Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On December 28, 2005, The American Stock Exchange ("AMEX") sent a letter to Home Solutions of America, Inc. (the "Company"), advising it that, based upon discussions with representatives of the Company and review by AMEX of publicly available information and AMEX listing records, the Company issued certain shares of its common stock without complying with Section 301 of the AMEX Company Guide, which states, in part, that the Company is not permitted to issue additional securities of a listed class until it has filed an application for the listing of such additional securities and received notification from AMEX that the securities have been approved for listing.

The Company has filed the applicable AMEX listing applications with respect to the shares of common stock in question and, upon approval by AMEX of the listing of such shares, expects that it will be in compliance with AMEX Company Guide Section 301. Furthermore, the Company has revised its standard operating procedures in order to ensure that future issuances of common stock are in compliance with AMEX Company Guide Section 301.
