in exchange for old notes that were acquired by such broker-dealer as a result of market making activities or other trading activities and not directly from us, must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with the resale of the new notes. See Plan of Distribution.

Table of Contents

Consequences of Not Exchanging the Old Notes

If you do not tender your old notes, or your old notes are not properly tendered, the existing transfer restrictions on the old notes will continue to apply. The old notes are currently eligible for sale pursuant to Rule 144A through the Private Offerings, Resales and Trading through Automatic Linkages Market referred to as the PORTAL Market. Because we anticipate that most holders will elect to exchange old notes for new notes due to the absence of restrictions on the resale of new notes under the Securities Act, we anticipate that the liquidity of the market for any old notes remaining after the consummation of the exchange offer will be substantially limited.

Summary Description of the New Notes

The terms of the new notes and the old notes are identical in all respects, except that the terms of the new notes do not include the transfer restrictions and registration rights relating to the old notes.

Notes Offered $250.0 million aggregate principal amount of 8¹/₄ % senior notes due 2011.

Maturity Date April 1, 2011.

Interest Payment Dates April 1 and October 1 of each year, beginning on October 1, 2006.

Interest The new notes will bear interest from the later of April 12, 2006 or the most recent date to which interest has been paid on the old notes. Accordingly, registered holders of new notes on the relevant record date for the first interest payment date following the completion of the exchange offer will receive interest accruing from the later of April 12, 2006 or the most recent date on which interest has been paid. Old notes accepted for exchange will cease to accrue interest from and after the date of completion of the exchange offer. Holders of old notes whose old notes are accepted for exchange will not receive any payment in respect of interest on the old notes otherwise payable on any interest payment date that occurs on or after completion of the exchange offer.

Ranking The notes are:

- our senior, unsecured obligations;
- equal in right of payment to all of our existing and future unsecured senior debt;
- senior in right of payment to all of our existing and future subordinated debt; and
- effectively subordinated in right of payment to all of our secured debt, if any, to the extent of the value of the collateral securing that debt.

Table of Contents

As of December 31, 2005, as adjusted for our new unsecured credit facility entered into in March 2006 (the New Credit Facility), the offering of the old notes and the application of the net proceeds therefrom, we could have incurred up to $306.6 million of additional senior debt under our New Credit Facility which would be equal in right of payment to the notes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of an event of default arising from the bankruptcy provisions, all outstanding notes will become due and payable without further action or notice. Holders of the notes may not enforce the indenture or the notes except as provided in the indenture. Subject to certain limitations, holders of a majority in principal amount of the then outstanding notes may direct the trustee in its exercise of any trust or power.

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the notes then outstanding by notice to the trustee may on behalf of the holders of all of the notes waive any existing default or event of default and its consequences under the indenture except a continuing default or event of default in the payment of interest on, or the principal of, the notes.

Absence of an Established Market for the Notes

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information set forth elsewhere in this prospectus, holders of old notes should carefully consider the risk factors relating to our company which are set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and all other documents incorporated herein by reference as well as the risk factors relating to the notes before tendering their old notes in the exchange offer.

Risks Related to the Notes

We may not have sufficient funds to satisfy our repurchase obligations that arise upon a change in control or a decline in our consolidated net worth.

If a change in control occurs, we will be required, subject to certain conditions, to offer to purchase all outstanding notes plus all the outstanding 9% Senior Notes, 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes, the 2011 7¹/₂% Senior Subordinated Notes and the 2015 7¹/₂ % Senior Subordinated Notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of purchase.

In addition, if our consolidated net worth falls below $150.0 million for any two consecutive fiscal quarters, we are required to make an offer to purchase 10% of the aggregate principal amount of the 9% Senior Notes, the 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes, the 2011 7¹/₂% Senior Subordinated Notes, the 2015 7¹/₂ % Senior Subordinated Notes and the notes then outstanding, in each case, at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase. As of December 31, 2005, on a consolidated basis, our net worth was $971.3 million.

As of December 31, 2005, we did not have sufficient funds available to purchase all of our outstanding notes were they to be tendered in response to an offer made as a result of a change of control. In addition, we may not have sufficient funds available, from time to time, to fund a net worth offer. The source of funds for any purchase of these notes in either event will be our available cash or cash generated from our operations or other sources, including borrowings, sales of assets or sales of equity. If we do not have sufficient cash on hand, we could seek to refinance the debt under our New Credit Facility, all of our outstanding notes and our other debt or obtain a waiver from the lenders or the holders of our outstanding notes, as the case may be. We may not, however, be able to obtain a waiver or refinance our debt on satisfactory terms, or at all. In addition, the indentures for the 9% Senior Notes and these notes restrict our ability to make a change of control offer for any subordinated notes, including the 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes, the 2011 7¹/₂% Senior Subordinated Notes, and the 2015 7¹/₂ % Senior Subordinated Notes, to the extent we cannot comply with the covenants of those indentures regarding limitation on Restricted Payments.

Our failure to purchase, or give notice of purchase of the notes would be a default under the indenture for the notes. Furthermore, if the holders of the notes exercise their right to require us to repurchase notes due to a change of control or a decline in our consolidated net worth, the financial effect of this repurchase could cause a default under our other debt, even if the event itself would not cause a default.

Our debt instruments contain cross default provisions which, in general, have the effect that a default under any one of these instruments may constitute a default under all of the debt instruments.

The indenture governing the notes and the indentures governing the 9% Senior Notes, the 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes, the 2011 7¹/₂% Senior Subordinated Notes and the 2015 7¹/₂ % Senior Subordinated Notes contain cross default provisions which, in general, have the effect that a default under any one of these instruments or our New Credit Facility may constitute a default under all of the debt instruments. In the event of such a default and in the event of the acceleration of all the outstanding indebtedness, including the notes, it is unlikely that we would be able to repay all such indebtedness simultaneously. At May 31, 2006, the aggregate amount of borrowings outstanding under the notes, the 9%

Senior Notes, the 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes, the 2011 7¹/₂% Senior Subordinated Notes, the 2015 7¹/₂ % Senior Subordinated Notes and our New Credit Facility was approximately $1.1 billion.

Your right to receive payments on the notes and the guarantees is unsecured and will be effectively subordinated to our secured debt, if any, which could result in situations where there are not sufficient funds available to pay the notes.

The notes are effectively subordinated to claims of our secured creditors, if any, and the guarantees of each subsidiary guarantor are effectively subordinated to the claims of secured creditors, if any, of that subsidiary guarantor, in each case to the extent of the value of the collateral securing those claims.

Our holding company structure could limit our ability to access the cash of our non-guarantor subsidiaries and the ability of the holders of the notes to access the assets of those subsidiaries will be effectively subordinated to those subsidiaries' other obligations thereby resulting in less cash flow and assets to support the notes.

Substantially all of our operations are conducted through our subsidiaries. Therefore, our ability to service our debt, including the notes, is dependent upon the cash flows of those subsidiaries and, to the extent they are not subsidiary guarantors, their ability to distribute those cash flows as dividends, loans or other payments to the entities which are obligors under the notes and the guarantees. If their ability to make these distributions were restricted, by law or otherwise, then we would not be able to use the earnings of the non-guarantor subsidiaries to make payments on the notes. In addition, our subsidiaries that are not subsidiary guarantors may have liabilities, including trade payables and contingent liabilities, that may be significant. Our rights as an equity holder of those subsidiaries to receive any of their assets, upon a liquidation or reorganization, and therefore the right of the holders of the notes to participate in those assets, effectively will be subordinated to the claims of those subsidiaries' creditors, including trade creditors, if any.

Your ability to enforce the guarantees of the notes may be limited because the guarantees may potentially raise fraudulent transfer issues.

Although the notes are our obligations, they are unconditionally guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by all of our material domestic subsidiaries, other than our mortgage and title subsidiaries. The performance by each subsidiary guarantor of its obligations with respect to its guarantee may be subject to review under relevant federal and state fraudulent conveyance and similar statutes in a bankruptcy or reorganization case or lawsuit by or on behalf of unpaid creditors of such subsidiary guarantor. Under these statutes, if a court were to find under relevant federal or state fraudulent conveyance statutes that a subsidiary guarantor did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value for incurring its guarantee of the notes, and that, at the time of such incurrence, the subsidiary guarantor:

was insolvent;

was rendered insolvent by reason of such incurrence or grant;

was engaged in a business or transaction for which the assets remaining with such subsidiary guarantor constituted unreasonably small capital; or intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they matured; then the court, subject to applicable statutes of limitation, could void the subsidiary guarantor's obligations under its guarantee, recover payments made under the guarantee, subordinate the guarantee to other indebtedness of the subsidiary guarantor or take other action detrimental to the holders of the notes.

A court could also void an incurrence of indebtedness, including the guarantees, if it determined that such transaction was made with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors. In addition, a court could subordinate the indebtedness, including the guarantees, to the claims of all existing and future creditors on similar grounds. The guarantees could also be subject to the claim that, since the guarantees were incurred for our benefit (and only indirectly for the benefit of the subsidiary guarantors), the obligations of the subsidiary guarantors under the guarantees were incurred for less than reasonably equivalent value or fair consideration.

Your ability to transfer the notes may be limited by the absence of an established trading market.

There is no established trading market for the notes. The old notes are eligible for trading in the PORTAL market. We will apply for listing of the new notes on the New York Stock Exchange.

Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., as initial purchaser of the old notes, has indicated to us that it intends to make a market in the old notes prior to the expiration of the exchange offer and the new notes after the expiration of the exchange offer, but it is not obligated to do so. Deutsche Bank may discontinue any market making in the old notes or the new notes at any time in its sole discretion. Accordingly, we cannot ensure that a liquid market will develop for any of the old notes or the new notes, that you will be able to sell your old notes or the new notes at a particular time or that the prices that you receive when you sell will be favorable. Future trading prices of the old notes or the new notes will depend on many factors, including our operating performance and financial condition, our ability to complete the offer to exchange the old notes for new notes, prevailing interest rates and the market for similar securities. Historically, the market for noninvestment grade debt has been subject to disruptions that have caused substantial volatility in the prices of securities similar to the notes. Any such disruptions may adversely affect the ability of holders of notes to dispose of them for a profit or at all.

There could be negative consequences to you if you do not exchange your old notes for new notes.

Any old notes tendered and exchanged in the exchange offer will reduce the aggregate principal amount of old notes outstanding. Because we anticipate that most holders will elect to exchange their old notes for new notes due to the absence of most restrictions on the resale of new notes, we anticipate that the liquidity of the market for any old notes remaining outstanding after the exchange offer may be substantially limited. Following the consummation of the exchange offer, holders who did not tender their old notes generally will not have any further registration rights under the registration rights agreement, and these old notes will continue to be subject to restrictions on transfer. The old notes are currently eligible for sale under Rule 144A through the PORTAL Market.

As a result of making the exchange offer, we will have fulfilled our obligations under the registration rights agreement relating to the old notes. Holders who do not tender their old notes generally will not have any further registration rights or rights to receive the liquidated damages specified in the registration rights agreement for our failure to register the new notes.

Any old notes that are not exchanged for new notes will remain restricted securities. Accordingly, the old notes may be resold only:

to us or one of our subsidiaries;

to a qualified institutional buyer;

to an institutional accredited investor;

to a party outside the United States under Regulation S under the Securities Act;

under an exemption from registration provided by Rule 144 under the Securities Act; or under an effective registration statement.

the impact of any or all of the above risks on the operations or financial results of our unconsolidated joint ventures.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the issuance of the new notes offered in the exchange offer. As consideration for issuing the new notes, we will receive in exchange old notes in like principal amount, the terms of which are identical in all respects to the new notes, except for the transfer restrictions and registration rights. The old notes surrendered in exchange for new notes will be retired and cancelled and cannot be reissued. Accordingly, issuance of the new notes will not result in any increase in our indebtedness.

We used the net proceeds of approximately $248.8 million from the sale of the old notes to repay outstanding debt under our New Credit Facility. As of March 31, 2006, the weighted average interest rate on the loans outstanding under our New Credit Facility was 6.3% per annum. Loans outstanding under our New Credit Facility mature on March 9, 2010. Amounts borrowed under our New Credit Facility were used for inventory and general corporate purposes.

Table of ContentsDESCRIPTION OF OTHER MATERIAL INDEBTEDNESS*Revolving Credit Facility

On March 9, 2006, we entered into a new unsecured credit facility, which we refer to as our New Credit Facility, with the lenders and issuers party thereto, and Citicorp North America, Inc., as agent, replacing our previous $600.0 million revolving credit facility. Our New Credit Facility permits us to borrow up to the lesser of (i) $800.0 million or (ii) our borrowing base (calculated in accordance with the revolving credit facility agreement) minus our outstanding senior unsecured debt. The New Credit Facility has a letter of credit subfacility of $400.0 million. In addition, we have the right to increase the size of the New Credit Facility to provide up to an additional $150.0 million of revolving loans, provided we give 10 business days' notice of our intention to increase the size of the New Credit Facility and we meet the following conditions: (i) at the time of and after giving effect to the increase, we are in pro forma compliance with our financial covenants; (ii) no default or event of default has occurred and is continuing or would result from the increase; and (iii) the conditions precedent to a borrowing are satisfied as of such date. The New Credit Facility expires on March 9, 2010, at which time we will be required to repay all outstanding principal.

Loans outstanding under the New Credit Facility may be base rate loans or Eurodollar loans, at our election. Base rate loans accrue interest at a rate per annum equal to (i) an applicable margin plus (ii) the higher of (A) Citicorp's base rate or (B) 0.5% plus the Federal Funds Rate. Eurodollar loans accrue interest at a rate per annum equal to (i) an applicable margin plus (ii) the reserve-adjusted Eurodollar rate for the interest period. Applicable margins will be adjusted based on the ratio of our liabilities (net of our unrestricted cash in excess of $10 million) to our adjusted tangible net worth and our senior debt rating. The New Credit Facility requires us to maintain specified financial ratios regarding leverage, interest coverage, adjusted tangible net worth and certain operational measurements. The New Credit Facility also places certain restrictions on, among other things, our ability to pay or make dividends or other distributions, create or permit certain liens, make investments in joint ventures, enter into transactions with affiliates and merge or consolidate with other entities. Our obligations under the New Credit Facility are guaranteed by our material domestic subsidiaries, other than our mortgage and title subsidiaries.

