Item 5. OTHER EVENTS.

CRYO-CELL International, Inc. ( CRYO-CELL ) and its subsidiary, Stem Cell Preservation Technologies, Inc. ( SCPT ) have made changes to their Boards of Directors and officers:

- On January 24, 2003, Ronald B. Richard resigned as Chief Executive Officer and a Director of SCPT to pursue other business interests.
- On January 29, 2003, Daniel D. Richard, the Chairman of the Board, was appointed as Chief Executive Officer of SCPT. Daniel Richard was a founder of SCPT and served previously as its original Chief Executive Officer.
- On January 29, 2003, Daniel D. Richard resigned as a Director of CRYO-CELL in order to eliminate any conflicts of interest that might be caused by his simultaneous role as Chief Executive Officer of SCPT and a Director of CRYO-CELL. As the companies have announced previously, CRYO-CELL has declared a stock dividend under which shares of SCPT will be distributed to shareholders of CRYO-CELL, pending the effectiveness of a registration statement filed by SCPT with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The registration statement is currently in the review process with the SEC. After the distribution, SCPT will be a separate publicly held company.
- On January 29, 2003, Gaby Goubran and Charles Nyberg resigned as members of the Board of Directors of SCPT. Messrs. Goubran and Nyberg remain on the Board of Directors of CRYO-CELL. SCPT is currently seeking additional qualified individuals to serve on its Board. As a result of the resignations of Messrs. Goubran and Nyberg from the SCPT Board and the resignation of Daniel Richard as a Director of CRYO-CELL, there is no longer any overlap between the Boards of CRYO-CELL and SCPT.
