BARNES & NOBLE TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING ON NOVEMBER 17, 2010
TO RATIFY SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN

New York, NY (October 12, 2010) — Barnes & Noble, Inc. (NYSE: BKS), the world's largest bookseller, today announced that it has filed preliminary proxy materials with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") in connection with a special shareholder meeting to be held on November 17, 2010. The purpose of the special meeting is to seek stockholder ratification of the adoption of the Company's Shareholder Rights Plan by the Company's Board of Directors.

When the Rights Plan was adopted in November of 2009, the Company stated that it would give shareholders an opportunity to vote to ratify the plan within twelve months. The special meeting will provide that opportunity. Shareholders of record as of the close of business on October 21, 2010 will be eligible to vote at the meeting.

In general, the Rights Plan limits the ability of individuals or groups to acquire more than 20% of Barnes & Noble's outstanding stock without Board approval. At the Company's annual meeting on September 28, 2010, shareholders defeated a precatory proposal that sought to raise the Rights Plan threshold from 20% to 30%.

Barnes & Noble intends to solicit proxies from its shareholders to ratify the Rights Plan in connection with the special meeting.

Important Information

On October 12, 2010, Barnes & Noble, Inc. ("Barnes & Noble") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") a preliminary proxy statement in connection with the special meeting and plans to file with the SEC and mail to its stockholders a definitive proxy statement in connection with the special meeting. Investors and security holders are urged to read the preliminary proxy statement, which is available now, and the definitive proxy statement relating to the special meeting and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC when they become available, because they contain (or will contain) important information. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the proxy statement and other documents (when available) that Barnes & Noble files with the SEC at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, at Barnes & Noble's website at www.barnesandnobleinc.com and from Barnes & Noble by directing a request to Barnes & Noble, Inc., Attention: Investor Relations, 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011.

Certain Information Regarding Participants

Barnes & Noble, its directors and certain of its officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of Barnes & Noble's stockholders in connection with the special meeting. Security holders may obtain information regarding the names and interests of such individuals in Barnes & Noble's preliminary proxy statement for the special meeting, which was filed with the SEC on October 12, 2010. To the extent holdings by certain participants of Barnes & Noble securities have changed since the amounts contained in the preliminary proxy statement relating to the special meeting, such changes have been or will be reflected on Form 4s filed with the SEC. Information regarding the interests of such individuals can also be obtained from the definitive proxy statement relating to the special meeting when it is filed by Barnes & Noble with the SEC. These documents (when available) may be obtained free of charge from the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and Barnes & Noble's website at www.barnesandnobleinc.com. In addition to the individuals named in the preliminary proxy statement, Andy Milevoj, Director of Investor Relations, may also be deemed to be a participant in the solicitation. As of September 30, 2010, Mr. Milevoj beneficially owned 2,282 shares of Barnes & Noble common stock.