As of December 31, 2005, we had $65.0 million outstanding under our prior revolving credit facility, and had issued letters of credit totaling $218.9 million. As of March 31, 2006, we had $300.0 million outstanding under our New Credit Facility, and had issued letters of credit totaling $278.8 million. Our ability to utilize the remaining amount available under our New Credit Facility is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including certification by us that all representations and warranties contained in the loan agreement are true and that no default has occurred and is continuing thereunder. As of March 31, 2006, we had $221.2 million remaining in availability under the New Credit Facility, all of which we could have borrowed without violating any of our debt covenants. As of March 31, 2006, our loans outstanding under the New Credit Facility accrued interest at a rate of 6.3% per annum.

Warehouse Lines of Credit

Our mortgage subsidiary has the ability to borrow up to $200.0 million under two warehouse lines of credit to fund the origination of residential mortgage loans. The primary revolving warehouse line of credit (the Primary Warehouse Line of Credit) with Countrywide Warehouse Lending provides for revolving loans of up to $150.0 million. The Primary Warehouse Line of Credit expires on December 8, 2006. The Primary Warehouse Line of Credit bears interest at the 30 day LIBOR rate plus a margin of 1.125% to 3.0%, except for certain specialty mortgage loans, determined based upon the type of mortgage loans being financed. The Primary Warehouse Line of Credit also places certain restrictions on, among other things, our mortgage subsidiary's ability to incur additional debt, create liens, pay or make dividends or other distributions, make equity investments, enter into transactions with affiliates, and merge or consolidate with other entities.

Table of Contents

Our mortgage subsidiary's other warehouse line of credit, as amended (the Secondary Warehouse Line of Credit), with Guaranty Bank is comprised of (1) a credit facility providing for revolving loans of up to $30.0 million, subject to meeting borrowing base requirements based on the value of collateral provided, and (2) a recently added mortgage loan purchase and sale agreement which provides for the purchase by the lender of up to $20.0 million in mortgage loans generated by our mortgage subsidiary. At no time may the amount outstanding under this Secondary Warehouse Line of Credit plus the amount of purchased loans financed pursuant to the purchase and sale agreement exceed $50.0 million. The Secondary Warehouse Line of Credit is used to fund the origination of residential mortgage loans in addition to the Primary Warehouse Line of Credit. The Secondary Warehouse Line of Credit bears interest at the 30 day LIBOR rate plus a margin of 1.125% and expires February 11, 2007.

Both lines of credit are secured by funded mortgages, which are pledged as collateral, and require our mortgage subsidiary to maintain certain financial ratios and minimums. At December 31, 2005, we had $35.1 million in borrowings under our mortgage subsidiary's warehouse lines of credit. As of March 31, 2006, we had $40.7 million in borrowings under our mortgage subsidiary's warehouse lines of credit which accrued interest at a weighted average rate of 5.8% per annum.

The 9% Senior Notes due 2010

On June 25, 2002, we completed a private placement of $200.0 million in aggregate principal amount of our 9% Senior Notes due 2010 (the June 2002 Senior Notes). On February 3, 2003, we completed a private placement of an additional $100.0 million in aggregate principal amount of 9% Senior Notes due 2010 (the February 2003 Senior Notes), the terms of which were identical to the June 2002 Senior Notes. This description summarizes certain terms of the June 2002 Senior Notes and the February 2003 Senior Notes (collectively, the 9% Senior Notes), but does not describe all of the terms. You should refer to the indenture governing the June 2002 Senior Notes, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit to our Current Report on Form 8-K dated July 9, 2002, and the indenture governing our February 2003 Senior Notes, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit to our Annual Report on Form 10-K, filed with the Commission on February 12, 2003.

Interest on the 9% Senior Notes accrues at a rate of 9% per annum and is payable semi-annually in arrears on January 1 and July 1, commencing on January 1, 2003 with respect to the June 2002 Senior Notes and commencing on July 1, 2003 with respect to the February 2003 Senior Notes. The 9% Senior Notes will mature on July 1, 2010.

The 9% Senior Notes are:

our senior, unsecured obligations;

equal in right of payment with all of our existing and future senior debt (including the Notes and amounts outstanding under our New Credit Facility);

senior in right of payment to all our existing and future subordinated debt (including the Senior Subordinated Notes); and guaranteed on a senior, unsecured basis, by all of our material domestic subsidiaries, other than our mortgage and title subsidiaries.

On or after July 1, 2006, the 9% Senior Notes are redeemable at our option, in whole or in part, at any time, at a premium which is at a fixed percentage that declines to par on or after July 1, 2008, in each case together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption. At any time prior to July 1, 2005, we may redeem up to 35% of the 9% Senior Notes with the net proceeds of certain equity offerings at a redemption price equal to 109.0% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any, to the redemption date, if at least 65% of the aggregate principal amount of the 9% Senior Notes remain outstanding after the redemption. Prior to July 1, 2006, we may redeem all or part of the 9% Senior Notes by paying a make-whole premium based on U.S. Treasury rates.

Table of Contents

Upon the occurrence of certain change of control events, each holder of 9% Senior Notes has the right to require us to purchase all or a portion of the holder's 9% Senior Notes at a price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase.

The indentures for the June 2002 Senior Notes and the February 2003 Senior Notes contain certain covenants that limit our ability to:

incur additional debt;

pay dividends or make other restricted payments;

create or permit certain liens, other than customary and ordinary liens;

sell assets other than in the ordinary course of our business;

create or permit restrictions on the ability of our restricted subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other distributions to us;

engage in transactions with affiliates; and consolidate or merge with or into other companies or sell all or substantially all of our assets.

These indentures also include a covenant that requires us to maintain a certain consolidated net worth or make an offer to purchase the 9% Senior Notes. If the 9% Senior Notes receive an Investment Grade Rating, then for so long as such rating is maintained and no default or event of default shall have occurred and be continuing, certain of the covenants will cease to apply.

The Senior Subordinated Notes

On April 22, 2003, we completed a private placement of an additional $35.0 million in aggregate principal amount of our 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2012 under the same indenture (collectively the 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes).

The 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes, the 2011 7¹/₂% Senior Subordinated Notes, and the 2015 7¹/₂% Senior Subordinated Notes are collectively referred to herein as the Senior Subordinated Notes.

This description summarizes certain terms of the Senior Subordinated Notes, but does not describe all of the terms. You should refer to the respective indenture governing each of the Senior Subordinated Notes. A copy of the indenture governing the 10³/₈% Senior Subordinated Notes has been filed as an exhibit to our Form 8-K dated July 9, 2002. THE EXCHANGE OFFER

You can find the definitions of capitalized terms used in this section under the heading "Description of the Notes Certain Definitions."

Terms of the Exchange Offer; Period for Tendering Old Notes

The old notes were issued by us on April 12, 2006, to Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. (the "Initial Purchaser") pursuant to a Purchase Agreement, dated April 5, 2006, between us, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Initial Purchaser. As set forth in this prospectus and in the accompanying letter of transmittal, we will accept for exchange any and all old notes that are properly tendered on or prior to the expiration date and not withdrawn as permitted below. The term "expiration date" means 5:00 p.m., New York City time on [21 business days after commencement of offer]; provided, however, that if we extend the period of time for which the exchange offer is open, the term "expiration date" means the latest time and date to which the exchange offer is extended.

As of the date of this prospectus, $250.0 million aggregate principal amount of the old notes are outstanding. This prospectus, together with the letter of transmittal, is first being sent on or about the date set forth on the cover page to all holders of old notes at the addresses set forth in the security register maintained by the trustee or other registrar. Our obligation to accept old notes for exchange is subject to conditions as set forth under "Conditions to the Exchange Offer" below.

We expressly reserve the right, at any time or from time to time, to extend the period of time during which the exchange offer is open by public announcement of an extension to the holders of old notes as described below. If we extend the period of time during which the exchange offer is open then we would delay acceptance for exchange of any old notes consistent with any such extension. During any extension, all old notes previously tendered will remain subject to the exchange offer and may be accepted for exchange by us. Any old notes not accepted for exchange for any reason will be returned without expense to the tendering holder promptly after the expiration or termination of the exchange offer.

Old notes tendered in the exchange offer must be for a minimum of $1,000 in principal amount or any integral multiple of $1,000.

If we make a material change in the terms of the exchange offer or the information concerning the exchange offer or waive a material condition to the exchange offer, we will disseminate additional exchange offer materials and extend the exchange offer to the extent required by law. In addition, we may, if we deem appropriate, extend the exchange offer for any other reason. If the principal amount of old notes subject to the exchange offer is decreased, the exchange offer will remain open at least ten business days from the date we first give notice to you, by public announcement or otherwise, of that decrease. In the case of an extension of the exchange offer, the announcement will be issued no later than 9:00 a.m.,

Table of Contents

New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled expiration of the exchange offer. Without limiting the manner in which any public announcement may be made, we will have no obligation to publish, advertise or otherwise communicate any public announcement other than by issuing a release to the Dow Jones News Service.

Registration Covenant; Exchange Offer

Under our registration rights agreement, dated April 12, 2006, with the Initial Purchaser (the Registration Rights Agreement), we have agreed to file with the Commission an exchange offer registration statement on the appropriate form under the Securities Act with respect to the new notes (the Exchange Offer Registration Statement). This registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus forms a part, constitutes the Exchange Offer Registration Statement in accordance with the Registration Rights Agreement. Upon the effectiveness of this Exchange Offer Registration Statement, we will offer to the holders of the old notes who are able to make required representations the opportunity to exchange their old notes for new notes.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that in the event that (i) due to any change in law or applicable interpretations of the Staff of the Commission we determine upon advice of counsel that we are not permitted to effect the Registered Exchange Offer, (ii) for any other reason the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not declared effective within 180 days after the date of the original issuance of the old notes or the Registered Exchange Offer is not consummated within 45 days following the date that is 180 days after the date of the original issuance of the old notes, (iii) the Initial Purchaser so requests with respect to old notes not eligible to be exchanged for new notes in the Registered Exchange Offer and that are held by it following consummation of the Registered Exchange Offer or in certain other circumstances, (iv) any holder of old notes (other than the Initial Purchaser) is not eligible to participate in the Registered Exchange Offer or does not receive freely tradeable new notes in the Registered Exchange Offer other than by reason of such holder being an affiliate of the Company (it being understood that the requirement that a participating broker-dealer deliver the prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement in connection with sales of new notes shall not result in such new notes being not freely tradeable), we will, at our cost, (a) as promptly as practicable, file a shelf registration statement (the Shelf Registration Statement) covering resales of the old notes or new notes, as the case may be and (b) cause the Shelf Registration Statement to remain continuously effective until the earliest of (A) the time when all of the old notes or new notes covered by the Shelf Registration Statement can be sold pursuant to Rule 144 without any limitations under clauses (c), (e), (f) and (h) of Rule 144, (B) the date on which all such old notes or new notes, as applicable, are disposed of in accordance with the Shelf Registration Statement and (C) two years after its effective date.

In the event a Shelf Registration Statement is filed, we will provide to each holder for whom such Shelf Registration Statement was filed copies of the prospectus which is a part of the Shelf Registration Statement, notify each such holder when the Shelf Registration Statement has become effective and take certain other actions as are required to permit unrestricted resales of the old notes or the new notes, as the case may be, covered by such Shelf Registration Statement. A holder selling such old notes or new notes pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement generally would be required to be named as a selling security holder in the related prospectus and to deliver a prospectus to purchasers, will be subject to certain of the civil liability provisions under the Securities Act in connection with such sales and will be bound by the provisions of the Registration Rights Agreement which is applicable to such holder (including certain indemnification obligations).

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that if (a) on or prior to the 90th day following the date of original issuance of the old notes, neither an Exchange Offer Registration Statement nor the Shelf Registration Statement has been filed with the Commission, (b) on or prior to the 180th day following the date of original issuance of the old notes, neither an Exchange Offer Registration Statement nor a Shelf Registration Statement has been declared effective, (c) on or prior to the 45th day following the date an Exchange Offer Registration Statement has been first declared effective, neither a Registered Exchange Offer has been consummated nor a Shelf Registration Statement has been declared effective or (d) after either the Exchange Offer Registration Statement or the Shelf Registration Statement has been declared effective, such Registration Statement thereafter ceases to be effective or usable (subject to certain exceptions) in connection with resales of old notes or new notes in accordance with and during the periods specified in the Registration Rights Agreement (each such event referred to in clauses (a) through (d), a Registration Default), interest (Special Interest) will accrue on the principal amount of the affected old notes and the new notes (in addition to the stated interest on the old notes and the new notes) from and including the date on which any such Registration Default shall occur to but excluding the date on which all Registration Defaults have been cured. Special Interest will accrue at a rate of 0.25% per annum during the 90-day period immediately following the occurrence of such Registration Default and shall increase by 0.25% per annum at the end of each subsequent 90-day period, but in no event shall such rate exceed 1.00% per annum. We will pay Special Interest on regular interest payment dates in the same manner as other interest.

Interest on New Notes

Each new note will bear interest from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for on the old note surrendered in exchange for a new note, or, if no interest has been paid or duly provided for on the old note, from April 12, 2006. Holders of the old notes whose old notes are accepted for exchange will not receive accrued interest on the old notes for any period from and after the last interest payment date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for on the old notes prior to the original issue date of the new notes. These holders will be deemed to have waived the right to receive any interest on the old notes accrued from and after that interest payment date, or, if no interest has been paid or fully provided for, from and after April 12, 2006. Interest on the notes is payable semi-annually in arrears on each April 1 and October 1 of each year, beginning on October 1, 2006.

