If proxies do not give any instructions, we will vote shares FOR: (1) the election of the named nominees for director; (2) ratification of KPMG LLP's appointment as independent accountants; and (3) according to the best judgment of the proxyholder in regard to any other matter that properly comes before the meeting.

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is actually voted at the Annual Meeting by delivering a written notice of revocation to our corporate Secretary or attending the meeting and withdrawing your proxy.

We will pay the cost of this proxy solicitation. Brokers and nominees should forward soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of the stock such brokers and nominees hold of record. We will reimburse them for their reasonable forwarding expenses. Our directors, officers and regular employees, without extra compensation, may solicit proxies personally, by telephone, by mail or by other means of communication.

VOTING SECURITIES

Each share of common stock has one vote on all matters submitted to our stockholders at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders of record at the close of business on April 2, 2004 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On April 2, 2004, our issued and outstanding voting securities consisted of 16,772,415 shares of common stock.

The presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote will constitute a quorum for the meeting. Assuming such a quorum is present, for the purpose of electing directors, the affirmative vote of a plurality of votes cast is necessary to approve the election of a director. Counting of Votes

Our inspector of elections will count all votes cast in person, by proxy or by written consent at the meeting. Abstentions will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, and will be treated as votes cast and have the same effect as a vote against a proposal. Under Delaware law, if a broker or nominee indicates on its proxy that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter as to certain shares, those shares will be counted for general quorum purposes but will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval.

Board of Directors Meetings

Board Committees

Our Board has determined that each Audit Committee member is independent, and Mr. Corrigan is a financial expert, under the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and NASDAQ. Our Audit Committee engages our independent public accountants, reviews with the independent public accountants the plans and results of such audit engagement, approves professional services provided by the independent public accountants, reviews the independence of the independent public accountants, considers the range of audit and non-audit fees, reviews the adequacy of our internal accounting controls and reviews our critical accounting policies and is responsible for overseeing a variety of other accounting and financial reporting issues as enumerated in its charter, which is attached as Appendix A. The Audit Committee met six times in 2003. See Audit Committee Report.

Edgar Filing: ACME COMMUNICATIONS INC - Form DEF 14A

Our Compensation Committee is comprised of Brian McNeill (Chairman) and Thomas Embrescia. The committee determines the compensation and employment agreement terms of our executive officers and administers our 1999 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended. The Compensation Committee met three times in 2003. See Compensation Committee Report.

Nominating and Governance Committee

Our nominating and governance committee was formed on April 2, 2004 and is comprised of James Collis (chairman), Michael Corrigan, Thomas Embrescia and Brian McNeill. It operates pursuant to a written charter adopted on April 2, 2004, the full text of which is available on the Company's website at www.acmecomcommunications.com. The Board has determined that each of the members of the committee qualifies as an independent director as defined under the Nasdaq Stock Market's National Market listing standards. The nominating and governance committee identifies, evaluates and recommends to the board of directors candidates for appointment or election to the board, as appropriate. The committee will meet annually to determine nominees to the board of directors to be included in the annual proxy statement. The committee will meet at other times as needed to consider candidates to fill any vacancies that may occur.

In addition, the Nominating and Governance Committee (a) oversees the evaluation of the Board and management and (b) develops and recommends to the Board a set of corporate governance principles. At least once a year, the committee will consider whether the number of directors is appropriate for the Company's needs and recommend to the Board any changes in the number of directors and evaluate the performance of the Board and its committees. Because the Board first established the Nominating and Governance Committee in 2004, the Committee did not meet in 2003. The Committee will monitor and reassess from time to time these corporate governance principles.

A stockholder may submit the name of a director candidate for consideration by the Nominating and Governance Committee by writing to: Nominating and Governance Committee, ACME Communications, Inc., 2101 E. Fourth St., Suite 202A, Santa Ana, CA 92705. The stockholder must submit the following information in support of the candidate: (a) the name and address of the stockholder recommending the candidate; (b) a representation that the stockholder recommending the candidate is a stockholder of the Company's stock; (c) a description of any arrangement or understanding between the stockholder and the candidate and any other person or persons regarding the stockholder's submission of the candidate's name for consideration, and identifying such person or persons by name, address and affiliation with the stockholder, the candidate, and the Company, if any; (d) such other information regarding the candidate as the Company would be required to include in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of Securities and Exchange Commission if the Board were to nominate the candidate for election as a director or if the Board were to appoint the candidate as a director; (e) the consent of the candidate to be identified to the board for consideration and to be identified in the proxy; and (f) the consent of the candidate to serve as a director if elected. The committee may refuse to consider any candidate for whom the stockholder fails to provide the information mentioned above.

In evaluating a director candidate, the Nominating and Governance Committee will consider the candidate's independence, character, corporate governance skills and abilities, business experience, training and education, commitment to performing the duties of a director, and other skills, abilities or attributes that fill specific needs of the board or its committees. The committee will use the same criteria in evaluating candidates suggested by stockholders as for candidates suggested by other sources.

