Renewal of Fannie Mae Committed Purchase Facility for Early Funding

Effective December 11, 2013, PHH Mortgage Corporation (PHH Mortgage), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, renewed its committed purchase facility for early funding with Fannie Mae pursuant to an amended and restated committed purchase facility for early funding letter agreement that is effective as of December 14, 2013, and is scheduled to terminate on December 13, 2014, subject to Fannie Mae's and PHH Mortgage's early termination rights (as amended and restated, the Committed Funding Letter Agreement).

Subject to compliance with its terms and conditions and provided no termination event has occurred pursuant to which Fannie Mae has exercised its right to terminate the Committed Funding Letter Agreement, the Committed Funding Letter Agreement commits Fannie Mae to accept sale and delivery and to purchase from PHH Mortgage mortgage loans and pools of mortgage loans pursuant to Fannie Mae's As Soon as Pooled (ASAP) and As Soon as Pooled Plus (ASAP Plus) early funding programs from time to time during the term of the Committed Funding Letter Agreement. This committed amount was reduced at the request of PHH Mortgage from $1 billion in order to reduce non-usage and commitment fees in light of lower facility utilization. Upon the occurrence of a PHH Termination Event (as defined in the Committed Funding Letter Agreement), Fannie Mae may either waive the PHH

Termination Event and continue the Committed Funding Letter Agreement in full force and effect or, at its option, terminate the Committed Funding Letter Agreement upon written notice to the Company.

The foregoing description of the Committed Funding Letter Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Committed Funding Letter Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.
