ITEM 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On and effective August 15, 2018, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of WD-40 Company (the “Company”), based upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board, approved an amendment to the Company’s Bylaws (as amended and restated, the “Amended Bylaws”) to add provisions to establish the right of stockholders to request that the Company call a special meeting of stockholders.

The Amended Bylaws provide that record holders of the Company’s common stock representing not less than fifteen percent of the Company’s outstanding shares may present a request to call a special meeting. The requisite percentage of shares must be held as “net long” positions, as defined in Rule 14e-4 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and as more specifically set forth in the Amended Bylaws.

The Amended Bylaws set forth specific requirements for the content and delivery of a request to call a special meeting of stockholders, including the purpose(s) for which the meeting is to be called, information and documentation relating to the matters to be considered and acted upon at the meeting, information relating to the requesting stockholders and any nominees for election as directors, and agreements and representations regarding the request and the meeting.

The Amended Bylaws include other procedural and conditional requirements relating to the right of stockholders to request a special meeting of stockholders. These include restrictions upon the time that a request may be presented relative to past and scheduled meetings of stockholders, limitations on matters previously considered at a recent meeting of the stockholders or to be considered at a scheduled meeting of stockholders, and compliance with other specified requirements.

The Amended Bylaws provide that the Board will establish the date, time and place for any special meeting of stockholders and will set the record date for determination of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amended Bylaws, which are attached as Exhibit 3.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.