2003 Annual Shareholders Meeting

Messrs. Kellner and Allen were present at the Company's 2003 Annual Shareholder Meeting, held in Los Angeles, CA on May 29, 2003. No other directors were present.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Voting Agreement

In October 2003, our long-term voting agreement (the "Voting Agreement") with Messrs. Kellner, Gealy, Allen and Embrescia, and investment funds managed by or affiliated with Alta Communications and CEA Capital, all of which are stockholders, expired and was not renewed. Under that Voting Agreement, Messrs. Kellner, Gealy, Allen and Embrescia and affiliates of Alta Communications and CEA Capital had each agreed to vote their respective shares of voting stock in favor of each other's designees in connection with the election of our board of directors.

Registration Rights

We have a registration rights agreement with all of our pre-initial public offering investors who still hold our capital stock, including Messrs. Kellner, Allen and Gealy and, with the exception of Mr. Corrigan, all of our non-management directors or their affiliates. At any time, these stockholders, holding an aggregate of at least 25% of the stock covered by this registration rights agreement, may demand that we file a registration statement covering our securities held by them. However, the securities to be registered must have an anticipated aggregate public offering price of at least $10.0 million. These stockholders can effect two such demand registrations.

In addition, at any time we are eligible to use a Registration Statement on Form S-3 to register an offering of our securities, these stockholders may request that we file a registration statement on Form S-3, covering all or a portion of our securities held by them, if the aggregate public offering price is at least $2.0 million. These stockholders can request that we file two S-3 registration statements per year. In addition, these stockholders have piggyback registration rights. If we propose to register any common stock, these stockholders may require us to include all or a portion of their securities in such registration.

These registration rights are subject to our right to delay the filing of a registration statement, not more than once in any 12-month period, for not more than 90 days.

We would bear all registration expenses incurred in connection with these registrations. The stockholders would pay all underwriting discounts, selling commissions and stock transfer taxes applicable to the sale of their securities.

The registration rights of each stockholder under this registration rights agreement terminate when such stockholder transfers its securities under Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act or their shares have otherwise been transferred.

In connection with his agreement, Mr. Kellner directs overall Company strategy and supervises the Company's Chief Operating and Chief Financial Officers and is regularly involved with senior management in monitoring and overseeing the Company's progress and performance. We have full-time exclusive employment agreements with each of Messrs. Gealy and Allen. Each of the three executives were entitled to an increase of 1.6% of their base salary effective January 1, 2002, which they each declined. In January 2002, we exercised our option to extend the agreements with Messrs. Kellner, Gealy and Allen from June 16, 2002 to September 29, 2003. Although our exercise of these options entitled each of them to receive a 10% increase in their base compensation for the extended term, each waived their increase. The Compensation Committee authorized, and in August 2003 the executives entered into, agreements to extend the consulting and employment agreements through September 2006.

As of December 31, 2003, Mr. Kellner's annual consulting fee was $258,500, and will remain at this amount until his agreement expires on September 30, 2006. Mr. Kellner is entitled to annual cash bonuses as determined by our Compensation Committee. No cash bonus was awarded to Mr. Kellner for 2003.

As of December 31, 2003, each of Mr. Gealy's and Mr. Allen's base salary was $387,750, and will remain at this amount until their agreements expire on September 30, 2006. Mr. Gealy and Mr. Allen are entitled to annual cash bonuses as determined by our Compensation Committee. No cash bonuses were awarded to Messrs. Gealy and Allen for 2003.

The Compensation Committee also is charged with the responsibility to recommend to our Board of Directors for adoption an annual cash incentive plan under which Messrs. Kellner, Gealy and Allen will be eligible to receive awards. To date, the executives have declined the Committee's invitation to propose appropriate incentives and, therefore, the Board has not yet adopted such a plan.

Mr. Danduran is employed by us pursuant to a full-time exclusive employment agreement that expires December 31, 2004. Mr. Danduran's base salary was $165,000 at December 31, 2003 and was increased in accordance with his agreement by $10,000 on January 1, 2004. Mr. Danduran is entitled to an annual cash bonus with a target of up to 20% of his current base salary. No cash bonus was awarded Mr. Danduran for 2003.

No assumptions or representations regarding the value of such options are made or intended. The value of Mr. Danduran's in-the-money options was calculated by multiplying options granted with exercise prices below $8.78 by the difference between the exercise price and $8.78.

COMPARISON OF CUMULATIVE TOTAL RETURNS

The following graph compares the cumulative total stockholder return on a $100 investment in our common stock with the cumulative total return of a $100 investment in (a) the NASDAQ Composite Index and (b) a composite index of the following four peer companies: (1) Granite Broadcasting Corporation, (2) Hearst-Argyle Television, Inc., (3) Sinclair Broadcasting Group, Inc. and (4) Young Broadcasting Inc. Our peers were selected by the Company on a line-of-business basis and weighted for market capitalization. The graph is intended to provide a relevant comparison of total returns for the period from September 30, 1999 (the day our common stock commenced trading) through December 31, 2003. Because we effected our initial public offering in September 1999, the information in the graph is provided at quarter end intervals. The total return on the common stock is measured by dividing the difference between the common stock price at the end and the beginning of the measurement period by the common stock price at the beginning of the measurement period. The graph for our Company and each of the indices also assumes the reinvestment of dividends. Note: We caution that past stock price performance shown for our common stock is not necessarily indicative of future price performance.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee is, and during 2003 was, composed entirely of the outside directors named as signatories to the Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation. Except for the voting agreement noted under the caption "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" above that expired in October 2003, the Compensation Committee members do not have any relationship with the Chief Executive Officer, other executive officers, or the Company, other than their directorships.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Edgar Filing: ACME COMMUNICATIONS INC - Form DEF 14A