Procedures for Tendering Old Notes

To tender in the exchange offer, a holder must complete, sign and date the letter of transmittal, or a facsimile of the letter of transmittal, have the signatures guaranteed if required by the letter of transmittal, and mail or otherwise deliver the letter of transmittal or a facsimile, together with the old notes and any other required documents, to the exchange agent. The exchange agent must receive these documents at the address set forth below prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time on the expiration date. Delivery of the old notes may be made by book-entry transfer in accordance with the procedures described below. Confirmation of book-entry transfers must be received by the exchange agent prior to the expiration date.

By executing a letter of transmittal, each holder will make the representations set forth below under the heading Resale of New Notes.

The tender by a holder and the acceptance by us will constitute an agreement between the holder and us in accordance with the terms subject to the conditions set forth in this prospectus and in the letter of transmittal.

The method of delivery of old notes and the letter of transmittal and all other required documents to the exchange agent is at the election and risk of the holder. Instead of delivery by mail, it is recommended that holders use an overnight or hand delivery service. In all cases, sufficient time should be allowed to assure delivery to the exchange agent before the expiration date. No letter of transmittal or notes should be sent to us. Holders may request their brokers, dealers, commercial banks, trust companies or nominees to effect the above transactions for them.

Any beneficial owner whose old notes are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee and who wishes to tender should contact the registered holder promptly and instruct the registered holder to tender on the beneficial owner's behalf.

Table of Contents

Signatures on a letter of transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, must be guaranteed by an eligible institution (as defined below) unless the old notes tendered:

are signed by the registered holder, unless the holder has completed the box entitled special exchange instructions or special delivery instructions on the letter of transmittal; or are tendered for the account of an eligible institution.

In the event that signatures on a letter of transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, are required to be guaranteed, the guarantee must be by a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States, or an eligible guarantor institution within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Exchange Act (an eligible institution).

If a letter of transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered holder of any old notes listed on the letter of transmittal, the old notes must be endorsed or accompanied by a properly completed bond power, signed by the registered holder as the registered holder's name appears on the old notes, with the signature guaranteed by an eligible institution.

If a letter of transmittal or any old notes or bond powers are signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, the persons should so indicate when signing. Unless waived by us, evidence satisfactory to us of their authority to so act must be submitted with the letter of transmittal.

All questions as to the validity, form, eligibility, including time or receipt, acceptance of tendered old notes and withdrawal of tendered old notes will be determined by us in our reasonable discretion. This determination will be final and binding. We reserve the absolute right to reject any and all old notes that are not properly tendered or any old notes our acceptance of which would, in the opinion of our counsel, be unlawful. We also reserve the right to waive any defects, irregularities or conditions of tender as to particular old notes. Our interpretation of the terms and conditions of the exchange offer, including the instructions in the letter of transmittal, will be final and binding on all parties. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with tenders of old notes must be cured within the time period we determine. Although we intend to notify holders of defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of old notes, neither we, the exchange agent nor any other person will incur any liability for failure to give this notification. Tendere of old notes will not be deemed to have been made until defects or irregularities have been cured or waived. Any old notes received by the exchange agent that are not properly tendered and as to which the defects or irregularities have not been cured or waived will be returned by the exchange agent to the tendering holders, unless otherwise provided in the letter of transmittal, promptly following the expiration date.

Book-Entry Delivery Procedures

Promptly after the date of this prospectus, the exchange agent for the old notes will establish accounts with respect to the old notes at DTC, (the book-entry transfer facility) for purposes of the exchange offer. Any financial institution that is a participant in the book-entry transfer facility's systems may make book-entry delivery of the old notes by causing the book-entry transfer facility to transfer old notes into the exchange agent's account at the book-entry transfer facility in accordance with the book-entry transfer facility's procedures for transfers. Timely book-entry delivery of old notes pursuant to the exchange offer, however, requires receipt of a book-entry confirmation prior to the expiration date. In addition, to receive new notes for tendered old notes, the letter of transmittal, or a mutually signed facsimile, together with any required signature guarantees and any other required documents, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, must, in any case, be delivered or transmitted to and received by the exchange agent at its address set forth under Exchange Agent below prior to the expiration date. Alternatively, the guaranteed delivery procedures described below must be complied with. Tender will not be considered made until the documents are received by the exchange agent. Delivery of documents to the book-entry transfer facility does not constitute delivery to the exchange agent.

Table of Contents

Tender of Existing Notes Held Through Book-Entry Transfer Facility

The exchange agent and the book-entry transfer facility have confirmed that the exchange offer is eligible for the book-entry transfer facility's Automated Tender Offer Program, or ATOP. Accordingly, participants in the book-entry transfer facility's ATOP may, in lieu of physically completing and signing the letter of transmittal and delivering it to the exchange agent, electronically transmit their acceptance of the exchange offer by causing the book-entry transfer facility to transfer old notes to the exchange agent in accordance with the book-entry transfer facility's ATOP procedures for transfer. The book-entry transfer facility will then send an agent's message to the exchange agent.

The term "agent's message" means a message transmitted by a book-entry transfer facility, received by the exchange agent and forming part of the book-entry confirmation, which states that:

the book-entry transfer facility has received an expressed acknowledgment from a participant in its ATOP that is tendering old notes which are the subject of the book-entry confirmation;

the participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the letter of transmittal or, in the case of an agent's message relating to guaranteed delivery, the participant has received and agrees to be bound by the notice of guaranteed delivery; and we may enforce the agreement against the participant.

Guaranteed Delivery Procedure

Holders who wish to tender their old notes and (1) whose old notes are not immediately available, (2) who cannot deliver their old notes, the letter of transmittal or any other required documents to the exchange agent or (3) who cannot complete the procedures for book-entry transfer, prior to the expiration date, may effect a tender if:

the tender is made through an eligible institution;

prior to the expiration date, the agent receives from the eligible institution a properly completed and duly executed notice of guaranteed delivery, by facsimile transmission, mail or hand delivery, setting forth the name and address of the holder, the certificate number(s) of the old notes and the principal amount of old notes tendered and guaranteeing that, within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution, the letter of transmittal or facsimile together with the certificate(s) representing the old notes or a book-entry confirmation of the old notes into the exchange agent's account at the book-entry transfer facility and any other documents required by the letter of transmittal, will be deposited by the eligible institution with the exchange agent; and a properly completed and executed letter of transmittal for facsimile, as well as the certificate(s) representing all tendered old notes in proper form for transfer or a book-entry confirmation transfer of the old notes into the exchange agent's account at the book-entry transfer facility and all other documents required by the letter of transmittal, are received by the exchange agent within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution.

Upon request to the exchange agent, a notice of guaranteed delivery will be sent to holders who wish to tender their old notes according to the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth above.

Withdrawals of Tenders

Except as otherwise provided in this prospectus, tenders of old notes may be withdrawn at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date.

Table of Contents

To withdraw a tender of old notes in the exchange offer, a written or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal must be received by the exchange agent at the address set forth below prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date. Any notice of withdrawal must:

specify the name of the person having deposited the old notes to be withdrawn (the depositor);

identify the old notes to be withdrawn, including the certificates number(s) and principal amount of the old notes, or, in the case of old notes transferred by book-entry transfer, the name and number of the account at the book-entry transfer facility to be credited;

be signed by the holder in the same manner as the original signature on the letter of transmittal by which the old notes were tendered, including any required signature guarantees, or be accompanied by documents of transfer sufficient to have the trustee or other registrar register transfer of the old notes into the name of the person withdrawing the tender; and specify the name in which any of the old notes are to be registered, if different from that of the depositor.

All questions as to the validity, form and eligibility, including time or receipt, of the notices will be determined by us. Our determination will be final and binding on all parties. Any old notes so withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for purposes of the exchange offer and no new notes will be issued in exchange unless the old notes so withdrawn are validly retendered. Any old notes which have been tendered but which are not accepted for exchange will be returned to their holder without cost to the holder promptly after withdrawal, rejection of tender or termination of the exchange offer. Properly withdrawn old notes may be retendered by following one of the procedures described above under Procedures for Tendering Old Notes at any time prior to the expiration date.

Conditions to the Exchange Offer

Notwithstanding any other terms of the exchange offer, we will not be required to accept for exchange, or exchange new notes for, any old notes, and may terminate the exchange offer before the expiration date if, in our reasonable judgment, the exchange offer would violate any law, statute, rule or regulation or an interpretation thereof of the Staff of the Commission. If we determine in our reasonable discretion that this condition is not satisfied prior to the expiration date, we may:

refuse to accept any old notes and return all tendered old notes to the tendering holders; extend the exchange offer and retain all old notes tendered prior to the expiration date, subject, however, to the rights of holders to withdraw the old notes (see Withdrawals of Tenders); or waive the unsatisfied condition with respect to the exchange offer and accept all validly tendered old notes which have not been withdrawn. If the waiver constitutes a material change to the exchange offer, we will promptly disclose the waiver by means of a prospectus supplement that will be distributed to the registered holders, and we will extend the exchange offer for a period of five to ten business days, depending upon the significance of the waiver and the manner of disclosure to the registered holders, if the exchange offer would otherwise expire during that five to ten business-day period.

Fees and Expenses

We will not make any payment to brokers, dealers or others for soliciting acceptances of the exchange offer.

Transfer Taxes

Holders who tender their old notes for exchange generally will not be obligated to pay any transfer tax in connection with the exchange. However, holders who instruct us to register new notes in the name of a person other than the registered tendering holders, or request that old notes not properly tendered, withdrawn or not accepted in the exchange offer be returned to a person other than the registered tendering holder, will be responsible for the payment of any applicable transfer tax.

Accounting Treatment

The new notes will be recorded at the same carrying value as the old notes. This is the aggregate principal amount of the old notes, as reflected in our accounting records on the date of exchange. Accordingly, no gain or loss for accounting purposes will be recognized by us in connection with the exchange offer. The expenses of the exchange offer will be amortized over the term of the notes.

Appraisal Rights

Holders of old notes will not have dissenters' rights or appraisal rights in connection with the exchange offer.

Resale of New Notes

The new notes are being offered to satisfy our obligations contained in the Registration Rights Agreement. We are making the exchange offer in reliance on the position of the Staff of the Commission as set forth in the Exxon Capital No-Action Letter, the Morgan Stanley No-Action Letter, the Shearman & Sterling No-Action Letter, and other interpretive letters addressed to third parties in other transactions. However, we have not sought our own interpretive letter addressing these matters and there can be no assurance that the Staff of the Commission would make a similar determination with respect to the exchange offer as it has in those interpretive letters to third parties. Based on these interpretations by the Staff of the Commission, and subject to the two immediately following sentences, we believe that new notes issued pursuant to this exchange offer in exchange for old notes may be offered for resale, resold and otherwise transferred by holders, other than a holder who is a broker-dealer, without further compliance with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act, provided that:

the new notes are acquired in the ordinary course of the holder's business; and the holder is not participating, and has no arrangement or understanding with any person to participate, in a distribution within the meaning of the Securities Act of the new notes.

However, any holder who:

is an affiliate of ours, within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act;

does not acquire new notes in the ordinary course of its business; intends to participate in the exchange offer for the purpose of distributing new notes; or is a broker-dealer who purchased old notes directly from us, will not be able to rely on the interpretations of the Staff of the Commission set forth in the above-mentioned interpretive letters; will not be permitted or entitled to tender old notes in the exchange offer; and must comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any sale or other transfer of old notes unless the sale is made pursuant to an exemption from those requirements.

In addition, as described below, if any broker-dealer holds old notes acquired for its own account as a result of market-making or other trading activities and exchanges the old notes for new notes (a participating broker-dealer), the participating broker-dealer may be deemed to be a statutory underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act and must deliver a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any resales of new notes. See Plan of Distribution.

Each holder who wishes to exchange old notes for new notes in the exchange offer will be required to represent that:

it is not an affiliate of ours;

any new notes to be received by it are being acquired in the ordinary course of its business; and it has no arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in a distribution, within the meaning of the Securities Act, of new notes.

Each broker-dealer that receives new notes for its own account pursuant to the exchange offer must:

acknowledge that it acquired the old notes for its own account as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities, and not directly from us; and agree that it will deliver a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any resale of new notes.

The letter of transmittal states that by so acknowledging and by delivering a prospectus, a participating broker-dealer will not be deemed to admit that it is an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act. Based on the position taken by the Staff of the Commission in the interpretive letters referred to above, we believe that participating broker-dealers may fulfill their prospectus delivery requirements with respect to the new notes received upon exchange of old notes with a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act, which may be the prospectus prepared for an exchange offer so long as it contains a description of the plan of distribution with respect to the resale of new notes. Accordingly, this prospectus, as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time, may be used by a participating broker-dealer during the period referred to below in connection with the resales of new notes received in exchange for old notes where the old notes were acquired by the participating broker-dealer for its own account as a result of market-making or other trading activities.

Table of Contents

Subject to provisions set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement, we shall use our best efforts to:

keep the Exchange Offer Registration Statement continuously effective, supplemented and amended to the extent necessary to ensure that it is available for resales of new notes acquired by broker-dealers for their own accounts as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities; and ensure that the Exchange Offer Registration Statement conforms with the requirements of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Securities Act and the policies, rules and regulations of the Commission as announced from time to time, for a period of 180 days from the date on which the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is declared effective.

Any participating broker-dealer who is an affiliate of ours may not rely on the interpretive letters and must comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any resale transaction.

