AMCOR WINS HIGH COURT DECISION

Amcor announces today the favourable decision of the High Court in the matter of Amcor versus the CFMEU and is pleased its resolve in pursuing the matter to the High Court has been rewarded. The Federal Court had previously decided that the demerger of PaperlinX from Amcor in April 2000, and the necessary transfer of employees from Amcor to PaperlinX connected with that demerger, triggered an entitlement to redundancy/severance payments. The High Court decision today overturns the earlier decisions of the Federal Court and finds that no such entitlement arises.

AMCOR COMMENT ON RATINGS ANNOUNCEMENT

Standard & Poor's Ratings Services announced today that it has lowered Amcor's corporate credit ratings from BBB+/A-2 to BBB/A-3. The outlook for the rating has been set at negative. The subordinated debt (PRIDES) rating has been lowered by one grading to BBB- and the junior subordinated debt (PACRS) has been lowered to BB+.

Amcor's outstanding debt, including hybrid instruments, totalled AUD 3.4 billion at 31 December 2004 with approximately 65% at fixed rates and 35% at floating rates. The average maturity of non-current debt is six years with staggered maturities out to December 2017, thus limiting refinancing risk.

A credit rating pricing grid is included in Amcor's major debt facilities and the downgrade will have an impact on the cost of floating rate debt. On a full year, going forward basis the impact is not expected to exceed AUD 5.0 million per annum with an insignificant effect in the 2004/05 year. Interest cover at the EBITDA level remains strong at 6.8 times, based on the half year results to 31 December 2004.

Amcor continues to receive good support from credit providers in the bank debt and capital markets.
