ARCADIS SELLS ITS INTEREST IN SPANISH GRUPO EP

Edgar Filing: ARCADIS N V - Form 6-K

Arnhem, the Netherlands, June 15, 2005 ARCADIS (NASDAQ: ARCAF; EURONEXT: ARCAD), the international consulting and engineering firm, today announced that it has sold its 50% participation in the Spanish company Grupo EP to management and employees of that firm, who already held the other 50% of the shares. Following a discussion about the future ownership structure, ARCADIS decided to sell its 50% participation in good consultation with the other shareholders. The two companies will continue to work together on the basis of a cooperation agreement. Grupo EP has total gross revenues of approximately 135 million and around 1,700 employees. The company was consolidated for 50% in ARCADIS figures. The contribution from Grupo EP to ARCADIS net income from operations in 2004 was less than 5%. Deconsolidation will take place as of the middle of June 2005. Other financial details were not disclosed.

ARCADIS acquired its interest in Grupo EP at the end of 1995 in the framework of a management buy-out. ARCADIS policy is directed at close cooperation within the group to achieve synergy, which contributes to the growth of the company. Consequently, the company strives to acquire majority participations in its subsidiaries. When it became clear that there were no prospects to gain a majority participation in Grupo EP, it was concluded that it is also in the interest of Grupo EP to create a uniform ownership structure. The cooperation agreement will serve to continue ARCADIS good relationship with Grupo EP, particularly aimed at delivering services towards multinational clients.