Each participating broker-dealer who surrenders old notes pursuant to the exchange offer will be deemed to have agreed, by execution of a letter of transmittal, that, upon receipt of notice from us of the occurrence of any event or the discovery of any fact which makes any statement contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus untrue in any material respect or which causes this prospectus to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained or incorporated by reference herein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading or of the occurrence of other events specified in the Registration Rights Agreement, the participating broker-dealer will suspend the sale of new notes pursuant to this prospectus until we have amended or supplemented this prospectus to correct the misstatement or omission and have furnished copies of the amended or supplemented prospectus to the participating broker-dealer or we have given notice that the sale of the new notes may be resumed, as the case may be.

Consequences of Failure to Exchange Old Notes

Any old notes tendered and exchanged in the exchange offer will reduce the aggregate principal amount of old notes outstanding. Following the consummation of the exchange offer, holders who did not tender their old notes generally will not have any further registration rights under the Registration Rights Agreement, and these old notes will continue to be subject to restrictions on transfer. Accordingly, the liquidity of the market for the old notes could be adversely affected. The old notes are currently eligible for sale under Rule 144A through the PORTAL Market. Because we anticipate that most holders will elect to exchange their old notes for new notes due to the absence of most restrictions on the resale of new notes, we anticipate that the liquidity of the market for any old notes remaining outstanding after the exchange offer may be substantially limited.

As a result of the making of the exchange offer, we will have fulfilled our obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement, and holders who do not tender their old notes generally will not have any further registration rights or rights to receive liquidated damages specified in the Registration Rights Agreement for our failure to register the new notes.

The old notes that are not exchanged for new notes will remain restricted securities. Accordingly, the old notes may be resold only:

to us or one of our subsidiaries;

to a qualified institutional buyer;

to an institutional accredited investor;

to a party outside the United States under Regulation S under the Securities Act;

under an exemption from registration provided by Rule 144 under the Securities Act; or under an effective registration statement.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

General

You can find the definitions of certain terms used in this description under the subheading Certain Definitions. In this description, the words Company, we and our refer only to Technical Olympic USA, Inc. and not to any of its subsidiaries.

The old notes were, and the new notes will be, issued under the Indenture, dated as of April 12, 2006 (the Indenture), among us, the Subsidiary Guarantors thereto and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee (the Trustee). The term Notes refers to the old notes and the new notes. The statements under this caption relating to the Notes and the Indenture are summaries and are not complete. In addition, they are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to, all the provisions of the Indenture, including the definitions of various terms in the Indenture. The Indenture is by its terms subject to and governed by the Trust Indenture Act of 1939. Where reference is made to particular provisions of the Indenture or to defined terms not defined in this prospectus, the provisions or defined terms are incorporated by reference into this prospectus. Copies of the Indenture are available for review at the corporate offices of the Trustee and may also be obtained from us upon request at the address indicated under Where You Can Find More Information; Incorporation by Reference.

Principal, Maturity and Interest

The Company issued $250.0 million aggregate principal amount of old notes on April 12, 2006, and subject to compliance with the limitations described under Certain Covenants Limitation on Debt, the Company can issue an unlimited principal amount of additional notes at later dates under the Indenture. The Company can issue the additional notes as part of the same series or as an additional series. Any additional notes that the Company issues in the future will be identical in all respects to the Notes, except that additional notes issued in the future will have different issuance prices and issuance dates.

The Company will issue the new notes only in fully registered form without coupons, in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1,000.

The Notes will mature on April 1, 2011.

Interest on the Notes will accrue at a rate of 8¹/₄ % per annum and will be payable semi-annually in arrears on April 1 and October 1, commencing October 1, 2006. We will pay interest to those persons who were holders of record on the March 15 or September 15 immediately preceding each interest payment date.

Interest on the Notes will accrue from April 12, 2006 or, if interest has already been paid, from the date it was most recently paid. Interest will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months.

The interest rate on the Notes will increase if:

- (a) we do not file on a timely basis either:
 - (1) a registration statement to allow for an exchange offer, or
 - (2) a resale shelf registration statement for the Notes;
- (b) the registration statement referred to above is not declared effective on a timely basis;
- (c) we do not complete the exchange offer on a timely basis; or
- (d) certain other conditions are not satisfied.

Any interest payable as a result of any such increase in the interest rate is referred to as Special Interest. You should refer to the description under the heading Exchange Offer; Registration Rights for a more detailed description of the circumstances under which the interest rate will increase.

Ranking

The Notes are:

senior, unsecured obligations of the Company;

equal in ranking (pari passu) with all existing and future senior debt of the Company;

senior in right of payment to all existing and future Subordinated Debt of the Company; effectively subordinated in right of payment to all of our senior secured debt, if any, to the extent of the value of the collateral securing that debt; and guaranteed on a senior, unsecured basis by the Subsidiary Guarantors.

As of December 31, 2005, as adjusted for the offering of the old notes and the application of the net proceeds therefrom, the Company would have had $550.0 million of senior debt and $510.0 million of senior subordinated debt, and the Subsidiary Guarantors would have had $550.0 million of senior debt guarantees and $510.0 million of senior subordinated debt guarantees.

Substantially all the operations of the Company are conducted through its Subsidiaries. Therefore, the Company's ability to service its debt, including the Notes, is dependent upon the cash flow of its Subsidiaries and, to the extent they are not Subsidiary Guarantors, their ability to distribute those earnings as dividends, loans or other payments to the Company. If their ability to make these distributions were restricted, by law or otherwise, then the Company would not be able to use the cash flow of the nonguarantor Subsidiaries to make payments on the Notes. Furthermore, under certain circumstances, bankruptcy, fraudulent conveyance laws or other similar laws could invalidate the Senior Subsidiary Guaranties. If this were to occur, the Company would also be unable to use the cash flows of these Subsidiary Guarantors to the extent they face restrictions on distributing funds to the Company. Any of the situations described above could make it more difficult for the Company to service its debt.

The Company only has a stockholder's claim on the assets of its Subsidiaries. This stockholder's claim is junior to the claims that creditors of the Company's Subsidiaries have against those Subsidiaries. Holders of the Notes will only be creditors of the Company and those Subsidiaries of the Company that are Subsidiary Guarantors. In the case of Subsidiaries of the Company that are not Subsidiary Guarantors, all the existing and future liabilities of such Subsidiaries, including any claims of trade creditors and preferred stockholders, will be effectively senior to the Notes. The Subsidiary Guarantors and the Company's other Subsidiaries also have other liabilities, including contingent liabilities, that may be significant. The Indenture contains limitations on the amount of additional Debt that the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries may incur. However, the amounts of such Debt could nevertheless be substantial and may be incurred either by the Company, the Subsidiary Guarantors or by the Company's other Subsidiaries.

The Notes and the Senior Subsidiary Guaranties are unsecured obligations of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors, respectively. Secured Debt of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors effectively will be senior to the Notes and the Senior Subsidiary Guaranties to the extent of the value of the assets securing such Debt.

See Risk Factors Your right to receive payments on the notes and the guarantees is unsecured and will be effectively subordinated to our secured debt, if any, which could result in situations where there are not sufficient funds available to pay the notes, Our holding company structure could limit our ability to access the cash flow of our non-guarantor subsidiaries and the ability of the holders of the notes to access the assets of those subsidiaries will be effectively subordinated to those subsidiaries' other obligations, thereby resulting in less cash flow and assets to support the notes and Your ability to enforce the guarantees of the notes may be limited because the guarantees may potentially raise fraudulent transfer issues.

Subsidiary Guaranties

The obligations of the Company under the Indenture, including the repurchase obligation resulting from a Change of Control or in the event the Company's Consolidated Net Worth is less than a specified amount for a specified period of time, are fully and unconditionally guaranteed, jointly and severally, on a senior, unsecured basis, by the material existing and all future Domestic Restricted Subsidiaries of the Company. As of the closing of the offering, all Subsidiaries of the Company will be Subsidiary Guarantors, except Alliance Insurance and Information Services, LLC, Engle Homes Reinsurance Limited, Preferred Home Mortgage Company, Prestige Abstract & Title, LLC, Professional Advantage Title, Ltd., The Century Title Agency, Ltd., Universal Land Title of Colorado, Inc., Universal Land Title, Inc., Universal Land Title Investment #1, LLC, Universal Land Title Investment #2, LLC, Universal Land Title Investment #3, LLC, Universal Land Title Investment #4, LLC, Universal Land Title of Nashville, LLC, Universal Land Title of North Texas, LLC, Universal Land Title of South Florida, Ltd., Universal Land Title of Texas, Inc., Universal Land Title of The Palm Beaches, Ltd., Universal Land Title of Virginia, L.L.C., WPines Developers, L.L.C. and Woodland Pines, L.P. See Certain Covenants Future Subsidiary Guarantors.

As of December 31, 2005, the Company's consolidated Subsidiaries that are not Subsidiary Guarantors had assets of $64.8 million. As of December 31, 2005, the Company's aggregate investment in unconsolidated Subsidiaries that are not Subsidiary Guarantors, including receivables from such unconsolidated Subsidiaries, was $315.0 million.

The Subsidiary Guarantors currently generate substantially all the Company's revenue.

(a) If the Company sells or otherwise disposes of either:

(1) its entire ownership interest in a Subsidiary Guarantor; or

(2) all or substantially all the Property of a Subsidiary Guarantor, or

(b) a Subsidiary Guarantor sells or otherwise disposes of either:

(1) its entire ownership interest in another Subsidiary Guarantor; or

(2) all or substantially all the Property of another Subsidiary Guarantor, then in any such case, such Subsidiary Guarantor being sold or whose Property is being sold will be released from all its obligations under its Senior Subsidiary Guaranty, subject to compliance with the covenant described under Merger, Consolidation and Sale of Property. In addition, if the Company designates a Subsidiary Guarantor as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, which the Company can do under certain circumstances, the designated Subsidiary Guarantor will be released from all its obligations under its Senior Subsidiary Guaranty. See Certain Covenants Designation of Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries and Merger, Consolidation and Sale of Property.

If any Subsidiary Guarantor makes payments under its Senior Subsidiary Guaranty, each of the Company and the other Subsidiary Guarantors must contribute their share of such payments. The Company's and the other Subsidiary Guarantors' shares of such payment will be computed based on the proportion that the net worth of the Company or the relevant Subsidiary Guarantor represents relative to the aggregate net worth of the Company and all the Subsidiary Guarantors combined.

Optional Redemption

Except as set forth below, the Notes will not be redeemable at the option of the Company prior to their maturity.

Table of Contents

At any time the Company may redeem all or any portion of the Notes, at once or over time, after giving the required notice under the Indenture at a redemption price equal to the greater of:

(a) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed; and

(b) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest, but excluding accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date, discounted to the redemption date at the Treasury Rate plus 50 basis points, plus, in either case, accrued and unpaid interest, including Special Interest, if any, to the redemption date (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date).

Any notice to holders of Notes of such a redemption shall include the appropriate calculation of the redemption price, but need not include the redemption price itself. The actual redemption price, calculated as described above, shall be set forth in an Officers Certificate delivered to the Trustee no later than two business days prior to the redemption date (unless clause (b) of the definition of Comparable Treasury Price is applicable, in which case, such Officers Certificate will be delivered on the redemption date).

At any time and from time to time, prior to April 1, 2009, the Company may redeem up to a maximum of 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes that have been issued under the Indenture on or after the Issue Date with the proceeds of one or more Equity Offerings, at a redemption price equal to 108.25% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, including Special Interest, if any, to the redemption date (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date); provided, however, that after giving effect to any such redemption, at least 65% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes that have been issued under the Indenture on or after the Issue Date remains outstanding. Any such redemption shall be made within 75 days of such Equity Offering upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior notice.

Sinking Fund

There are no mandatory sinking fund payments for the Notes.

Repurchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, the Company shall make an offer to all holders of the Notes to repurchase all or any part of a holder's Notes pursuant to the terms described below at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, including Special Interest, if any, to the repurchase date (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date).

Within 30 days following any Change of Control, the Company shall:

(a) cause a notice of the Change of Control offer to be sent at least once to the Dow Jones News Service or a similar business news service in the United States; and

(b) send, by first-class mail, with a copy to the Trustee, to each holder of Notes, at such holder's address appearing in the security register for the Notes, a notice stating:

(1) that a Change of Control has occurred and an offer is being made pursuant to the covenant entitled Repurchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Change of Control and that all Notes timely tendered will be accepted for payment;

(2) the purchase price and the repurchase date, which shall be, subject to any contrary requirements of applicable law, a business day no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is mailed;

Table of Contents

(3) the circumstances and relevant facts regarding the Change of Control (including information with respect to pro forma historical income, cash flow and capitalization after giving effect to the Change of Control); and

(4) the procedures that holders of Notes must follow in order to tender their Notes (or portions thereof) for payment, and the procedures that holders of Notes must follow in order to withdraw an election to tender Notes (or portions thereof) for payment.

The Company will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to a Change of Control offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this covenant, the Company will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this covenant by virtue of such compliance.

The Change of Control repurchase feature is a result of negotiations between the Company and the Initial Purchaser of the old notes. Management has no present intention to engage in a transaction involving a Change of Control, although it is possible that the Company would decide to do so in the future. Subject to certain covenants described below, the Company could, in the future, enter into certain transactions, including acquisitions, refinancings or other recapitalizations, that would not constitute a Change of Control under the Indenture, but that could increase the amount of Debt outstanding at such time or otherwise affect the Company's capital structure or credit ratings.

The definition of Change of Control includes a phrase relating to the sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries, considered as a whole. Although there is a developing body of case law interpreting the phrase substantially all, there is no precise established definition of the phrase under applicable law. Accordingly, if the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries considered as a whole dispose of less than all their assets by any of the means described above, the ability of a holder of Notes to require the Company to repurchase its Notes may be uncertain. In such a case, holders of the Notes may not be able to resolve this uncertainty without resorting to legal action.

