This Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 14D-9 (this Amendment) amends and supplements the Schedule 14D-9 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 19, 2014 (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the Schedule 14D-9), by MicroFinancial Incorporated, a Massachusetts corporation (MicroFinancial or the Company). The Schedule 14D-9 relates to the tender offer by MF Merger Sub Corp., a Massachusetts corporation (Purchaser) and an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of MF Parent LP, a Delaware limited partnership (Parent), to purchase all outstanding shares of common stock, $0.01 per share, at a purchase price of $10.20, net to the holder in cash and without interest thereon, subject to any required withholding of taxes, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated December 19, 2014 (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the Offer to Purchase), and in the related letter of transmittal (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the Letter of Transmittal). The Offer to Purchase and Letter of Transmittal are filed as Exhibits (a)(1) and (a)(2) to the Schedule 14D-9, respectively.

Capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined, in this Amendment shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Schedule 14D-9. Except as set forth below, the information set forth in the Schedule 14D-9 remains unchanged and is incorporated herein by reference as relevant to the items in this Amendment.

Item 7. Purposes of the Transaction and Plans or Proposals.

Item 7 (Purposes of the Transaction and Plans or Proposals) is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following paragraph prior to the last paragraph thereof:

On January 2, 2015, the MicroFinancial Board declared a cash dividend of $0.08 per common share, payable on January 15, 2015 to holders of record of shares of MicroFinancial common stock at the close of business on January 12, 2015. Holders of shares of MicroFinancial common stock as of the record date will be entitled to receive the dividend on shares that are tendered in the Offer, whether tendered before or after the record date.

Item 8. Additional Information.

Item 8 (Additional Information) of the Schedule 14D-9 is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following subsection to Item 8 following the paragraphs under the heading Appraisal Rights:

Litigation Related to the Offer and the Merger

Following the December 15, 2014 announcement that the Company had entered into the Merger Agreement, two putative shareholder class actions were filed on behalf of purported shareholders of the Company against the Company, its directors, Purchaser, Parent and Fortress Investment Group LLC (FIG) in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

On December 19, 2014, a purported shareholder of the Company filed a putative class action lawsuit in the Delaware Court of Chancery, captioned as Michael Zumbuskas v. MicroFinancial Inc., et al., Case No. 10479. That action was dismissed by the plaintiff on or about

Edgar Filing: MICROFINANCIAL INC - Form SC 14D9/A

December 22, 2014, and refiled in the Business Litigation Session of the Superior Court of Suffolk County, Massachusetts, captioned as Michael Zumbuskas v. MicroFinancial, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 14-4026 (the Zumbuskas Complaint). In addition to the Company, the Zumbuskas Complaint names the individual members of the Board, Parent, Purchaser and FIG as defendants. The Zumbuskas Complaint purports to be brought individually and on behalf of similarly situated public shareholders of the Company and alleges claims for breaches of fiduciary duties against the Board in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and that Parent, Purchaser and FIG aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties. The Zumbuskas Complaint seeks, among other things, certification of the putative class, certain forms of injunctive relief (including enjoining the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or any initiation or continuance of defensive measures that would inhibit a market check of the value of the Company), disclosure by the Board of all material information relating to the transactions, rescission of the transactions or the award of damages, in each case to the extent the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are consummated, unspecified compensatory damages (including pre-judgment and post-judgment interest thereon), the costs and disbursements of the Zumbuskas Complaint, including reasonable attorneys' and experts' fees, and other relief that the court may deem just and proper. The defendants believe that the Zumbluskas Complaint is without merit and intend to defend vigorously against all claims asserted.

On December 24, 2014, a second putative class action challenging the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement was filed by a purported shareholder of the Company. This action was filed in the Business Litigation Session of the Superior Court of Suffolk County, Massachusetts, and is captioned as Andrew James Dehn v. MicroFinancial, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 14-4042 (the Dehn Complaint). In addition to the Company, the Dehn Complaint names the individual members of the Board, Parent, Purchaser and FIG as defendants. The Dehn Complaint purports to be brought individually and on behalf of similarly situated public shareholders of the Company and alleges claims for breaches of fiduciary duties against the Board in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and that Parent, Purchaser, and FIG aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties. The Dehn Complaint seeks, among other things, certification of the putative class, preliminary and permanent relief, including injunctive relief enjoining the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, rescission of the transactions and/or the award of actual and punitive damages (with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest), in each case to the extent the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are consummated prior to the entry of a final judgment, an accounting for damages caused by the defendants and for all profits and any special benefits obtained by the defendants as a result of their alleged breaches of their fiduciary duties, the costs of the Dehn Complaint, including reasonable attorneys' and experts' fees and expenses, and other relief that the court may deem just and proper. The defendants believe that the Dehn Complaint is without merit and intend to defend vigorously against all claims asserted.