The Compensation Committee consists of Mr. McNeill (Chairman) and Mr. Embrescia, both of whom are non-employee directors. The philosophy of the Compensation Committee is to attract, motivate and retain highly skilled and effective executives who can achieve long-term success in the Company's present competitive environment. The Compensation Committee is responsible for determining our Chief Executive Officer's compensation, making recommendations to our Board concerning our other executive officers' compensation levels, administers our stock incentive plan and determines awards to be made under the plan to our officers and all other eligible individuals. The Compensation Committee may consider other forms of compensation, both short and long-term, in addition to those generally described above. The Compensation Committee recommended to the Board the approval of, and the Board approved Messrs. Kellner's, Gealy's and Allen's consulting and employment and consulting agreements and the August 23, 2003 amendments extending the terms of those agreements through September 30, 2006. Based upon the general economic uncertainties and continuing uncertain advertising demand and the resultant impact on the Company and the industry, the Compensation Committee determined not to provide for contractual increases in the executives' base compensation. The Compensation Committee, based on management's recommendations, did not award bonuses to the executive officers for 2003.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. In 2003, Mr. Kellner was compensated in accordance with his amended consulting agreement, which provides for an annual consulting fee of $258,500. In determining the annual consulting fees established in his original and extended consulting agreement, the Compensation Committee considered the compensation of comparable executives at peer companies in the broadcasting industry (some of which are included in the peer group index in the performance graph), taking into account Mr. Kellner's responsibilities, experience and individual performance.

Other Executives. Basing its decision on factors similar to those used in setting the Chief Executive Officer's pay, the Committee also authorized the Company to enter into three-year extensions of the employment contracts with each of Mr. Allen and Mr. Gealy. These agreements provide for a base salary and a discretionary annual cash bonus. Each of the executive officer's base salary for 2003 was $387,750 which was determined using the same criteria set forth above for Mr. Kellner. Each of the executive officer's base salary will be $387,750 through the remainder of their employment agreement terms.

Stock Options. In determining the aggregate award of options to its executives, the Compensation Committee makes a subjective assessment as to the appropriate level of equity to be granted to sufficiently and properly incentivize the executives and align their interests with those of the Company's stockholders. In 2003, stock options covering 7,000 shares exercisable at $7.25 were issued to Mr. Danduran.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

Our Audit Committee is composed of three independent directors and operates under a written charter adopted by our Board of Directors in connection with our initial public offering and last amended April 2, 2003 (see Appendix A). On April 1, 2004, Michael Corrigan joined our Board of Directors and was appointed as Chairman of our Audit Committee. The other members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Collis (our former Audit Committee Chairman) and McNeill. On April 1, 2004, Thomas Embrescia resigned from the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee selects our independent accountants.

Management is responsible for our internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of our consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent accountants. Management represented to the Audit Committee that our consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent accountants. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants all matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

Our independent accountants also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee's discussions with management and the independent accountants and the Audit Committee's review of the representation of management and the report of the independent accountants to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended

December 31, 2003 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Our Audit Committee has appointed KPMG LLP as our independent public accountants for 2004. KPMG LLP has served as our independent public accountants since 1997.

We expect representatives of KPMG LLP to be at the Annual Meeting and to be available to respond to questions from stockholders. We will give the KPMG LLP representatives an opportunity to make a statement if they desire.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of KPMG LLP is not required by our bylaws or otherwise. However, we are submitting the selection of KPMG LLP to the stockholders for ratification. If the stockholders fail to ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain that firm. Even if the stockholders ratify the selection, the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of a different independent firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of ACME Communications and its stockholders.

Ratification of appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent public accountants for 2004 will require the affirmative vote of a majority of voting shares of the common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting. If the stockholders do not make such ratification, the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors will reconsider the appointment.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent auditors for 2004.

ACCOUNTANT FEES

The aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by KPMG LLP, our independent accountants, in the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003, and December 31, 2002, respectively, are as follows (in thousands):

	Years Ended December 31,
	2003	2002
Audit Fees (including quarterly reviews)	$ 230	$ 225
Audit-related Fees
Tax Fees (1)	20	12
All Other Fees
Total	$ 250	$ 237

- (1) Fees related to tax advisory services relating to the sale of our St. Louis and Portland television stations to the Tribune Company which was completed in March 2003.

The Audit Committee pre-approved all professional services provided by KPMG LLP during 2003 and determined that the provision of non-audit services fees in 2003 was consistent with maintaining its independence.