The Senior Credit Facility provides that the occurrence of a Change of Control would constitute a default under that facility. Our existing indentures require the Company to make an offer to repurchase all notes issued thereunder upon a Change of Control. Debt Incurred by the Company in the future may contain prohibitions of certain events which would constitute a Change of Control or require such debt to be repurchased upon a Change of Control. Moreover, the exercise by holders of Notes of their right to require the Company to repurchase such Notes could cause a default under existing or future debt of the Company, even if the Change of Control itself does not, due to the financial effect of such repurchase on the Company. Finally, the Company's ability to pay cash to holders of Notes upon a repurchase may be limited by the Company's then existing financial resources. There can be no assurance that sufficient funds will be available when necessary to make any required repurchases. The Company's failure to repurchase Notes in connection with a Change of Control would result in a default under the Indenture. Such a default would, in turn, constitute a default under existing debt of the Company, and may constitute a default under future debt as well. The Company's obligation to make an offer to repurchase the Notes as a result of a Change of Control may be waived or modified at any time prior to the occurrence of such Change of Control with the written consent of the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding under the Indenture. See Amendments and Waivers.

Certain Covenants

Maintenance of Consolidated Net Worth. In the event (the Notes Net Worth Trigger Event) the Consolidated Net Worth at the end of each of any two consecutive fiscal quarters ending after the Issue Date (the last day of such second fiscal quarter being referred to as the Notes Net Worth Trigger Date) is less than $150.0 million (the Notes Minimum Net Worth), the Company shall make an offer to all holders of the Notes (a Notes Net Worth Offer) to repurchase Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the Notes Net Worth Offer Amount (as defined below) on a pro rata basis from such holders, on a business day (the Notes Net Worth Repurchase Date) that is no earlier than 30 days or later than 60 days following the date the Notes Net Worth Notice (as defined below) is mailed and at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, including Special Interest, if any, to the Notes Net Worth Repurchase Date (the Notes Net Worth Offer Price) (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date).

The Notes Net Worth Offer Amount shall equal 10% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (or if less than 10% of the original aggregate principal amount of such Notes (including any additional Notes) issued are then outstanding, the amount of all the Notes outstanding at the time) (the Notes Net Worth Offer Amount).

The Company may credit against the Notes Net Worth Offer Amount the principal amount of Notes acquired by the Company prior to the Notes Net Worth Trigger Date through purchase, optional redemption or exchange; provided, however, no credit shall be made for any mandatory repurchase, including, without limitation, repurchases pursuant to a Change of Control offer or an offer in connection with an Asset Sale. Notwithstanding anything in the preceding two paragraphs to the contrary, in no event shall the Company's failure to maintain a minimum Consolidated Net Worth result in requiring it to make more than one Notes Net Worth Offer. The Company shall notify the Trustee promptly after the occurrence of the Notes Net Worth Trigger Event and shall notify the Trustee in writing if its Consolidated Net Worth is less than the Notes Minimum Net Worth for any fiscal quarter ending after the Issue Date and prior to the Notes Net Worth Repurchase Date.

Within 30 days following the Notes Net Worth Trigger Date, the Company shall:

(a) cause a notice of the Notes Net Worth Offer to be sent at least once to the Dow Jones News Service or a similar business news service in the United States; and

(b) send, by first-class mail, with a copy to the Trustee, to each holder of Notes, at such holder's address appearing in the security register for the Notes, a notice stating:

(1) that a Notes Net Worth Trigger Event has occurred and a Notes Net Worth Offer is being made and that all Notes timely tendered will be accepted for payment on a pro rata basis or otherwise in accordance with DTC's applicable procedures;

(2) the Notes Net Worth Offer Price, the Notes Net Worth Offer Amount and the Notes Net Worth Repurchase Date;

(3) the date by which the Notes Net Worth Offer must be accepted; and

(4) the procedures that holders of Notes must follow in order to tender their Notes (or portions thereof) for payment, and the procedures that holders of Notes must follow in order to withdraw an election to tender Notes (or portions thereof) for payment.

The Company will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to the Notes Net Worth Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this covenant, the Company will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this covenant by virtue of such compliance.

The exercise by holders of Notes of their right to require the Company to repurchase such Notes could cause a default under existing or future debt of the Company due to the financial effect of such repurchase on the Company. In addition, the Company's ability to pay cash to holders of Notes upon a repurchase may be limited by the Company's then existing financial resources. There can be no assurance that sufficient funds will be available when necessary to make any required repurchases. The Company's failure to repurchase Notes following a Notes Net Worth Trigger Event would result in a default under the Indenture. Such a default would, in turn, constitute a default under existing debt of the Company and may constitute a default under future debt as well. The Company's obligation to make an offer to repurchase the Notes as a result of a Notes Net Worth Trigger Event may be waived or modified at any time prior to the occurrence of such Notes Net Worth Trigger Event with the written consent of the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding under the Indenture. See Amendments and Waivers.

Limitation on Debt. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, incur, directly or indirectly, any Debt (including any Acquired Debt) unless, after giving effect to the application of the proceeds thereof, no Default or Event of Default would occur as a consequence of such Incurrence or be continuing following such Incurrence and either:

(1) such Debt is Debt of the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor and, after giving effect to the Incurrence of such Debt and the application of the proceeds thereof, either (a) the Consolidated Interest Coverage Ratio would be greater than 2.0 to 1 or (b) the Consolidated Debt to Consolidated Tangible Net Worth Ratio would not be greater than 3.0 to 1; or

(2) such Debt is Permitted Debt.

The term Permitted Debt is defined to include the following:

(a)(i) Debt of the Company evidenced by the Initial Notes and the Exchange Notes issued in exchange for such Initial Notes and in exchange for any Additional Notes; (ii) Debt of the Subsidiary Guarantors evidenced by the Senior Subsidiary Guaranties relating to the Initial Notes and the Exchange Notes issued in exchange for such Initial Notes and in exchange for any Additional Notes; (iii) Debt of the Company evidenced by the Outstanding Senior Notes; (iv) Debt of Subsidiary Guarantors evidenced by the Guaranties relating to the Outstanding Senior Notes; (v) Debt of the Company evidenced by the Outstanding Senior Subordinated Notes; and (vi) Debt of the Subsidiary Guarantors evidenced by the Guaranties relating to the Outstanding Senior Subordinated Notes;

(b) Debt of the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor under Credit Facilities, provided that the aggregate principal amount of all such Debt under Credit Facilities at any one time outstanding shall not exceed the greater of:

(1) $800.0 million, which amount shall be permanently reduced by the amount of Net Available Cash used to Repay Debt under Credit Facilities and not subsequently reinvested in Additional Assets or used to Repay other Debt, pursuant to the covenant described under Limitation on Asset Sales; and

(2) 25% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets;

(c) Debt of the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor in respect of Capital Lease Obligations and Purchase Money Debt, provided that:

(1) the aggregate principal amount of such Debt does not exceed the Fair Market Value (on the date of the Incurrence thereof) of the Property acquired, constructed or leased; and

(2) the aggregate principal amount of all Debt Incurred and then outstanding pursuant to this clause (c) (together with all Permitted Refinancing Debt Incurred and then outstanding in respect of Debt previously Incurred pursuant to this clause (c)) does not exceed $10.0 million;

(d) Debt of the Company owing to and held by any Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary and Debt of a Restricted Subsidiary owing to and held by the Company or any Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary; provided, however, that any subsequent issue or transfer of Capital Stock or other event that results in any such Wholly Owned Restricted Subsidiary ceasing to be a Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary or any subsequent transfer of any such Debt (except to the Company or a Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary) shall be deemed, in each case, to constitute the Incurrence of such Debt by the issuer thereof;

Table of Contents

(e) Debt of a Restricted Subsidiary outstanding on the date on which such Subsidiary is acquired by the Company or otherwise becomes a Restricted Subsidiary (other than Debt Incurred as consideration in, or to provide all or any portion of the funds or credit support utilized to consummate, the transaction or series of transactions pursuant to which such Restricted Subsidiary became a Subsidiary of the Company or was otherwise acquired by the Company), provided that at the time such Restricted Subsidiary is acquired by the Company or otherwise becomes a Restricted Subsidiary and after giving effect to the Incurrence of such Debt, the Company would have been able to Incur $1.00 of additional Debt pursuant to clause (1) of the first paragraph of this covenant; and provided, further, such Restricted Subsidiary executes and delivers a supplemental indenture providing for a Subsidiary Guaranty in accordance with Future Subsidiary Guarantors to the extent so required by that covenant;

(f) Debt under Interest Rate Agreements entered into by the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor for the purpose of limiting interest rate risk in the ordinary course of the financial management of the Company or such Subsidiary Guarantor and not for speculative purposes, provided that the obligations under such agreements are directly related to payment obligations on Debt otherwise permitted by the terms of this covenant;

(g) Debt Incurred by the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor under a Warehouse Facility provided that the amount of such Debt (including funding drafts issued thereunder) outstanding at any time pursuant to this clause (g) does not exceed the value of the Mortgages pledged to secure Debt thereunder;

(h) Debt in connection with one or more standby letters of credit or payment or performance bonds issued by the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor in the ordinary course of business or pursuant to self-insurance obligations and not in connection with the borrowing of money or the obtaining of advances or credit;

(i) Debt of a Foreign Restricted Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any one time not to exceed $15.0 million;

(j) Debt of a Domestic Restricted Subsidiary (other than a Subsidiary Guarantor) in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any one time not to exceed $10.0 million;

(k) Non-Recourse Debt of the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary;

(l) Debt outstanding on the Issue Date not otherwise described in clauses (a) through (k) above;

(m) Debt of the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any one time not to exceed $35.0 million; and

(n) Permitted Refinancing Debt Incurred in respect of Debt Incurred pursuant to clause (1) of the first paragraph of this covenant and clauses (a), (c), (e) and (l) above.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this covenant:

(a) the Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary Guarantor to, Incur any Debt pursuant to this covenant, other than pursuant to clause (1) of the first paragraph of this covenant and clause (m) above, if the proceeds thereof are used, directly or indirectly, to Refinance any Subordinated Debt in respect of the Notes or any Senior Subsidiary Guaranty unless such Debt shall be subordinated to the Notes or the applicable Senior Subsidiary Guaranty, as the case may be, to at least the same extent as such Subordinated Debt;

(b) the Company shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor of the Notes to Incur any Debt pursuant to this covenant if the proceeds thereof are used, directly or indirectly, to Refinance any Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor of the Notes; and

(c) accrual of interest, accretion or amortization of original issue discount and the payment of interest or dividends in the form of additional Debt, will be deemed not to be an Incurrence of Debt for purpose of this covenant.

For purposes of determining compliance with this covenant, in the event that an item of Debt meets the criteria of more than one of the categories of Permitted Debt described in clauses (a) through (n) above or is entitled to be incurred pursuant to clause (1) of the first paragraph of this covenant, the Company shall, in its sole discretion, classify such item of Debt on the date of its Incurrence, or later reclassify all or a portion of such item of Debt, in any manner that complies with this covenant, and such item of Debt will be treated as having been incurred pursuant to one or more of such clauses or pursuant to clause (1) of the first paragraph of this covenant.

(1) 45% of the aggregate amount of Consolidated Net Income accrued during the period (treated as one accounting period) from the beginning of the fiscal quarter during which the June 2002 Notes Issue Date occurs to the end of the most recent fiscal quarter ending at least 45 days prior to the date of such Restricted Payment (or if the aggregate amount of Consolidated Net Income for such period shall be a deficit, minus 100% of such deficit), plus

(2) 100% of the Capital Stock Sale Proceeds, plus

(3) the aggregate net cash proceeds received by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary from the issuance or sale after the June 2002 Notes Issue Date of convertible or exchangeable Debt that has been converted into or exchanged for Capital Stock (other than Disqualified Stock) of the Company excluding,

(y) the aggregate amount of any cash or other Property distributed by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary upon any such conversion or exchange, plus

(4) an amount equal to the sum of:

(A) the net reduction in Investments in any Person other than the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary resulting from dividends, repayments of loans or advances or other transfers of Property, in each case to the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary from such Person since the June 2002 Notes Issue Date; and

(B) the portion (proportionate to the Company's equity interest in such Unrestricted Subsidiary) of the Fair Market Value of the net assets of an Unrestricted Subsidiary at the time such Unrestricted Subsidiary is designated a Restricted Subsidiary;

provided, however, that the preceding sum shall not exceed, in the case of any Person, the amount of Investments previously made (and treated as a Restricted Payment) by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary in such Person, plus

(5) $15.0 million.

Notwithstanding the preceding limitation, the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary may:

(a) pay dividends on its Capital Stock within 60 days of the declaration thereof if, on the declaration date, such dividends could have been paid in compliance with the Indenture; provided, however, such dividends shall be included in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments;

(b) purchase, repurchase, redeem, legally defease, acquire or retire for value its Capital Stock or Subordinated Debt in exchange for, or out of the proceeds of the substantially concurrent sale of, Capital Stock of the Company (other than Disqualified Stock, and other than Capital Stock issued or sold to a Subsidiary of the Company or an employee stock ownership plan or trust established by the Company or any such Subsidiary for the benefit of their employees); provided, however, that

(g) purchase fractional shares of the Capital Stock of the Company arising out of stock dividends, splits or combinations or business combinations.

Any Restricted Payment described in the preceding clauses (c) through (g) made since the June 2002 Notes Issue Date shall be excluded in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments.

Limitation on Liens. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary Guarantor to, directly or indirectly, Incur or suffer to exist, any Lien (other than Permitted Liens) upon any of its Property (including Capital Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary), whether owned at the Issue Date or thereafter acquired, or any interest therein or any income or profits therefrom securing any Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor, unless it has made or will make effective provision whereby the Notes or the applicable Senior Subsidiary Guaranty will be secured by such Lien equally and ratably with (or, if such other Debt constitutes Subordinated Debt, prior to) all other Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor secured by such Lien.

