Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Pioneer Natural Resources Company (the "Company") today announced that it has reached an agreement to settle claims made against it and its subsidiary in the lawsuit MOSH Holding, L.P. v Pioneer Natural Resources Company; Pioneer Natural Resources USA, Inc.; Woodside Energy (USA) Inc.; and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Trustee of the Mesa Offshore Trust (the "Trust"), which is pending before the Judicial District Court of Harris County, Texas (334th Judicial District). A description of the allegations and proceedings in the lawsuit is contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 and incorporated herein by reference.

Under the terms of the agreement, Pioneer will pay to the Trust the sum of $13 million (the majority of which has been reserved in prior quarters) in exchange for a full and final release of all claims made or that could have been made in the lawsuit. Pioneer will also contribute to the Trust proceeds obtained from Pioneer's sale of its complete interest, including its working interest, in the Brazos Block A-39 tract, which will be sold in conjunction with the Trust's sale of its assets.

The settlement agreement is subject to customary conditions, including court approval and the dismissal of the case with prejudice.

Except for historical information contained herein, the statements in this Current Report are forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the Safe Harbor Provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements and the business prospects of Pioneer are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that may cause Pioneer's actual results in future periods to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, among other things, government and third party approvals and litigation. These and other risks are described in Pioneer's 10-K and 10-Q Reports and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
