ITEM 13 CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company previously leased its principal facility in Philadelphia from an independent third party pursuant to a lease expiring October 1, 2004, with renewal options at a rental equal to fair market value. The triple net rent was $2.44 per square foot until October 1, 1999, $ 2.54 until October 1, 2001, $2.61 until October 1, 2002, $2.60 until October 1, 2003 and $2.70 until October 1, 2004. In May 1999, 2828 Partnership L.P., a limited partnership whose general partners are Stanley Ginsburg and Ira Ingerman, purchased the Philadelphia facility, and entered into a new lease with the Company (the "New Lease"). The New Lease provides for a term of 20 years, an option for the Company to terminate after 10 years subject to the landlord's ability to relet the premises, triple net rent for the first 10 years at a rate of $2.59 per foot and thereafter at a formula rate based on the hypothetical refinanced mortgage debt, plus $.74 per square foot. Upon a change in control of the Company, the rent will be reset at then fair market value if greater than the existing base rent. Following this transaction, the Company built a 15,800 square foot addition onto the facility to accommodate its need for additional office space for its internal needs and to relocate the DMS Store Fixtures operations into this location, at a total cost of approximately $1,500,000. Upon completion of this addition, the landlord reimbursed the Company for its actual construction costs, less certain financing and closing costs, and the triple net rent was increased by $13,666.75 per month for the remainder of the first 10 years, reflecting the additional debt service and costs incurred by the landlord to finance the addition.

Messrs. Stanley Ginsburg and Ira Ingerman are listed as 5% or more beneficial owners of Company Common Stock, and Stanley Ginsburg is the father of Robert B. Ginsburg, the President and CEO of the Company.