Limitation on Asset Sales. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, consummate any Asset Sale unless:

(a) the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary receives consideration at the time of such Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value of the Property subject to such Asset Sale;

Table of Contents

(b) at least 75% of the consideration paid to the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary in connection with such Asset Sale is in the form of cash or Cash Equivalents; provided, however, that the amount of (1) any liabilities (as shown on the Company's or such Restricted Subsidiary's most recent balance sheet) of the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary (other than contingent liabilities and liabilities that are by their terms subordinated to the Notes or any Senior Subsidiary Guaranty) that are assumed by the transferee of any such Property pursuant to a customary novation agreement that releases the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary from further liability and (2) any securities, notes or other obligations received by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary from such transferee that are converted within 30 days by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary into cash (to the extent of the cash received) shall be deemed to be cash for the purposes of this provision;

(c) no Default or Event of Default would occur as a result of such Asset Sale; and

(d) the Company delivers an Officers' Certificate to the Trustee certifying that such Asset Sale complies with the preceding clauses (a), (b) and (c).

The Net Available Cash (or any portion thereof) from Asset Sales may be applied by the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary, to the extent the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary elects (or is required by the terms of any Debt):

(a) to Repay Debt (other than Subordinated Debt) of the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor (excluding, in any such case, any Debt owed to the Company or an Affiliate of the Company); or

(b) to reinvest in Additional Assets (including by means of an Investment in Additional Assets by a Restricted Subsidiary with Net Available Cash received by the Company or another Restricted Subsidiary).

Any Net Available Cash from an Asset Sale not applied in accordance with the preceding paragraph within 360 days from the date of the receipt of such Net Available Cash or that is not segregated from the general funds of the Company for investment in identified Additional Assets in respect of a project that shall have been commenced, and for which binding contractual commitments have been entered into, prior to the end of such 360-day period and that shall not have been completed or abandoned shall constitute Senior Excess Proceeds; provided, however, that the amount of any Net Available Cash that ceases to be so segregated as contemplated above and any Net Available Cash that is segregated in respect of a project that is abandoned or completed shall also constitute Senior Excess Proceeds at the time any such Net Available Cash ceases to be so segregated or at the time the relevant project is so abandoned or completed, as applicable; provided further, however, that the amount of any Net Available Cash that continues to be segregated for investment and that is not actually reinvested within 24 months from the date of the receipt of such Net Available Cash shall also constitute Senior Excess Proceeds.

When the aggregate amount of Senior Excess Proceeds exceeds $5.0 million (taking into account income earned on such Senior Excess Proceeds, if any), the Company will be required to make an offer to repurchase (the Notes Prepayment Offer) the Notes, which offer shall be in the amount of the Senior Allocable Excess Proceeds (rounded to the nearest $1,000), on a pro rata basis according to principal amount, at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, including Special Interest, if any, to the purchase date (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date), in accordance with the procedures (including prorating in the event of oversubscription) set forth in the Indenture. To the extent that any portion of the amount of Net Available Cash remains after compliance with the preceding sentence and provided that all holders of Notes have been given the opportunity to tender their Notes for purchase in accordance with the Indenture, the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary may use such remaining amount for any purpose permitted by the Indenture, including the repurchase of the Notes pursuant to a similar tender offer, and the amount of Senior Excess Proceeds will be reset to zero. The term Senior Allocable Excess Proceeds will mean the product of:

(a) the Senior Excess Proceeds and

(b) a fraction,

(1) the numerator of which is the aggregate principal amount of the Notes outstanding on the date of the Notes Prepayment Offer, and

(2) the denominator of which is the sum of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes outstanding on the date of the Notes Prepayment Offer and the aggregate principal amount of other Debt of the Company outstanding on the date of the Notes Prepayment Offer that is pari passu in right of payment with the Notes and subject to terms and conditions in respect of Asset Sales similar in all material respects to this covenant and requiring the Company to make an offer to purchase such Debt at substantially the same time as the Notes Prepayment Offer.

Within five business days after the Company is obligated to make a Notes Prepayment Offer as described in the preceding paragraph, the Company shall send a written notice, by first-class mail, to the holders of Notes, accompanied by such information regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries as the Company in good faith believes will enable such holders to make an informed decision with respect to such Notes Prepayment Offer. Such notice shall state, among other things, the purchase price and the purchase date, which shall be, subject to any contrary requirements of applicable law, a business day no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is mailed.

The Company will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Notes pursuant to this covenant. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with provisions of this covenant, the Company will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this covenant by virtue thereof.

Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from Restricted Subsidiaries. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, create or otherwise cause or suffer to exist any consensual restriction on the right of any Restricted Subsidiary to:

(a) pay dividends, in cash or otherwise, or make any other distributions on or in respect of its Capital Stock, or pay any Debt or other obligation owed, to the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary;

(b) make any loans or advances to the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary; or

(c) transfer any of its Property to the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary.

The preceding limitations will not apply:

(1) with respect to clauses (a), (b) and (c), to restrictions:

(A) in effect on the Issue Date (including, without limitation, restrictions pursuant to the Senior Credit Facility);

(B) relating to Debt of a Restricted Subsidiary and existing at the time it became a Restricted Subsidiary if such restriction was not created in connection with or in anticipation of the transaction or series of transactions pursuant to which such Restricted Subsidiary became a Restricted Subsidiary or was acquired by the Company;

(C) that result from the Refinancing of Debt Incurred pursuant to an agreement referred to in clause (1)(A) or (B) above or in clause (2)(A) or (B) below, provided such restrictions are not materially less favorable, taken as a whole, to the holders of Notes than those under the agreement evidencing the Debt so Refinanced; or

(D) contained in the Indenture; and

Table of Contents

(2) with respect to clause (c) only, to restrictions:

(A) relating to Debt that is permitted to be Incurred and secured pursuant to the covenants described under Limitation on Debt and Limitation on Liens that limit the right of the debtor to dispose of the Property securing such Debt;

(B) encumbering Property at the time such Property was acquired by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary, so long as such restriction relates solely to the Property so acquired and was not created in connection with or in anticipation of such acquisition;

(C) resulting from customary provisions restricting subletting or assignment of leases or customary provisions in other agreements that restrict assignment of such agreements or rights thereunder;

(D) customary restrictions contained in stock or asset sale agreements limiting the transfer of such Property pending the closing of such sale;

(E) customary restrictions contained in joint venture agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business and in good faith; or

(F) reasonable and customary borrowing base covenants set forth in agreements evidencing Debt otherwise permitted by the Indenture.

Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, enter into or suffer to exist any transaction or series of related transactions (including the purchase, sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or exchange of any Property or the rendering of any service) with, or for the benefit of, any Affiliate of the Company (an Affiliate Transaction), unless:

(a) the terms of such Affiliate Transaction are:

(1) set forth in writing;

(2) in the best interest of the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be; and

(3) no less favorable to the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, than those that could be obtained in a comparable arm's-length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company, or, if there is no such comparable transaction, on terms that are fair and reasonable to the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary;

(b) if such Affiliate Transaction involves aggregate payments or value in excess of $5.0 million, the Board of Directors (including a majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors) approves such Affiliate Transaction and, in its good faith judgment, believes that such Affiliate Transaction complies with clauses (a)(2) and (3) of this paragraph as evidenced by a Board Resolution promptly delivered to the Trustee; and

(c) if such Affiliate Transaction involves aggregate payments or value in excess of $25.0 million, the Company obtains a written opinion from an Independent Financial Advisor to the effect that the consideration to be paid or received in connection with such Affiliate Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries.

Notwithstanding the preceding limitation, the following shall not be Affiliate Transactions:

(a) any transaction or series of related transactions between the Company and one or more Restricted Subsidiaries or between two or more Restricted Subsidiaries, provided that no more than 5% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock (on a fully diluted basis) of any such Restricted Subsidiary is owned by an Affiliate of the Company (other than a Restricted Subsidiary);

(b) any Restricted Payment permitted to be made pursuant to the covenant described under Limitation on Restricted Payments or any Permitted Investment;

(f) agreements in effect on June 25, 2002 and disclosed in the offering memorandum for the 9% Senior Notes due 2010 issued in June 2002 (other than the Management Services Agreements), without regard to any modifications, extensions or renewals thereof; and

(g) the Management Services Agreements, provided that payments made by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries under such agreements do not exceed $5.0 million in any fiscal year.

Designation of Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries. The Board of Directors may designate any Subsidiary of the Company to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary if the Subsidiary to be so designated:

(a) does not own any Capital Stock or Debt of, or own or hold any Lien on any Property of, the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary,

(b) has no Debt other than Debt:

(1) as to which neither the Company nor any of its Restricted Subsidiaries (A) provides credit support of any kind (including any undertaking, agreement or instrument that would constitute Debt), (B) is directly or indirectly liable as a Guarantor or otherwise, or (C) constitutes the lender; provided, however, the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary may loan, advance or extend credit to, or Guarantee the Debt of, an Unrestricted Subsidiary at any time following the date such Subsidiary is designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary in accordance with the covenant described under Limitation on Restricted Payments;

(2) no default with respect to which (including any rights that the holders thereof may have to take enforcement action against an Unrestricted Subsidiary) would permit upon notice, lapse of time or both any holder of any other Debt (other than the Notes or any Guarantee permitted by the proviso to the preceding clause (1)) of the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to declare a default on such other Debt or cause the payment thereof to be accelerated or payable prior to its Stated Maturity; and

(c) is not party to any agreement, contract, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary of the Company unless the terms of any such agreement, contract, arrangement or understanding are no less favorable to the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary than those that might be obtained at the time from Persons who are not Affiliates of the Company;

(d) is a Person with respect to which neither the Company nor any of its Restricted Subsidiaries has any direct or indirect obligation (1) to subscribe for additional Capital Stock or (2) to maintain or preserve such Person's financial condition or to cause such Person to achieve any specified levels of operating results;

(e) has not Guaranteed or otherwise directly or indirectly provided credit support for any Debt of the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries; and

(f) has at least one director on its board of directors that is not a director or executive officer of the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries and has at least one executive officer that is not a director or executive officer of the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries.

Unless so designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, any Person that becomes a Subsidiary of the Company will be classified as a Restricted Subsidiary; provided, however, that such Subsidiary shall not be designated a Restricted Subsidiary and shall be automatically classified as an Unrestricted Subsidiary if either of the requirements set forth in clauses (x) and (y) of the second immediately following paragraph will not be satisfied after giving pro forma effect to such classification or if such Person is a Subsidiary of an Unrestricted Subsidiary.

Except as provided in the first sentence of the preceding paragraph, no Restricted Subsidiary may be redesignated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, and neither the Company nor any Restricted Subsidiary shall at any time be directly or indirectly liable for any Debt that provides that the holder thereof may (with the passage of time or notice or both) declare a default thereon or cause the payment thereof to be accelerated or payable prior to its Stated Maturity upon the occurrence of a default with respect to any Debt, Lien or other obligation of any Unrestricted Subsidiary (including any right to take enforcement action against such Unrestricted Subsidiary). Upon designation of a Restricted Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary in compliance with this covenant, such Restricted Subsidiary shall, by execution and delivery of a supplemental indenture in form satisfactory to the Trustee, be released from any Subsidiary Guaranty previously made by such Restricted Subsidiary.

The Board of Directors may designate any Unrestricted Subsidiary to be a Restricted Subsidiary if, immediately after giving pro forma effect to such designation,

(x) the Company could Incur at least $1.00 of additional Debt pursuant to clause (1) of the first paragraph of the covenant described under Limitation on Debt, and

(y) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing or would result therefrom.

Any such designation or redesignation by the Board of Directors will be evidenced to the Trustee by filing with the Trustee a Board Resolution giving effect to such designation or redesignation and an Officers Certificate that:

(a) certifies that such designation or redesignation complies with the preceding provisions; and

(b) gives the effective date of such designation or redesignation, such filing with the Trustee to occur within 45 days after the end of the fiscal quarter of the Company in which such designation or redesignation is made (or, in the case of a designation or redesignation made during the last fiscal quarter of the Company's fiscal year, within 90 days after the end of such fiscal year).

Future Subsidiary Guarantors. The Company shall cause each Person that becomes a Domestic Restricted Subsidiary following the Issue Date to execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture to the Indenture providing for a Senior Subsidiary Guaranty at the time such Person becomes a Domestic Restricted Subsidiary.

Limitation on Company's Business. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Restricted Subsidiary, to, directly or indirectly, engage in any business other than the Permitted Business.

(a) the Notes have Investment Grade Ratings from both Rating Agencies; and

(b) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing under the Indenture, the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries will not be subject to the following provisions of the Indenture:

Maintenance of Consolidated Net Worth;

Limitation on Debt;

Limitation on Restricted Payments;

Limitation on Asset Sales;

Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from Restricted Subsidiaries;

Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates; clause (x) of the fourth paragraph (and such clause (x) as referred to in the second paragraph) of Designation of Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries;

Limitation on Company's Business; and clauses (e) and (f) of the first and second paragraphs of Merger, Consolidation and Sale of Property (collectively, the Suspended Covenants). In the event that the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries are not subject to the Suspended Covenants for any period of time as a result of the preceding sentence and, subsequently, one or both of the Rating Agencies withdraws its ratings or downgrades the ratings assigned to the Notes below the required Investment Grade Ratings or a Default or Event of Default occurs and is continuing, then the Company and the Restricted Subsidiaries will thereafter again be subject to the Suspended Covenants, and compliance with the Suspended Covenants with respect to Restricted Payments made after the time of such withdrawal, downgrade, Default or Event of Default will be calculated in accordance with the terms of the covenant described above under Limitation on Restricted Payments as though such covenant had been in effect during the entire period of time from the Issue Date, it being understood that no actions taken by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries during the suspension period shall constitute a Default or an Event of Default under the Suspended Covenants.

