Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Power-One, Inc. (the Company) filed a report on Form 8-K on August 5, 2008 announcing the resignation of Jeffrey J. Kyle as the Company's Vice President-Finance, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer effective July 31, 2008. In connection with his resignation, the Company entered into an employment separation and general release agreement (the Separation and Release Agreement) with Mr. Kyle on August 19, 2008.

The Separation and Release Agreement provides that Mr. Kyle will be entitled to the following benefits in connection with his termination of employment: (i) continued payment of his base salary at the rate in effect on the date of his termination of employment ($232,000/year) for six months, (ii) reimbursement of up to a maximum of $13,900 for reasonable outplacement services during the six months after his termination of employment, (iii) reimbursement of 75% of the costs of medical and dental benefits under COBRA for up to six months after his termination of employment, and (iv) retention of a laptop computer and related peripheral items previously used by Mr. Kyle during his employment with the company.

In exchange for the benefits described above, Mr. Kyle executed a general release of claims in favor of the Company. Mr. Kyle also agreed to become subject to a one year non-solicitation restriction covering both the Company's customers and employees, and to an indefinite restriction on the disclosure of the Company's confidential information.

The foregoing description of the Separation and Release Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the attached exhibit.
