On April 29, 2005, Kevin R. Sayer informed the Company that he would resign as chief financial officer effective May 16, 2005. Mr. Sayer stated that his resignation was based on his desire to pursue other business endeavors. To the knowledge of the Company's Board of Directors and executive officers, Mr. Sayer's departure was not due to any disagreement with the Company's operations, policies or practices.

On May 3, 2005, Kevin Johnson, currently the Company's controller, was appointed as Vice-President of Finance, and upon Mr. Sayer's departure, Mr. Johnson will oversee the Company's financial and accounting functions.

Mr. Johnson, age 34, is a certified public accountant and has served as the Company's controller since May 2004. Prior to his current position with the Company, Mr. Johnson served as the director of finance at Medtronic MiniMed from 2001 through 2003, and as assistant controller and controller from 1996 through 2001. The Company has an agreement in place with Mr. Johnson, dated July 23, 2004, pursuant to which the Company has agreed to pay Mr. Johnson an amount equivalent to six months of his base salary in the event that he is terminated by the Company without cause. In addition, on February 21, 2005 the Company entered into an incentive-retention agreement with Mr. Johnson, under which if he is still employed by the Company on February 20, 2006, the Company will pay him a $65,000 incentive bonus in a lump sum. In the event Mr. Johnson resigns, or is terminated for cause, prior to February 20, 2006, he will not be entitled to receive the incentive bonus. If he is involuntarily terminated other than for cause prior to February 20, 2006, he will not receive the incentive bonus, but instead he will receive the severance protection payments under his July 23, 2004 agreement with the Company.

On May 3, 2005, the Company notified Mark R. Willig, the Company's Senior Vice-President, Sales & Marketing that his employment with the Company was being terminated effective May 3, 2005.