Merger, Consolidation and Sale of Property

The Company shall not merge, consolidate or amalgamate with or into any other Person (other than a merger of a Wholly Owned Restricted Subsidiary into the Company or, subject to compliance with the covenant described under Limitation on Restricted Payments, a merger of a Subsidiary Guarantor into the Company) or sell, transfer, assign, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its Property in any one transaction or series of related transactions unless:

(a) the Company shall be the Surviving Person or the Surviving Person (if other than the Company) formed by such merger, consolidation or amalgamation or to which such sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or disposition is made shall be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia;

(b) the Surviving Person (if other than the Company) expressly assumes, by supplemental indenture in form satisfactory to the Trustee, executed and delivered to the Trustee by such Surviving Person, the due and punctual payment of the principal of, and premium, if any, and interest on, all the Notes, according to their tenor, and the due and punctual performance and observance of all the covenants of the Indenture to be performed by the Company;

(e) immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of related transactions on a pro forma basis, the Company or the Surviving Person, as the case may be, would be able to Incur at least $1.00 of additional Debt under clause (1) of the first paragraph of the covenant described under Limitation on Debt ;

(f) immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of related transactions on a pro forma basis, the Surviving Person shall have a Consolidated Net Worth in an amount which is not less than the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company immediately prior to such transaction or series of related transactions; and

(g) the Company shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, an Officers Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such transaction or series of related transactions and the supplemental indenture, if any, in respect thereto comply with this covenant and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction or series of related transactions have been satisfied.

The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary Guarantor to merge, consolidate or amalgamate with or into any other Person (other than a merger of a Wholly Owned Restricted Subsidiary into such Subsidiary Guarantor or the Company or subject to compliance with covenant described under Limitation on Restricted Payments, a merger of a Subsidiary Guarantor into the Company) or sell, transfer, assign, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its Property in any one transaction or series of related transactions unless:

(a) the Surviving Person (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) formed by such merger, consolidation or amalgamation or to which such sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or disposition is made shall be a corporation, company (including a limited liability company) or partnership organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia;

(b) the Surviving Person (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) expressly assumes, by supplemental indenture in form satisfactory to the Trustee, executed and delivered to the Trustee by such Surviving Person, the due and punctual performance and observance of all the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guaranty;

(c) in the case of a sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all the Property of such Subsidiary Guarantor, such Property shall have been transferred as an entirety or virtually as an entirety to one Person;

(d) immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of related transactions on a pro forma basis (and treating, for purposes of this clause (d) and clauses (e) and (f) below, any Debt that becomes, or is anticipated to become, an obligation of the Surviving Person, the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary as a result of such transaction or series of transactions as having been Incurred by the Surviving Person, the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary at the time of such transaction or series of related transactions), no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(e) immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of related transactions on a pro forma basis, the Company would be able to Incur at least $1.00 of additional Debt under clause (1) of the first paragraph of the covenant described under Limitation on Debt ;

(f) immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of related transactions on a pro forma basis, the Company shall have a Consolidated Net Worth in an amount which is not less than the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company immediately prior to such transaction or series of related transactions; and

(g) the Company shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, an Officers Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such transaction or series of related transactions and such Subsidiary Guaranty, if any, in respect thereto comply with this covenant and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction or series of related transactions have been satisfied.

The preceding provisions (other than clause (d)) shall not apply to any transaction or series of related transactions which constitutes an Asset Sale if the Company has complied with the covenant described under Limitation on Asset Sales.

The Surviving Person shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of the Company under the Indenture (or of the Subsidiary Guarantor under the Senior Subsidiary Guaranty, as the case may be), but the predecessor company in the case of a lease shall not be released from any of the obligations or covenants under the Indenture, including with respect to the payment of the Notes.

Payments for Consents

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration, whether by way of interest, fee or otherwise, to any holder of any Notes for or as an inducement to any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of the Indenture or the Notes unless such consideration is offered to be paid or is paid to all holders of the Notes that consent, waive or agree to amend in the time frame set forth in the solicitation documents relating to such consent, waiver or agreement.

Events of Default

Under the Indenture, an Event of Default includes:

(a) failure to make the payment of any interest, including Special Interest, on the Notes issued under such Indenture when the same becomes due and payable, and such failure continues for a period of 30 days;

(b) failure to make the payment of any principal of, or premium, if any, on, any of the Notes issued under such Indenture when the same becomes due and payable at their Stated Maturity, upon acceleration, redemption, required repurchase or otherwise;

(c) failure to comply with the covenant described under Description of the Notes Merger, Consolidation and Sale of Property ;

(d) failure to comply with any other covenant or agreement in the Notes or in the Indenture (other than a failure that is the subject of the preceding clause (a), (b) or (c)) and such failure continues for 30 days after written notice is given to the Company as provided below;

(e) a default under any Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary that results in acceleration of the maturity of such Debt, or failure to pay any such Debt at maturity, in an aggregate amount greater than $10.0 million (the cross acceleration provisions);

(f) any judgment or judgments for the payment of money in an aggregate amount in excess of $10.0 million that shall be rendered against the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary and that shall not be waived, satisfied or discharged for any period of 30 consecutive days during which a stay of enforcement shall not be in effect (the judgment default provisions);

(g) certain events involving bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Company or any Significant Subsidiary (the bankruptcy provisions); and

(h) any Subsidiary Guaranty relating to the Notes ceasing to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms of such Subsidiary Guaranty) or any Subsidiary Guarantor denying or disaffirming its obligations under its Subsidiary Guaranty relating to the Notes (the guaranty provisions).

A Default under clause (d) is not an Event of Default in respect of the Notes, until the Trustee under the Indenture or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding notify the Company of the Default and the Company does not cure such Default within the time specified after receipt of such notice. Such notice must specify the Default, demand that it be remedied and state that such notice is a Notice of Default.

The Company shall deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days after the occurrence thereof, written notice in the form of an Officers Certificate of any event that with the giving of notice or the lapse of time would become an Event of Default under the Indenture, its status and what action the Company is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

The Indenture provides that if an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default resulting from the bankruptcy provisions) shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee under the Indenture or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of Notes then outstanding under the Indenture may declare to be immediately due and payable the principal amount of all such Notes then outstanding, plus accrued but unpaid interest to the date of acceleration. In case an Event of Default resulting from the bankruptcy provisions shall occur, such amount with respect to all the Notes shall be due and payable immediately without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustees or the holders of the Notes. The Indenture provides that after any such acceleration, but before a judgment or decree based on acceleration is obtained by the Trustee, the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding under the Indenture may, under certain circumstances, rescind and annul such acceleration if all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of accelerated principal, premium or interest, have been cured or waived as provided in the Indenture.

Subject to the provisions of the Indenture relating to the duties of the Trustee in case an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing under an Indenture, the Trustee thereunder will not be under any obligation to exercise any of its rights or powers under the relevant Indenture at the request or direction of any of the holders of the Notes, unless such holders shall have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity. Subject to such provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee, the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding under an Indenture will have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee with respect to such Notes.

No holder of Notes will have any right to institute any proceeding with respect to the Indenture governing such Notes, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any remedy thereunder, unless:

(a) such holder has previously given to the Trustee under the Indenture written notice of a continuing Event of Default;

(b) the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of such Notes then outstanding under the Indenture have made written request and offered reasonable indemnity to the Trustee under the Indenture to institute such proceeding as trustee; and

(c) the Trustee under the Indenture shall not have received from the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of such Notes then outstanding a direction inconsistent with such request and shall have failed to institute such proceeding within 60 days.

Subject to certain exceptions, the Indenture and the Notes issued thereunder may be amended with the consent of the holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding under the Indenture (including consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for the Notes) and any past default or compliance with any provisions may also be waived (except a default in the payment of principal, premium or interest and certain covenants and provisions of the Indenture which cannot be amended without the consent of each holder of an outstanding Note) with the consent of the holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding under the Indenture. However, without the consent of each holder of an outstanding Note under the Indenture, no amendment to the Indenture may, among other things,

(a) reduce the amount of Notes whose holders must consent to an amendment or waiver under the Indenture;

(b) reduce the rate of, or extend the time for payment of interest on, any Note issued under the Indenture;

(c) reduce the principal of, or extend the Stated Maturity of, any Note issued under the Indenture;

(d) make any Note payable in money other than that stated in the Note;

(f) subordinate the Notes issued under the Indenture or any related Subsidiary Guaranty to any other obligation of the Company or the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor;

(g) release any security interest that may have been granted in favor of the holders of the Notes under the Indenture other than pursuant to the terms of such security interest;

(h) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Note or change the time at which any Note may be redeemed, as described under Description of the Notes Optional Redemption;

(i) reduce the premium payable upon a Change of Control or, at any time after a Change of Control has occurred, change the time at which the offer relating thereto must be made or at which the Notes must be repurchased pursuant to such offer;

(k) make any change in any Subsidiary Guaranty that would adversely affect in any material respect the holders of the Notes under the Indenture.

(a) cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency;

If the Company exercises its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option, any collateral will be released and each Subsidiary Guarantor will be released from all its obligations under its Subsidiary Guaranty relating to the Notes.

The legal defeasance option or the covenant defeasance option may be exercised only if:

(c) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of such deposit and after giving effect thereto;

(d) such deposit does not constitute a default under any other agreement or instrument binding on the Company;

(g) in the case of the covenant defeasance option, the Company delivers to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the holders of the Notes to be defeased will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred; and

To the extent that any payment of Senior Debt (whether by or on behalf of the Company as proceeds of security or enforcement or any right of setoff or otherwise) is declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required to be paid to a trustee, receiver or other similar party under any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, then if such payment is recovered by, or paid over to, such trustee, receiver or other similar party, the Senior Debt or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be deemed to be reinstated and outstanding as if such payment had not occurred. Senior Debt of any Subsidiary Guarantor has a correlative meaning and shall not include any obligation of such Subsidiary Guarantor to the Company or any other Subsidiary of the Company.

Book-Entry System

The Notes will be initially issued in the form of Global Securities registered in the name of The Depository Trust Company (DTC) or its nominee.

Upon the issuance of a Global Security, DTC or its nominee will credit the accounts of Persons holding through it with the respective principal amounts of the Notes represented by such Global Security purchased by such Persons in the offering. Such accounts shall be designated by the Initial Purchaser. Ownership of beneficial interests in a Global Security will be limited to Persons that have accounts with DTC (participants) or Persons that may hold interests through participants. The laws of some jurisdictions require that certain purchasers of securities take physical delivery of such securities in definitive form. Such limits and such laws may impair the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a Global Security.

All payments on Notes represented by a Global Security will be made in immediately available funds to DTC or its nominee, as the case may be, as the sole registered owner and the sole holder of the Notes represented thereby for all purposes under the Indenture. The Company has been advised by DTC that upon receipt of any payment on any Global Security, DTC will immediately credit, on its book-entry registration and transfer system, the accounts of participants with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the principal or face amount of such Global Security as shown on the records of DTC. Payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in a Global Security held through such participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices as is now the case with securities held for customer accounts registered in street name and will be the sole responsibility of such participants.

A Global Security may not be transferred except as a whole by DTC or a nominee of DTC to another nominee of DTC or to DTC or to a successor depository to DTC or its nominee. A Global Security will be exchanged for certificated Notes only if:

(a) DTC notifies the Company that it is unwilling or unable to continue as a depository for such Global Security or if at any time DTC ceases to be a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act, and in either case the Company fails to appoint a successor depository within 90 days; or

(b) an Event of Default with respect to the Notes represented by such Global Security has occurred and is continuing and the Trustee has received a request from DTC to issue certificated Notes in lieu of such Global Security.

Any Global Security that is exchangeable for certificated Notes pursuant to the preceding sentence will be exchanged for certificated Notes in authorized denominations and registered in such names as DTC or any successor depository holding such Global Security may direct. Subject to the preceding, a Global Security is not exchangeable, except for a Global Security of like denomination to be registered in the name of DTC or any successor depository or its nominee. In the event that a Global Security becomes exchangeable for certificated Notes,

(a) certificated Notes will be issued only in fully registered form in denominations of $1,000 or integral multiples thereof,

(b) payment of principal of, and premium, if any, and interest on, the certificated Notes will be payable, and the transfer of the certificated Notes will be registerable, at the office or agency of the Company maintained for such purposes, and

(c) no service charge will be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of the certificated Notes, although the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge imposed in connection therewith.

Table of Contents

So long as DTC or any successor depository for a Global Security, or any nominee, is the registered owner of such Global Security, DTC or such successor depository or nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or holder of the Notes represented by such Global Security for all purposes under the Indenture and the Notes. Except as set forth above, owners of beneficial interests in a Global Security will not be entitled to have the Notes represented by such Global Security registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of certificated Notes in definitive form and will not be considered to be the owners or holders of any Notes under such Global Security. Accordingly, each Person owning a beneficial interest in a Global Security must rely on the procedures of DTC or any successor depository, and, if such Person is not a participant, on the procedures of the participant through which such Person owns its interest, to exercise any rights of a holder under the Indenture. The Company understands that under existing industry practices, in the event that the Company requests any action of holders or that an owner of a beneficial interest in a Global Security desires to give or take any action which a holder is entitled to give or take under the Indenture, DTC or any successor depository would authorize the participants holding the relevant beneficial interest to give or take such action and such participants would authorize beneficial owners owning through such participants to give or take such action or would otherwise act upon the instructions of beneficial owners owning through them.

