Mr. Michael E. Nugent
Chairman, The Malaysia Fund, Inc.
c/o Triumph Capital, L.P.
445 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10022

Dear Mr. Nugent,

As I am certain you are aware, on November 16, 2011, the SEC released an order (File No. 3-14628) instituting administrative cease-and-desist proceedings in a matter related to The Malaysia Fund, Inc. (the "Fund"). Also on November 16, 2011, the Fund filed a Form 8-K which acknowledged the settlement of the SEC proceeding, announced the payment of an additional $1,302,074.92 to the Fund, and referred the reader to the SEC administrative order for further details.

We are very surprised that there has been no further communication from the Fund, and specifically from the Board, discussing the situation with AMMB Consultant Sendirian Berhad ("AMMB"). We are even more surprised that no further information has been provided regarding the Fund's tender offer subsequent to the announcement on November 14, 2011. When will you communicate with shareholders? When will the shareholders get full recompense from Morgan Stanley Investment Management ("MSIM") for its misdeeds and, most important, are you planning to take any action against MSIM for reputational harm to the Fund, including considering the appropriateness of terminating the advisory agreement? Will it be left to the shareholders to undertake what we view as the Board's duty, and for shareholders to fulfill your responsibilities for you? The way the Board disclosed the NAV impact of the settlement amount met only the legal minimum standard (i.e., the Form 8-K). We would advocate for a level of communication from the Board that was considerably more forthright and user-friendly than merely an 8-K filing in order for your product (i.e., the Fund) to be seen as competitive in the marketplace.

Based on a plain vanilla reading of the recent SEC action against MSIM, in our opinion, it was not only MSIM but it was also you, the Board, who failed to either adopt or ensure that Morgan Stanley had adopted policies and procedures designed to adequately ensure compliance with the federal securities laws, and it appears that for many years neither the Board nor MSIM have had in place the systems and controls required. The SEC could have, and perhaps should have, looked more closely at you, the independent members of the Board, for your failure to provide adequate oversight of the Fund and the Adviser. We believe that you have failed in your fiduciary duty to the Fund and its shareholders to protect their interests. Where have you been?

We wrote letters on May 17, 2011, on July 15, 2011, and on September 22, 2011, and have been patiently waiting for replies. In any other jurisdiction, those letters would have been responded to immediately. We understand that, in general, Boards of Directors of closed-end investment companies are under-resourced, underpaid, and often may not have the relevant understanding, expertise or training for the job undertaken; however, over many years you and the rest of the Board of The Malaysia Fund, Inc. and other Morgan Stanley funds, have accepted payment for services rendered and have continued to perpetuate your own existence. Here, we are referencing the fact that we cannot vote against Directors in the election process. In fact, you have retained outside experts, including fund counsel and independent counsel, to provide legal services to the Fund and to you to assist you to fulfill your duties and responsibilities in rendering services to the Fund and the shareholders, all at shareholder expense.

For the record, we continue to believe, and you have bolstered our belief, that Unitary Boards are a disaster for shareholders. The investment company industry and the SEC should consider adopting, as a best practice, a policy setting some limits on how many funds one board can effectively oversee. We also believe that properly trained Board members, adequately remunerated for their service, is the only way to go and would challenge anyone who believes otherwise. As they say, “You get what you pay for”.

We will continue to monitor this situation and, to the extent we deem necessary, will take any action we deem appropriate to protect the interests of our clients. Based on the SEC administrative order, we are very concerned with MSIM continuing to serve as investment adviser to this Fund or any other fund. Our present intention is to propose termination of every advisory agreement with a Morgan Stanley CEF where we have relevant influence.

In our opinion, the Board has demonstrated that it is not Fit or Proper to undertake its responsibilities.

Sincerely,
Jeremy Bannister
