ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

On November 19, 2007, Safety Insurance Group, Inc. (the Registrant) submitted proposed rates and additional coverages to the Massachusetts Commissioner of Insurance (the Commissioner) under the Commissioner's newly adopted private passenger auto rating regulation. This regulation replaced the prior system of fixed rate regulation for private passenger auto insurance in Massachusetts effective April 1, 2008 with a new system of managed competition. Safety's proposed rates call for approximately 85% of all drivers to receive a rate decrease beginning April 1, 2008, with the maximum decrease being 25%. Of those drivers who would receive a rate increase, less than 1% of all drivers insured would receive the maximum allowable increase of 10%. Safety's filing also includes:

Account Discount of 10% for automobile policyholders who have another policy with Safety from any other line of business written by Safety.

Multi-Car discount of 10%.

Loyalty/Renewal Discount of up to 5% for policyholders who maintain continuous coverage with Safety.

Merit Rating Plan enhancements:

Increase Excellent Driver Plus (SDIP step 99) credit from 17% to 25%

Increase Excellent Driver (SDIP step 98) credit from 7% to 15%

The Safety Shield, a broad coverage enhancement endorsement. Some of Safety's Shield's features include:

Disappearing Collision deductible

Guaranteed Replacement Cost

Extended Substitute Transportation

Air Bag Mechanical Failure

Auto Loan/Lease Gap coverage endorsement

The rate filing will become effective unless it is disapproved by the Commissioner within thirty days or it is amended by Safety.

Safety will also offer a combined billing option on April 1, 2008 for policyholders who wish to have all their Safety insurance policies combined onto a single bill. In addition, Safety will be filing enhancements to its other products to give its agents a superior offering of auto, home and business insurance products.
