PROXY STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

General

The preceding Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders, this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card are being furnished by Key Tronic Corporation, a Washington corporation (the Company), to the holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock, no par value, of the Company (Common Stock) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of the Company from holders of such shares. The proxies are to be used at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held on Thursday, October 24, 2002 at 10:00 a.m. Pacific Time at the principal executive offices of the Company, 4424 N. Sullivan Road, Spokane, Washington 99216, and any adjournments or postponements thereof (the Annual Meeting). The proxies appoint Jack W. Oehlke, Wendell J. Satre and Yacov A. Shamash, any of them and their substitutes, as proxy to vote all shares represented at the Annual Meeting pursuant to this proxy solicitation.

Record Date, Proxies, Revocation

Record holders of the Common Stock at the close of business on September 4, 2002 (the Record Date) are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, 9,672,580 shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding. A proxy card for use at the Annual Meeting is enclosed with this Proxy Statement. All completed, signed and dated proxies returned to the Company will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions thereon. If no instructions are given on an otherwise signed and dated proxy card, the proxy will be voted FOR the election of nominees for director named below, and FOR the ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent auditors for fiscal year 2003. Any proxy may be revoked at any time before it has been voted by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company at the address set forth above; by delivering a completed, signed proxy bearing a date later than any earlier proxy; or by voting shares in person at the Annual Meeting. The mere presence at the Annual Meeting of the shareholder who has given a proxy will not revoke such proxy.

Voting

Each share of Common Stock outstanding is entitled to one vote on each matter presented for a vote of the shareholders at the Annual Meeting. Under applicable law and the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated By-Laws, if a quorum exists at a meeting: (i) the six nominees for election as directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast for the election of directors by the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote shall be elected directors and (ii) matter 2 listed in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against it. In the election of directors, any action other than a vote for a nominee will have the practical effect of voting against the nominee. An abstention from voting or a broker nonvote will have no effect on the approval of matter 2 since neither represents a vote cast.

PROPOSAL 1

Six directors are to be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their respective successors have been elected and have qualified. The six nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes will be elected as directors. During fiscal 2002, each director attended at least 75% of the total number of Board of Directors meetings and meetings of committees of the Board of Directors on which the director served during the time he served on the Board or committee.

The Audit Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Sweeney (Chairman), Pilz and Terry met four times during fiscal 2002. The Audit Committee recommends to the Board of Directors the independent auditors to be selected to audit the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year for which they are appointed, reviews the fees of the independent auditors and other terms of their engagement and monitors the adequacy of the audit effort and the Company's financial and accounting organization, financial reporting and internal controls.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

The Board of Directors has a Compensation Committee presently consisting of Messrs. Shamash and Satre. No member of the Compensation Committee was an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries during fiscal year 2002. Mr. Satre served as President, CEO and Chairman of the Board of the Company from August 1991 through February 1992. None of the executive officers of the Company has served on the Board of Directors or on the Compensation Committee of any other entity, any of whose officers served either on the Board of Directors or on the Compensation Committee of the Company.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Overview. Key Tronic's compensation philosophy established by the Compensation Committee (Committee) is that annual total cash compensation should vary with the performance of the Company and long-term incentives should be aligned with the interests of the Company's shareholders. The Company's compensation plan is designed to allow the Company to attract, motivate and retain highly qualified individuals and to be consistent with the short-term and long-term goals of the Company. Compensation of the Company's executive officers including the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), except as otherwise noted in this report, has three primary elements: base salary, annual incentive bonus and annual stock option grants. Base salaries are established following a review of competitive information related to comparable companies, in similar industries, nationally and in the Northwest. Annual incentive bonuses are tied to the profitability of the Company and the key employee's contribution to the Company's performance. Annual stock option incentive grants are based upon base salary and the employee's contribution to the Company's performance. Annual stock option grants to executive officers are made under the Company's employee stock option plans.

Base Salaries. The Company's compensation philosophy emphasizes performance-based pay. The goal is to have base salary represent a target percentage of an executive officer's total annual compensation. Prior to setting compensation levels for executive officers, including the CEO, the Committee reviews competitive information related to comparable companies, in similar industries, nationally and in the Northwest. These companies include some but not all of the companies appearing in the Nasdaq Computer Manufacturer Index in the performance graph on page 9. The Committee indexes base salary ranges to be at average competitive levels. During fiscal 2002, executive officer pay ranges, including the range for the CEO, were adjusted upward to be consistent with the Committee's established index. Management recommendations (other than those of the subject executive officer) are considered by the Committee in establishing an individual executive officer's recommended salary. The Committee also considers factors related to individual performance, individual responsibility, Company performance based on net earnings and external competitive factors. The Committee establishes each executive officer's annual salary, including the CEO's salary.

Annual Bonus. The Committee established a key employee incentive bonus plan for fiscal 2002. The plan was based upon Company profit goals. A minimum Company profit goal had to be achieved before any payment was to be made under the plan to key employees, including all executive officers. Bonus payments under the plan were to be based on three performance levels: threshold achievement, expected achievement, and over-achievement of Company profit goals. Over-achievement payments under the plan were intended to be comparable to industry averages for annual incentive bonus plans. Payments were to be based upon a percentage of the key employee's fiscal 2002 base earnings. The payment percentage ranges were established in descending order for the CEO, all other officers and all other key employees.

The payment percentage range for the CEO ranged from 5% at threshold achievement up to 75% at over-achievement level. Threshold level performance was not achieved and therefore no incentive bonus for fiscal 2002 was earned by the CEO or any other officers or employees.

Annual Stock Option Awards. The Committee's policies make long-term incentive compensation an important part of motivating and retaining key employees. Such long-term incentive compensation is consistent with the interests of the Company's shareholders in that it ties executive compensation to the performance of the Company's stock. The Committee believes that long-term incentive compensation can best be implemented through the granting of annual stock options. The Committee makes the determination to grant options to key employees based upon each key employee's position in the Company, base salary and the recommendations of the CEO based on individual performance. The exercise price of the options is equal to the closing price of the Common Stock on the date of grant as quoted by the Nasdaq National Market, as reported in The Wall Street Journal. The vesting periods for options range from one to three years. The Committee granted an option to one executive officer during fiscal 2002.

Compensation payments in excess of $1 million in any taxable year to any covered employee (defined as the CEO and the Company's other four most highly compensated officers) is subject to a limitation on deductibility for the Company under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Certain performance-based compensation is not subject to the limitation on deductibility. To the extent that there is no adverse effect on the Company's performance-related compensation philosophy or on the Company's ability to provide competitive compensation, it is the policy of the Committee and the Board of Directors to minimize executive compensation that is not deductible by the Company for tax purposes.

The Compensation Committee: Yacov A. Shamash (Chairman), Wendell J. Satre