DTC has advised the Company that DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the Banking Law of the State of New York, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a clearing corporation within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act. DTC was created to hold the securities of its participants and to facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions among its participants in such securities through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of the participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates. DTC's participants include securities brokers and dealers (which may include the Initial Purchaser), banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations some of whom (or their representatives) own DTC. Access to DTC's book-entry system is also available to others, such as banks, brokers, dealers, and trust companies, that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although DTC has agreed to the preceding procedures in order to facilitate transfers of interests in Global Securities among participants of DTC, it is under no obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. None of the Company, the Trustee or Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. will have any responsibility for the performance by DTC or its participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONSFederal Income Tax Considerations of the Exchange of Old Notes for New Notes

TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH TREASURY DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR 230, EACH HOLDER OF A NOTE IS HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT: (A) ANY DISCUSSION OF FEDERAL TAX ISSUES IN THIS PROSPECTUS IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE RELIED UPON, AND CANNOT BE RELIED UPON, BY A HOLDER FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON SUCH HOLDER UNDER THE CODE; (B) SUCH DISCUSSION IS BEING USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING (WITHIN THE MEANING OF CIRCULAR 230) OF THE NOTES BY THE COMPANY; AND

Table of Contents

(C) A HOLDER OF A NOTE SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON ITS PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

The following discussion is a summary of the material federal income tax considerations relevant to the exchange of old notes for new notes. The discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), Treasury Regulations, Internal Revenue Service rulings, pronouncements and judicial decisions now in effect as of the date of this prospectus, all of which may be subject to change or differing interpretation at any time by legislative, judicial or administrative action. These changes may be applied retroactively in a manner that could adversely affect a holder of new notes. The description does not consider the effect of any applicable foreign, state, local or other tax laws or estate or gift tax considerations.

The exchange of old notes for new notes under the exchange offer will not be considered an exchange or otherwise a taxable event to a holder for United States federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, a holder will have the same adjusted issue price, adjusted basis and holding period in the new notes as it had in the old notes immediately before the exchange.

Federal Income Tax Considerations of Ownership and Disposition of New Notes

The following summary describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences and, in the case of non-U.S. holders, U.S. federal estate tax consequences, of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the Notes by investors who had originally purchased the old notes at the initial offering price. This summary does not discuss all of the aspects of U.S. federal income and estate taxation which may be relevant to investors in light of their particular investment or other circumstances. In addition, this summary does not discuss any U.S. state or local income or foreign income or other tax consequences. The discussion below deals only with the Notes held as capital assets within the meaning of the Code, and does not address holders of the Notes that may be subject to special rules. Holders that may be subject to special rules include:

U.S. expatriates;

financial institutions;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt entities;

dealers in securities or currencies;

traders in securities;

U.S. holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; partnerships and other entities treated as partnerships for federal income tax purposes;

holders subject to the alternative minimum tax;

retirement plans;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

controlled foreign corporations;

passive foreign investment companies; and persons that hold the Notes as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion or other integrated transaction.

The following discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences of persons who hold the Notes through a partnership or other pass-through entity. You should consult your own tax advisor regarding the particular U.S. federal, state and local and foreign income and other tax consequences of acquiring, owning and disposing of the Notes that may be applicable to you.

In certain circumstances, we may be obligated to pay holders amounts in excess of the stated interest and principal payable on the Notes. The obligation to make such payments may implicate the provisions of U.S. Treasury Regulations relating to contingent payment debt instruments. We intend to take the position that the likelihood that such payments will be made is remote and/or that such payments are incidental and, therefore, that the Notes are not subject to the rules governing contingent payment debt instruments. This determination will be binding on a holder unless such holder explicitly discloses on a statement attached to such holder's timely filed U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year that includes the acquisition date of the Note that such holder's determination is different. If we become obligated to make such payments, we intend to take the position that such amounts are includible in a holder's gross income in accordance with such holder's method of tax accounting. It is possible, however, that the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) may take a contrary position from that described above, in which case the tax consequences to a holder could differ materially and adversely from those described below.

If, contrary to our expectations, the IRS were to assert successfully that the Notes are contingent payment debt instruments, then a holder may be required to treat any gain recognized on the sale or other disposition of a Note as ordinary income rather than as capital gain, and the timing and amount of income inclusion may be different from the consequences discussed herein. This may result in the recognition of additional interest income before the receipt of cash in respect of such interest income. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the Notes being treated as contingent payment debt instruments. The remainder of this disclosure assumes that the Notes will not be treated as contingent payment debt instruments.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders

For purposes of the following discussion, a U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of a Note that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions; an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust if, (i) the trust is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more U.S. persons as described in section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or (ii) such trust has a valid election in place to be treated as a United States person.

Stated Interest

Stated interest on a Note generally will be taxable to a U.S. holder as ordinary interest income at the time that the interest is received or is accrued in accordance with the U.S. holder's method of accounting for federal income tax purposes.

Dispositions

Upon the sale, exchange, retirement, redemption or other taxable disposition of a Note, a U.S. holder generally will recognize taxable gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount realized on the disposition and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the Note. The amount realized on the disposition of the Note will not include any amount received that is attributable to accrued but unpaid stated interest not previously included in income, which will be treated in the manner described above under Stated Interest. A U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in a Note generally will equal the U.S. holder's cost of the Note. Gain or loss recognized by a U.S. holder on the taxable disposition of a

Table of Contents

Note generally will be capital gain or loss. The capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Note has been held for more than one year at the time of the disposition. Long-term capital gain recognized by a non-corporate U.S. holder generally will be subject to a maximum tax rate which currently is 15%. Subject to limited exceptions, capital losses cannot be used to offset ordinary income.

Backup Withholding

In general, backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28% but subject to increase to 31% in 2011) may apply:

to payments of principal and interest made on a Note; and to payment of the proceeds of a sale or exchange of a Note (including at maturity), that are made to a non-corporate U.S. holder if the holder fails to provide a correct taxpayer identification number or otherwise comply with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. The backup withholding tax is not an additional tax and may be refunded or credited against a U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the correct information is furnished to the IRS.

U.S. Federal Income and Estate Tax Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders

For the purposes of the following discussion, a non-U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of a Note that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a nonresident alien or a corporation, estate or trust that is not a U.S. holder.

Under present U.S. federal income and estate tax law and subject to the discussion of backup withholding below:

(a) payments of principal, premium, if any, and interest on a Note by us or any of our paying agents to a non-U.S. holder will not be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax (which is imposed at a rate of 30% (unless reduced by an applicable treaty)), provided that in the case of interest:

the non-U.S. holder does not directly or indirectly, actually or constructively, own ten percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of our voting stock within the meaning of section 871(h)(3) of the Code and the Treasury regulations thereunder;

the non-U.S. holder is not (1) a controlled foreign corporation that is related, directly or indirectly, to us through sufficient stock ownership, or (2) a bank whose receipt of interest is described in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code; and either (1) the beneficial owner of the Note certifies to us or our paying agent, under penalties of perjury, that it is not a United States person within the meaning of the Code and provides its name and address or (2) a securities clearing organization, bank or other financial institution that holds customers' securities in the ordinary course of its trade or business and holds the Note on behalf of the beneficial owner certifies to us or our paying agent under penalties of perjury that it, or the financial institution between it and the beneficial owner, has received from the beneficial owner a statement, under penalties of perjury, that it is not a United States person and provides the payor with a copy of this statement,

(b) a non-U.S. holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain or income realized on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement at maturity or other disposition of a Note (provided that, in the case of proceeds representing accrued interest, the conditions described in paragraph (a) above are met) unless:

in the case of gain, the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year and specific other conditions are met; or

the gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business by the non-U.S. holder and, if an income tax treaty applies, is generally attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment maintained by the non-U.S. holder; and

(c) a Note held by an individual who at the time of death is not a citizen or resident of the United States will not be subject to U.S. federal estate tax as a result of death if, at the time of death:

the individual did not directly or indirectly, actually or constructively, own ten percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of our stock entitled to vote within the meaning of section 871(h)(3) of the Code and the Treasury regulations thereunder; and the interest payments on the Note would not have been effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business by the individual in the United States.

Because U.S. federal tax law uses different tests to determine whether an individual is a non-resident alien for income tax and estate tax purposes, some individuals may be non-U.S. holders for purposes of the U.S. federal income tax discussion but not the U.S. federal estate tax discussion, and vice versa.

Although exempt from the withholding tax on interest discussed in the preceding paragraph (a), a non-U.S. holder may be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to interest or gain relating to a Note on a net basis generally in the same manner as a U.S. holder if the non-U.S. holder is engaged in a trade or business in the United States and such interest or gain is effectively connected with the conduct of this trade or business (and, if an income tax treaty applies, the non-U.S. holder maintains a U.S. permanent establishment to which the interest or gain is generally attributable), provided that the holder furnishes a properly executed IRS form W-8 ECI on or before any payment date to claim the exemption from withholding.

A foreign corporation that is a holder of a Note may be subject to a branch profits tax equal to 30% of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments unless it qualifies for a lower rate under an applicable income tax treaty. For this purpose, interest on a Note or gain recognized on the disposition of a Note will be included in earnings and profits if the interest or gain is effectively connected with the conduct by the foreign corporation of a trade or business in the United States.

Backup withholding and information reporting generally will not apply to payments of interest made by us or our paying agents, in their capacities as such, to a non-U.S. holder of a Note if the holder has provided the required certification that it is not a United States person as set forth in paragraph (a) above (generally an IRS Form W-8BEN (or successor form), or an appropriate substitute form, together with any appropriate attachments). We or our paying agents may, however, report payments of interest on the Notes. Payments of the proceeds from a disposition by a non-U.S. holder of a Note made to or through a foreign office of a broker will generally not be subject to information reporting or backup withholding, except that information reporting may apply to those payments if the non-U.S. holder fails to provide the required certification that it is not a United States person (or the broker has actual knowledge or reason to know that the holder is a United States person or otherwise does not satisfy the requirements of an exemption) and the broker is:

a United States person;

a controlled foreign corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

a foreign person 50% or more of whose gross income from all sources is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business for a specified three-year period; or a foreign partnership, if at any time during its tax year, one or more of its partners are U.S. persons, as defined in Treasury regulations, who in the aggregate hold more than 50% of the income or capital interest in the partnership or if, at any time during its tax year, the foreign partnership is engaged in a U.S. trade or business.

Table of Contents

Payments of the proceeds from a disposition by a non-U.S. holder of a Note made to or through the U.S. office of a broker is subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the holder or beneficial owner certifies that it is not a United States person or otherwise establishes an exemption from information reporting and backup withholding, provided that the broker does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the non-U.S. holder is a United States person or that the conditions of any other exemption are not, in fact, satisfied.

You should consult your own tax advisor regarding application of backup withholding and information reporting in your particular circumstance and the availability of and procedure for obtaining an exemption therefrom under Treasury regulations. Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a non-U.S. holder will be allowed as a credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle such holder to a refund, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

The U.S. federal tax discussion set forth above is included for general information only and may not be applicable depending upon a holder's particular situation. Holders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences to them of the purchase, beneficial ownership and disposition of the Notes, including the tax consequences under U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. tax laws and the possible effects of changes in such tax laws.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Each broker-dealer that receives new notes for its own account pursuant to the exchange offer must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of new notes. This prospectus, as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time, may be used by a broker-dealer in connection with resales of new notes received in exchange for old notes where the old notes were acquired as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities. We have agreed that for a period ending upon the earlier of (1) 180 days after the exchange offer has been completed or (2) the date on which exchanging broker-dealers and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. no longer own any new notes, we will make this prospectus, as amended or supplemented, available to any broker-dealer for use in connection with any resale. In addition, until such date, all dealers effecting transactions in new notes may be required to deliver a prospectus.

We will not receive any proceeds from any sale of new notes by broker-dealers. New notes received by broker-dealers for their own account in the exchange offer may be sold from time to time in one or more transactions in the over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions, through the writing of options on the new notes or a combination of these methods of resale, at market prices prevailing at the time of resale, at prices related to prevailing market prices or negotiated prices. Any resale may be made directly to purchasers or to or through brokers or dealers who may receive compensation in the form of commissions or concessions from any broker-dealer and/or the purchasers of any new notes.

Any broker-dealer that resells new notes that were received by it for its own account pursuant to the exchange offer and any broker or dealer that participates in a distribution of the new notes may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act and any profit on any resale of the new notes and any commissions or concessions received by any such persons may be deemed to be underwriting compensation under the Securities Act. The letter of transmittal states that by acknowledging that it will deliver and by delivering a prospectus, a broker-dealer will not be deemed to admit that it is an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act.

We have agreed that for a period ending upon the earlier of (1) 180 days after the exchange offer has been completed or (2) the date on which exchanging broker-dealers and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. no longer own any new notes, we will promptly send additional copies of this prospectus and any amendment or supplement to this prospectus to any broker-dealer that requests such documents in the letter of transmittal.

Table of Contents

We have agreed to pay all expenses incident to the exchange offer (including the expenses of one counsel for the holders of the old notes) other than commissions or concessions of any broker-dealers and will indemnify the holders of the old notes (including any broker-dealers) against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Subsection (a) of Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Subsection (b) of Section 145 empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145 further provides that to the extent a director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145 in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith; that indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled; that indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and administrators; and empowers the corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a director or officer of the corporation against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liabilities under Section 145.

Section 102(b)(7) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware provides that a certificate of incorporation may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The registrant has adopted the provisions described above in its Certificate of Incorporation. The registrant has also entered into indemnification agreements with each of the members of its board of directors. Under the terms of the indemnification agreements, each director is entitled to the right of indemnification if, by reason of his/her corporate status, he/she is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or participant in any threatened, pending or completed proceedings. The registrant will indemnify each director against expenses, judgments, penalties, etc. actually and reasonably incurred by him/her or on his/her behalf in connection with such proceeding or any claim, issue or matter therein, if he/she acted in good faith and in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the registrant, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful. The registrant will indemnify each director for all expenses actually and reasonably incurred if he/she is successful on the merits. The indemnification agreements also provide for advancement of reasonable expenses, subject to proper notice being submitted to the registrant.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
